Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." - Luke 14:33

Inspiration for the Week by Rev. Mark Suslenko

"Stand up straight and don't slouch!" Many a child has heard these words bellowed from their mother's lips. We need the perspective of others to help us understand when we are not walking as straight as we could be. God sends the Holy Spirit to correct and guide us so that our paths through life can be straight. Without this assistance, how we see and understand ourselves and the world around us is incomplete. We will also lack the virtue of fortitude. It takes courage to listen to the Holy Spirit and devote ourselves to the task of discipleship. We must set aside the things that the world says are necessary and follow the path laid before us by Jesus Christ. Jesus is asking us to follow him. We must consider what we have to do to be free enough to do so. God needs us to show the world a complete picture of what life is meant to be, to correct its vision, and to tell it to stand up straight!

Join the Hospitality Ministry – Help Host Monthly Parish Receptions!

We are looking for teams of 3 to 4 people to help host monthly receptions following parish services. This is a wonderful opportunity for individuals, families, and children to live out our call to service and strengthen the bonds of our faith community. Hosting a reception requires a 2–3 hour commitment, which includes time spent at the event.

The Hospitality Ministry Coordinators are available to provide guidance and walk your team through all the details — no experience necessary! If we receive enough interest, each team would be asked to host just one reception over the course of the upcoming year. Fellowship is a vital part of our parish life, and with your support, we look forward to continuing these joyful gatherings. Sign up on our website: <http://isidoreandmaria.org/hospitality>, or contact Donna Berger at donna@isidoreandmaria.org with any questions.

We welcome parishioners to add prayer intentions for family members free of charge in the bulletin for one (1) month. To do so, please contact the parish office at 860-633-9419 or contact@isidoreandmaria.org. We cannot publish the names of friends. Thank you for your understanding.

What virtue is the cornerstone of discipleship? Love. Jesus preached about it and lived it. Love is in our DNA. To follow Jesus, then, is to follow the path of love. While this may appear to be an attractive and easy option, it most assuredly is not. Authentic love always comes with sacrifice. It is the complete giving of oneself to another. The sacrificial character of love requires that we leave something aside and pursue something else. This is at the heart of self-denial. Love asks us to make choices that are often difficult.

There is a reason Jesus asks that the love of God come first. "Charity is the right attitude of mind which prefers nothing to the knowledge of God. If a man possesses any strong attachment to the things of this earth, he cannot possess true charity (St. Maximus the Confessor)." "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple." A devoted disciple must be single-minded in her quest for God. She cannot allow anyone or anything to have more power over her soul than God. When earthly attachments become more important than love, we can get ourselves into trouble.

The Gospel calls us to walk boldly into the darkness, confusion, and emptiness of the world, clothed in the mantle of love. We are asked to walk with others on their journey, offering a supportive, healing, challenging, and faithful presence. Ours is not to judge. To walk this sacrificial journey means that I must put myself aside and focus on the needs of others. "A sacrifice to be real must cost, must hurt, and must empty ourselves (St. Teresa of Calcutta)." Love helps us walk straight and focus, allowing us to see things more clearly, and helps others do the same. Many folks struggle to find joy and meaning in life. People may need someone with whom they can sit and share their pain, so they don't feel so alone. Through acts of kindness, gestures of acceptance, and words of compassion, burdens can be lightened. Believe in God's love and seek it above all other things.

Registration open for Walking with Purpose

The women's Bible study,

Walking with Purpose (WWP), returns for its sixth season with St. Dunstan and SS. Isidore and Maria Parishes.

For the 2025/2026 year, WWP is offering the following programs:

- Track 1 - Opening Your Heart (for new participants): Opening Your Heart is the starting point. It's perfect for a woman new to WWP (with or without Bible study experience). We invite you to come as you are and be amazed at how Scripture applies to your everyday life.
- Track 2 - Beholding His Glory paired with Beholding Your King, both for returning participants: Beholding His Glory shows us how all Scripture points us to our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. We'll learn to recognize and appreciate God's plan for our own lives, His awe-inspiring majesty, and His desire for personal intimacy with each one of us. In Beholding Your King, we'll study King David, select psalms, the temple, and many Old Testament prophets and see the ways in which they all point to the coming King of kings, Jesus Christ.

The cost of the program is $50 per person. Visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/wwp2025> for additional details or to register.

Volunteer Corner

Our parish ministries run on volunteer power! Your help is needed in a variety of areas, including:

Funeral Mass Greeters

We are forming a team of compassionate and welcoming volunteers to serve as Greeters at Funeral Masses. This team offers a vital presence to families and guests during a difficult time by welcoming attendees to the parish, distributing funeral programs, and providing a warm, supportive atmosphere. Funeral Masses are typically held in the mornings, and each commitment lasts approximately 1 to 1.5 hours. Volunteers will be contacted on an as-needed basis and can serve according to their availability. If you are interested in serving in this meaningful way, please contact Damien Walsh at 860-430-9608.

This Day in History — Sept. 7, 2025

World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly

The Fifth World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly is held in the U.S. on Sun., Sept. 7. This year's theme is "Blessed are those who have not lost hope" (cf. Sir 14:2).

Established by Pope Francis in 2021, the World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly is intended to be an opportunity to reflect on how the presence of grandparents and the elderly can become a sign of hope in every family and church community.

Visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/grandparents2025> to learn more.

Say Oliver, remember when Fr. Mark adopted us when we were young? Since he became our "spiritual father" and he has many "spiritual children" at SS. Isidore and Maria, that means we have many "spiritual Grandparents" right? We wish all grandparents, young and older and in-between, a very happy Grandparents Day!
