Seventh Sunday of Easter

"I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one."

— John 17:22-23a

Inspiration for the Week by Rev. Mark Suslenko

We all have our ideas of who God is. However, we must remember that our ideas of God often fail to capture who God truly is. God is a beautiful mystery whose identity is inexhaustible. This makes life an exciting journey, searching for belief, love, glory, and unity. Displaying all the tenderness of a real love story, we hear from Jesus that God wants nothing more than for the world to believe. The same depth of affection given to Jesus is what God the Father desires to share with us. Receiving this love provides the believer with a deeper understanding of what gives us purpose and meaning. With God's unconditional love as our anchor, we can endure the greatest of hardships, knowing that we carry the hope of glory within us. Sharing in the same incredible eternal destiny and glory that God gave His Son, we can all be one just as Jesus and the Father are one. Why is understanding all this important? Because given the myriad choices of what can define us, we now have the primordial truth of who we are given to us by God. We know, beyond doubt, where to look for true happiness and where our lives will end.

Jun.1: Support the Catholic Communication Campaign

Many dioceses in the United States will take the annual collection for the U.S. bishops' Catholic Communication Campaign on the weekend of May 31-June 1. This yearly collection supports the digital, broadcast, and print media communication efforts of the United States bishops on a national level, as well as in local dioceses, where half of the donations collected in the diocese are used to fund Church media outreach efforts to the local community. Thank you for your support.

The cost is $40 per polo, with proceeds from this sale benefiting Hands On Hartford* a social service nonprofit that serves Hartford's neediest residents in the areas of food, housing, and health. Additional contributions to the charity are welcome and appreciated.

Item(s) generally ship within two weeks after ordering. For more information or to make your order, visit <https://nacstores.com/collections/parish>.

Proceeds to the charity are calculated based on factors such as the number of total orders, the cost to the parish for each item, and the purchase price. 100% of the difference between the purchase price and the cost to the parish will be donated to Hands On Hartford, as well as any additional contributions.*

NOW UNDERWAY: 2025 Archbishop's Annual Appeal

The 2025 Archbishop's Annual Appeal is now underway in our parish. Our goal is to engage our entire parish family in this year's Appeal and to pray for the success of the Appeal!

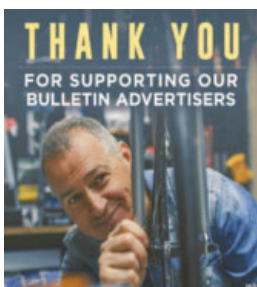

All funds contributed are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature. No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements. Please respond as generously as your means allow at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>.

Congratulations to all who are graduating this year. May the Lord continue to guide you.

"If we wish to serve God and love our neighbor well, we must manifest our joy in the service we render to Him and them. Let us open wide our hearts. It is joy which invites us. Press forward and fear nothing." ~ St. Katharine Drexel

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

PODCAST:

When Love Meets Suffering

In the last episode of his podcast, Father Mark examined the relationship between love and suffering and determined that they are not polar opposites as many of us have long suspected, but are, instead, intimate partners working together in our journey to God.

In this episode, he considers what happens when we bring love to our suffering and how it changes the journey in real and practical ways. Listen to both podcasts now:

The 2025 Memorial Day Mass was held at St. Augustine Cemetery on Mon., May 26. Check out the photos and video from this glorious day honoring those who gave their lives in service to our nation, and the repose of the souls of all who are buried at St. Augustine:

Ministry Highlight — Altar Server

The volunteers of our Altar Server Ministry enhance the celebration of the Mass by assisting the priest and deacons with the consecration and distribution of Holy Communion, the handling of sacramental vessels, and the carrying of the Cross down the aisle. It's a ministry open to anyone who has received the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children and teen altar servers assist priests and deacons during Sunday Masses, while adult altar servers do that, too, with the added opportunity to assist at Masses of Christian Burial, Nuptial Masses, and other services. Volunteers are always welcome. For more information or to join the ministry, contact Rich Ehrhardt at 860-508-5030, or cteherhardt@cox.net.

June 7 and 8: Wear Red for Pentecost!

Please join our parish community next weekend (June 7 & 8) as we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost by wearing red to Mass! Red is the liturgical color for Pentecost, symbolic of the burning fire of God's love and the tongues of fire that descended on the apostles.

We welcome parishioners to add prayer intentions for family members free of charge in the bulletin for one (1) month. To do so, please contact the parish office at 860-633-9419 or contact@isidoreandmaria.org. We cannot publish the names of friends. Thank you for your understanding.

Unity and diversity can exist together.

Our Western minds have a grave difficulty seeing unity without conformity. We tend to believe that unity is not possible unless everyone thinks the same thing and assents to the same body of truths, styles, and opinions. Jesus, in today's Gospel, expresses tenderness and intimacy that the disciples can witness. This same tenderness and love are also reflected in his desire for unity and oneness. Jesus passionately wants all to be one. The success of Jesus' mission and the advance of the Gospel rises or falls with whether this unity is achieved. And it is a unity that is centered around a person, not particulars.

Our church is hugely divided. These divisions center on various theologies, philosophies, structures, and styles. We allow these concerns and interpretations, valid as many can be, to drive wedges between us and put us at odds. They enrage us and cause us to lash out at other members of the Body of Christ. Differences are bound to exist in any group. We are unique and diverse people. Staunchly clinging to agendas and ideologies while waving the "we're right, you're wrong" banner as we forge ahead in battle does little to advance the fundamental mission of Christ. We are perceived as weak, fractioned, self-focused, self-serving, and lacking empathy and love. How can the work of salvation be accomplished like this? We sacrifice our credibility. For what?

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." These words describe precisely who the glorified Christ is. Jesus wants us to see this glory! Believe this! This is the unifying principle that draws the Body of Christ together as one, not our worship preferences! We give too much power to our preferences, and all too easily forget that the true mission of Christ is much more than that! If we can work at genuinely loving each other as members of Christ's Body, despite the differences that can so quickly divide us, we'll be a bit more convincing to those who do not believe.

The Risen Christ comes to us through the Eucharist. It doesn't matter where or how. Gather wherever you can and receive. We cannot substitute Jesus' passion with our own. We are one.

World Communications Day

will be celebrated on Sun., Jun. 1. During his audience with media professionals on May 12, Pope Leo emphasized the role of the media in promoting either division and discord or peace by calling "each one of you to strive for a different kind of communication, one that does not seek consensus at all costs, does not use aggressive words, does not follow the culture of competition and never separates the search for truth from the love with which we must humbly seek it."

"Peace begins with each one of us in the way we look at others, listen to others, and speak about others," he said. "In this sense, the way we communicate is of fundamental importance: we must say 'no' to the war of words and images. We must reject the paradigm of war."

Preparing hand bells for a Fall debut

Are you crafty or handy? Would you like to support our Music Ministry? Over a year ago, our parish acquired a used 4-octave set of Schulmerich handbells. They are in fair shape, but a small internal part needs replacing. We're looking to assemble a group of volunteers (7 to 10 would be ideal) to help prepare them for use this Fall! This is a great opportunity for those who wish to support our Music Ministry behind the scenes by helping refurbish, clean, and polish the bells so they're ready to ring in the new season. No prior experience is needed – just a willing heart and a pair of helping hands. The group will likely need to meet 2 or 3 times during the summer—days and times to be determined in coordination with those who show interest. If you're interested, please email david@isidoreandmaria.org.

Save the Date: Sept. 21 is the Fall Festival!

Save the date of Sun., Sept. 21, for the Roman Catholic Parishes of Glastonbury 2025 Fall Festival at the Elks Club, 98 Woodland Street, South Glastonbury, from 1 to 4 p.m. Join your parish family from SS. Isidore and Maria and St. Dunstan for food, fun, raffles, prizes, and games. Check the bulletin and parish website for Fall Festival news and updates later this summer.

Volunteers needed: The Fall Festival would not be possible without our wonderful volunteers, who assisted with setup, cleanup, greeting, cooking, serving, activities for the kids, and parking. Please get in touch with Erin Sullivan ereann21@hotmail.com or Damien Walsh (860-430-9608) for more information or if you would like to join the volunteer team.

"Surely it is a source of profound consolation to know that we are loved so deeply by Our Lord, who constantly carries us in his heart."

This Day in History: World Environment Day 2025

Each year, World Environment Day focuses on a particularly pressing environmental issue, such as wildlife conservation, climate change, or our vital connection to nature. For official celebrations, a different host country is chosen yearly.

The Republic of Korea will host World Environment Day 2025 with a focus on ending plastic pollution globally. Ridding the planet of plastic pollution is an important contribution to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals, including those on climate action, sustainable production and consumption, protection of seas and oceans and repairing ecosystems and retaining biodiversity.

Listen Harry, our Dad is always teaching about God's beautiful world and how we care for His creation. Dad always buys glass bottles and containers that can be recycled. We hope all our friends will help to stop "plastic pollution" and help to keep our world environment clean and healthy!
