Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Life is about to get very interesting for the disciples. They find themselves questioning what happened to Jesus and whether he was raised from the dead; they are afraid and uncertain. Amid this fear, questioning, and uncertainty, Jesus surprises them with a visit! Complete with the gift of peace, this visit fills the disciples with great excitement and joy. However, their detailed testimony cannot convince their absent friend, Thomas. He wants to see for himself. We struggle with belief as well. It is hard for some to give themselves over to the testimony of another. We want to see the resurrected Christ in person. God, through the gift of eyes of faith, gives us the ability to do precisely that: when we witness the healing that comes from forgiveness, the beauty that flows from love, the wonder of creation, the new life that comes after we fall, and the unique soul that lives behind each person's life. Christ is risen. Life will also get exciting for us when we stop unbelieving and start believing!

Apr. 27: Novena in Memory of Pope Francis Begins

As we mourn the passing of our beloved Holy Father, Pope Francis, please join with Catholics worldwide starting Sun., Apr. 27, in praying this novena in his memory:

<http://isidoreandmaria.org/popefrancisnovena>

April 27: Join us for Divine Mercy Sunday

The second Sunday of Easter is also Divine Mercy Sunday. SS. Isidore and Maria Parish invites you to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at St. Augustine Church on Sun., Apr. 27 at 3 p.m. All are welcome.

Even Thomas struggles to remove his boulder. Being very pragmatic and determined, he wants to see the risen Christ for himself! Thomas's boulder is heavy with mistrust, and many of ours are, too.

pragmatic, unwilling to see things differently or become defensive. We need to be less guarded and less self-absorbed. God cannot break into the ordinary moments of our lives and inspire us when we cling to doubt. If we discover resurrection faith, we must believe that what the witnesses say is true, especially when they are credible. We also must trust that the risen Christ is alive in us!

A certain amount of skepticism is good, as it can save us from being duped or misled. But we can become so skeptical that it erodes our ability to trust anything we see or hear. Skepticism can be a well-disguised defense mechanism to prevent us from being hurt or perceived as foolish. Having too much ego protection is a real risk. Because of the boulder blocking his vision, Thomas could not even trust the word of his friends.

While the first witnesses to the resurrection have faded into history, many others have come after them. They continue to inspire by walking the talk of faith. They are the martyrs who offer their lives for the Gospel, the simple holy people in our communities who cling so steadfastly to their faith, those who have touched despair and found new hope, and the ones who, despite ridicule, still pursue their hunger and thirst for God. They are our friends, acquaintances, biblical heroes, saints, and many others convinced that they have seen the Lord! The risen Christ may not surprise us with the same kind of visit as he did the first disciples, but God finds other ways. All we must do is open our eyes, remove whatever prevents us from seeing and believing, and exclaim: "My Lord and my God!"

Boulders are hard to move. It's challenging to seek change or take a risk, especially when we are afraid to be vulnerable or trust another's word. It is difficult to be surprised by God when we are closed-minded, overly

"But the greatest of all [feast days] is Easter Day, the day of the Lord's Resurrection, because today assurance was given to us to obtain eternal and immortal life in soul and body. Christ gave it to us through his resurrection, which is the cause and the assurance of our resurrection."

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

In the aftermath of Jesus' resurrection, the Apostles performed "many signs and wonders," healing the sick and exorcising unclean spirits.

Is there something in your life that needs healing?

Second Reading:

John is initially frightened at the strange vision of Jesus, but Jesus reassures him, "Do not be afraid."
How does Jesus calm your fears?

Gospel:

The resurrected Jesus' first words to his disciples are "Peace be with you."

How could you be a peacemaker this week with a family member or neighbor?

Pray for peace in the Holy Land

This Day in History — April 25 — St. Mark

Much of what we know about St. Mark, the author of the Second Gospel, comes mainly from the New Testament and early Christian traditions. Mark the Evangelist is believed to be the 'John Mark' referred to in the Acts of the Apostles, the history of the early Church found in the Canon of the New Testament.

According to Christian tradition, Mark also held a close relationship with St. Peter, who referred to Mark as 'his son' in his letter addressed to several churches in Asia Minor (1 Peter 5:13). Clement of Alexandria, Irenaeus, and Papias all indicate that Mark was an interpreter for Peter. St. Mark lived for years in Alexandria, where he died as a martyr while being dragged through the streets.

St. Mark is the patron saint of our "Father" Mark! He also shares the gift of writing. Maybe Dad will share some special treats to celebrate with him, too!
