Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Seeing is much more than just a function of our eyes. We can look at something with clear vision but not really see it. Often, what we think we see is colored by our presuppositions, prejudices, assumptions, and needs. We judge things by appearance, but God looks into our hearts. God's sight has a much wider range and far greater depth. Receiving things or people just based on appearance can lead us to erroneous and hurtful judgments. We think we are seeing clearly, but we are not. Allowing God to restore our sight to truly see is a worthy goal for our Lenten journey. Look within and look without. What do you see? Allow God to complete the picture for you. Ask him to give you the insight to look into someone's heart. Don't draw hasty conclusions or presume you know the truth. Be open and humble enough to receive the sight that only God can give.

Mar. 29 & 30:

Catholic Relief Services Collection

This weekend, SS. Isidore and Maria Parish joins parishes across the U.S. in taking up a collection to support the work of six Church-related entities that all aid the vulnerable in carrying out Christ's mandate in Matthew's Gospel to care for the "least of these."

We thank you for your prayerful consideration of making a donation to this second collection. Please use the specially marked envelope in your packet or place your donation in an envelope marked "Catholic Relief Services Collection" and place it in any donation kiosk. Please make any check out to SS. Isidore and Maria Parish with a note in the memo line that it is for the Catholic Relief Services Collection.

REGINA'S WRITINGS: God Uses Cracked Pots

God loves us despite (or perhaps because of) our messy imperfections. He isn't bothered by what we don't have or can't do. He asks what we do have and if we're willing to let Him use it, according to M. Regina Cram in her latest column. Read it here:

Seeing Is Believing

"Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

Jesus wants to motivate each one of us to see the truth. After developing a relationship with Jesus, the blind man "sees" Jesus as someone very special. The Pharisees, due to the blindness caused by their ignorance, prejudice, and need for self-preservation, still remain blind. Presuppositions, biases, assumptions, and our needs can easily blind us to the truth. We see what we want or need to see, not what is there. In addition, our stubbornness continues to convince us that we are right and our vision is perfect. Only God can complete the picture. Look around at our world. So much of what is happening today is due to folks' reluctance to allow themselves to be stretched and brought to see what is there. Many react to what life presents to them more with the lenses of ignorance than lenses of clarity. The Gospel carries great transformative value. With it, God corrects our vision and replaces our limited sight with the fullness of his sight. God opens our eyes so we can see that it is not about preserving what we have created but living in the immensity and wonder of God's kingdom.

Through a simple loving relationship with God, we can break through the tethers of prejudice, eradicate fear, dispel the darkness of hatred and sin, discover freedom, live in peace, work for justice, be effective stewards of creation, assist the migrant and the immigrant, and safeguard our economic systems and policies so that they truly serve all of God's children. What we see is often a self-created artificial lie. Our truth is much bigger than what our limited sight believes it to be. Allow God to work in and through you. Do not be afraid. Be open and be humble enough to know that you need help. Many people live with severe

Ministry Highlight — Music

The Parish Music Ministry fosters the connection between God's people and God through carefully curated music; assisting the assembly in expressing and sharing the gift of faith during weekend Masses, weddings, funerals,

This ministry includes adults (both professional and amateur), young adults, and children of various abilities and skills who participate as volunteers in the Gallery Choir (adults) and the Children and Youth Choir (Grades K-10). Anyone who plays a musical instrument is also welcome to volunteer their time and add to the joy of celebrating Christ in music. To volunteer, contact David Garrido-Cid at david@isidoreandmaria.org. Learn more about the Parish Music Ministry at <http://isidoreandmaria.org/musicministry>.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Much to Samuel's surprise, the Lord instructed him to anoint the youngest of Jesse's sons, David, to be the next king of Israel.
When have you been surprised by God?

Second Reading:

Paul urges the Ephesians: "Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord."
What do you think pleases the Lord?

Gospel:

Jesus' healing of the blind man created confusion, anger, and fear among some of the people witnessing this event. In a real sense, Jesus' healing exposed the blindness of others.
How do we prevent ourselves from being blind to God's presence in this season of Lent?

This Day in History — April 3, 1973

Cooper holding a DynaTAC cellphone in 2007

Martin Cooper (born December 26, 1928) is an American engineer. He is a pioneer in the wireless communications industry, especially in radio spectrum management, with eleven patents in the field.

On April 3, 1973, he placed the first public call from a handheld portable cell phone while working at Motorola, from a Manhattan sidewalk to his counterpart at competitor Bell Labs.

Cooper reprised the first handheld cellular mobile phone (distinct from the car phone) in 1973 and led the team that redeveloped it and brought it to market in 1983. He is considered the "father of the (handheld) cell phone".

Say Oliver, personal communications have come a long way! The "telephone" can now keep us in touch with one another and take pictures too! We can even take "selfies"! Let's email these to Dad!
