Second Sunday of Lent

"While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my chosen Son; listen to him.'" - Luke 9:34-35

NOW UNDERWAY: 2025 Archbishop's Annual Appeal

TRUST

The 2025 Archbishop's Annual Appeal is now underway in our parish. Our goal is to engage our entire parish family in this year's Appeal and to pray for the success of the Appeal!

All funds contributed are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature. No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements. Please respond as generously as your means allow at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>.

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

While we have to be cognizant of our societal and personal responsibilities in this world, we can never lose sight of where our true citizenship lies: heaven. When we become too immersed in earthly things and preoccupied with our temporal responsibilities, we can become numb to our faith. Becoming ambivalent about our faith, our belief in Jesus Christ and the promises of heaven become more a source of agitation rather than a source of promise and hope. It is easy to become an enemy of Christ without even knowing it is happening. God has given us a very clear destiny. We are not meant to conform to this world but to the transfiguration and glorification of our bodies to come. It is here where we can see clearly not only who God is but who we are. The way many conduct the daily business of their lives suggests that such a promise or hope is of little importance. What does the way you live your daily life say about you?

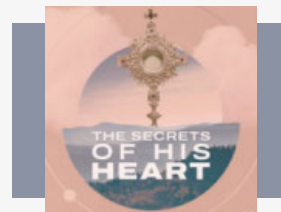

New Eucharistic Ministers Commissioned

Five parishioners were recently commissioned as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. In addition to assisting with the distribution of Holy Communion at Masses, these individuals will be bringing Holy Communion to the sick and homebound in our community. We are grateful to them for taking part in this vital ministry. Congratulations to Kelley Carey, Kristen Klin, David Muccino, Kara Roman, and Pete Savidge.

Branches on the Vine for Mar. 15 -21

A reproduction image of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is making its way around the world and may be viewed in parishes in the Archdiocese of Hartford this year. Read more about it in the latest edition of Branches on the Vine from the Archdiocese of Hartford. It's available at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/category/branches-on-the-vine/>.

Requesting 2024 Year-End Tax Statements

If you would like to receive a tax statement with your total donations to SS. Isidore and Maria in 2024, please get in touch with Melissa by phone (860) 633-9419 or by email. Please specify if you would like your statement mailed or emailed to you. There will not be an automatic mailing of statements. You must request it.

PLEASE NOTE: Online Giving users may print their statements from the Online Giving dashboard.

"Only by Giving are you able to receive More than you already have." ~ JIM ROHN

The Grades 7 & 8 families came together for a night of service and fellowship.

Together they assembled 100 lunch care packages which were donated to ImmaCare Inc. for their mobile outreach program. Many thanks for their time and generosity.

Parish Catechumens and Candidates Attend Rite of Election, Call to Continuing Conversion

On Sun., Mar. 9, the catechumens and candidates from SS. Isidore and Maria Parish attended the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion at the Cathedral of Saint Joseph in Hartford. Archbishop Christopher Coyne celebrated the Rite and welcomed the catechumens as the new Elect. The candidates were also blessed and will continue their faith journey towards the Easter Vigil. The elect and the candidates will celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation on the evening of Sat., Apr. 19, at the Easter Vigil at St. Paul Church. Congratulations to everyone!

Eucharist

"There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us."
+++ St. John Maria Vianney

The Solemnity of St. Joseph

On March 19th, we celebrate the holiness in the midst of unpredictable fatherhood. We first meet Joseph when he discovers his betrothed is pregnant...and not by him! St. Joseph does not know who the father is (yet), but he knows the punishment for adultery is death. He decides to divorce Mary quietly, and thus save her life. When an angel appears to reveal that Mary is pregnant by the Holy Spirit, St. Joseph trusts his dream and marries her. As a new foster father, Joseph must help his wife give birth in a stable. Later, he needs to escape the threats to his son's life by immigrating with his family to a foreign land. We know that St. Joseph is faithful, brave, and willing to sacrifice for those he loves. On the solemnity of St. Joseph, we don't merely celebrate a carpenter. We celebrate a hero!

March 28-30: Men's Retreat - In my Love, Abide

Jesus wishes peace and love for us. Jesus prayed often and taught his disciples to do the same. Pope Francis has named this year a "Year of Prayer". He described it as "a year dedicated to the great value and absolute need for prayer in one's personal life and in the world today". We invite you to come and explore the depths of prayer and learn ways to maintain the sacred connection to God through Christ. The retreat begins with a buffet dinner from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. on Friday evening and concludes Sunday with the celebration of Mass at 10:45 a.m. followed by a hot brunch at noon. Families of retreatants are most welcome to attend the Sunday Mass and brunch at no extra charge. For more information and registration, please contact the Holy Family Passionist Retreat Center at HolyFamilyRetreat.org, or 860-521-0440.

We welcome parishioners to add prayer intentions for family members free of charge in the bulletin for one (1) month. To do so, please contact the parish office at 860-633-9419 or contact@isidoreandmaria.org. We cannot publish the names of friends. Thank you for your understanding.

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves emboldened to and held captives by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess faith in the One true God, these less attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. Peter was so caught up in these fleeting moments' brilliance, awe, and sacredness that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Incredible things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something true. This is why creating sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really important. Do you create some sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the church, said that "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man...might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself.

St. Augustine saw this same transformation occur when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly, acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly.

Lenten Confessions

For Lent, SS. Isidore and Maria Parish will conduct the Sacrament of Reconciliation each Monday from 12 noon to 1 p.m. at St. Paul Church. This is in addition to reconciliation on Saturdays at 2:30 p.m. The dates are as follows:

- Mon., Mar. 17 • Mon., Mar. 31 • Mon., Apr. 14
- Mon., Mar. 24 • Mon., Apr. 7

Stations of the Cross

Each Friday in Lent at 6:30 p.m. at St. Paul Church as follows:

- Mar. 21 • Apr. 4 • April 18*
- Mar. 28 • Apr. 11

Stations of the Cross take place at St. Augustine Church on Good Friday, Apr. 18.*

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

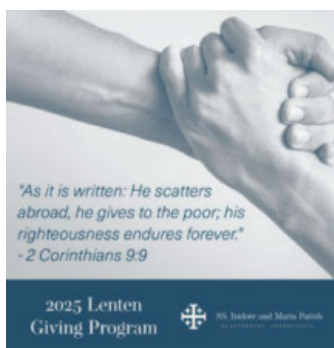

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

2025 CRS Rice Bowls Available

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish is coming together with more than 13,000 Catholic communities across the United States to help feed the hungry nationwide with Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowl. Pick up your family's CRS Rice Bowl now at the entrances of the church or make your online donation at <https://www.crsricebowl.org/>.

2025 Lenten Giving Program is here!

The Lenten Giving Program for 2025 is here, with donations supporting the parish HOPE Ministry. HOPE works to enhance the quality of life and help build self-sufficiency for those in our community who need financial and social services.

Donations close on Easter Sunday - April 20, 2025. Visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/lentengiving2025> to make your online Lenten Giving Program donation to the parish HOPE Ministry. You may also place a cash or check donation (checks payable to SS Isidore and Maria) in an envelope labeled HOPE Ministry into the collection kiosks.

Ministry Highlight

The SS. Isidore and Maria HOPE Ministry works to enhance the quality of life and help build self-sufficiency for those in our community who need financial and social services. The ministry coordinates with the Town of Glastonbury Social Services to supplement the support to families who currently receive services from the organization and is active in supporting the town food bank. The HOPE Ministry is also the beneficiary of this year's Lenten Giving Program.

Mar. 29: Faces of Homelessness

Have you ever thought about what it's like to be without a home – nowhere to sleep, eat, or bathe; no place to be warm; no one to care for you? Jesus experienced homelessness during his life on earth, as a newborn, and during his ministry.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish partners with HandsOn Hartford to present "Faces of Homelessness," during which two individuals who have experienced homelessness will share their journeys — both their struggles and their triumphs. It's happening on Sat., Mar. 29, from 1 to 3 p.m. in St. Augustine Hall, 55 Hopewell Rd. in South Glastonbury.

RSVPs are requested. For more information visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/faceshomelessness>.

ImmaCare Update

Thank you to all who gave so generously of their time and donated food for ImmaCare in March. It is very much appreciated. The schedule of ImmaCare events for April is as follows

- Thurs., Apr. 3: ImmaCare Outreach Program pickup
- Fri., Apr. 4: ImmaCare Dinner night
- Fri., Apr. 11: ImmaCare Dinner night

For ImmaCare Dinner Nights, anyone is welcome to participate by preparing food or helping to deliver and serve our meals at the shelter. Please visit <https://isidoreandmaria.org/immacare> to sign up for the dinner service of your choice.

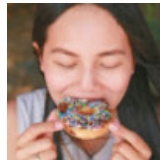

ImmaCare's Outreach Program continues throughout the month. The program seeks food to supplement its street outreach program, which provides nourishment five days each week to the unhoused living on the street, in abandoned buildings, or wherever shelter can be found.

For a list of needed items, visit <https://isidoreandmaria.org/immacare>.

Mar. 19: American Red Cross Blood Drive

Give the gift of life – blood – at the next American Red Cross blood drive at St. Paul Church on Wed., Mar. 19 from 1 p.m. – 6:15 p.m. If you are 17 or older, in generally good health and haven't donated whole blood in the 56 days prior to this drive, make your appointment today at www.redcrossblood.org.

Regina's Writings: Kindergarten Didn't Teach Me Everything I Need to Know

Robert L. Fulghum's popular 1988 book All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten outlined a few life lessons we learned during our first year in school. Based on her life experiences, M. Regina Cram has a few more to add to the list! Read her latest column on the parish website: <http://isidoreandmaria.org/category/reginas-writings/>.

St. Patrick | March 17

Whether you know him as the man who brought Christianity to Ireland or simply as a reason you eat corned beef and cabbage in March, St. Patrick (415 – 493) is a well-known saint around the world. St. Patrick was born in Britain of a Romanized family. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by Irish raiders from the villa of his father, a deacon and local official, and brought into slavery in Ireland. He spent six long years there as a herdsman, during which he turned to his faith for strength. He later escaped to Britain on a ship, where he was reunited with his family.

His years of captivity changed him and brought out a zeal for God and a yearning to spread the message of Jesus Christ. Despite the constant danger of martyrdom, he continued to travel throughout Ireland where he baptized and confirmed in the name of Christ.

This Day in History

March 17
Feast of St. Patrick
March 19
Feast of St. Joseph

So, Oliver, I guess we won't get a corned beef dinner to honor St. Patrick this week. But Harry, Dad loves cabbage! That's close to broccoli so maybe we will get some! Our Italian friends honor St. Joseph with special dessert treats like zeppole. Dad can honor St. Joseph without sugar by giving us lots of treats; twizzels are our favs!!
