ST. PADRE PIO PRAYER

O God, You gave Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, Capuchin priest, the great privilege of participating in a unique way in the passion of Your Son, grant me through his intercession the graces for which I ardently desire, and above all grant me the grace of living in conformity with the death of Jesus, to arrive at the glory of the resurrection.

Prayer to Saint Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection Against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we Humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Prayer to the Divine Mercy

O Lord, behold here before You a soul who exists in this world in order to allow You to exercise Your admirable MERCY & manifest it before heaven & earth. Others may glorify You through their faithfulness & perseverance, thus marking the power of Your grace. How sweet & generous you are to those who are faithful to You.

Nevertheless, I will glorify You by acquainting others of Your goodness to sinners by reminding them that Your MERCY is above all malice, that nothing can exhaust it, and that no relapse, no matter how shameful or criminal, should allow the sinner to despair of forgiveness.

I have offended You grievously, O Beloved Redeemer, but it would be still worse if I were to offend You by thinking that You were lacking in goodness to forgive me. I would rather He deprive me of everything else than the Trust I have in Your Mercy.

Should I fall a hundred times or should my crimes be a hundred times worse than they actually are, I would continue to trust in Your MERCY.

Amen

1st SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said to him in reply, “It is written:
You shall worship the Lord, your God,

Exiit qui seminatur:

This week, of course, as we're well aware, marks the beginning of the Lenten season. However, last year, Ash Wednesday was on February 17th and next year Lent will begin on Wednesday, February 22, 2023. So why do the dates change? It actually has everything to do with Easter and our Jewish roots. Judaism follows a calendar that is based on a lunar cycle in regards to months and the orbit of the Earth around the Sun for its year. Since there is a difference between how often full moons occur versus how long it takes for a full revolution around the sun (a difference of 11 days), Jewish months and feasts are variable and makes 7 adjustments every 19 years in order to make up the difference so that the celebration of Jewish feast days will be around the same time every year (the same reason why we have a leap year every four years as a part of our civil calendar). So Passover is celebrated either in March or April every year (sound familiar?). For Roman Catholics, Easter is based off the same lunar and solar phenomena every year. Easter Sunday is calculated as the first Sunday after the first full moon after the Spring Equinox, the time in which the Sun can be found exactly midway in the sky. Now while the actual date of the Spring Equinox varies (either March 19, 20 or 21), the Church, for simplicity's sake, has a firm date of March 21st. So, the first Sunday after the first full moon AFTER March 21st determines when Easter will be. However, it is interesting to note that not every Catholic celebrates Easter the same way. The Eastern Rites of Catholicism don't use the Gregorian calendar (from Pope Gregory XIII) as the basis of the liturgical year like the Roman Church. Instead they follow the older Julian calendar created by Julius Caesar around 46 BC. The Julian Calendar uses 19 year solar cycle instead of the 84 year cycle of the Gregorian Calendar and causes a 13 day difference between the Eastern and Western expressions of the Church. This year, our Eastern rite brothers and sisters will celebrate Easter on April 24th, a full week after we do. Even though the dates keeps changing, the full impact of the mystery remains the same and our celebration of Easter will be no less glorious!

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Fr. Rob Sinatra

MOURNING JOURNEY

The mourning journey grief support group will resume its Spring session on Thursdays this coming March 10, 2022. The group is open to any adult who is grieving/mourning the loss of a loved one, whether recent or not. Three compassionate diocesan trained ladies facilitate the group which runs for approximately 10 to 12 weeks on consecutive Thursday evenings. This no cost program is sponsored by the Parish of All Saints, Millville, N.J. One does not need to be a Catholic to participate. We are a non-denominational group, so please spread the word to someone who might benefit from this program. Having the opportunity to share one's grief, mourning, thoughts, fears, tears and yes even laughter with others who are going through a similar situation is very therapeutic. We distribute a textbook to participants, free of charge, written by Dr. Alan Wolfelt, a well respected expert on the subject of grief and mourning. Space is limited to 10 people. We meet in the Parish Center, formally St. Magdalen School, 621 Dock Street, Millville, N.J. from 7:00pm til 8:30pm. To register or for more information, contact Ellen at 856-825-8195 or 856-825-0021.

Stations of the Cross

1st Station: Pilate Condemns Jesus to Death

Pilate condemned Jesus because of vanity.
 Caiaphas condemned Jesus because of pride.
 Herod condemned Jesus because of sensuality.
 Which of these most often drives my sins?
 How do I control & resist those temptations?

2nd Station: Jesus Accepts His Cross

It is Jesus who helps us accept the crosses sent to us.

3rd Station: Jesus Falls the 1st Time

Jesus followers became distressed when they saw Jesus condemned, beaten & scourged. They saw Him bear the cross. Their faith was tested. We also become discouraged with setbacks & failures in our lives.

It iz me, Batman, da rectory doggo! Many tankz 2 everyone 4 dere wordz o comfort 4 my shorter-er column last week. But now I IZ BACK just in time 2 talk about da 1st Sunday o Lent! I haz an admission 2 make. I am very easily tempted. If u offerz me a snacko, u can get me 2 do all sortz o tings and if u make da mistake o leavin' someting out, I will get it and eat it. I can'tz help it!!! But I iz a doggo and datz wut we do. Hoomanz r also tempted by lotz o tingz 2, but hopefully u haz better self control dan I do!!! Even Jesus wuz tempted in da desert 2 abuse His power as God, not once, not twice, but TREE timez! But Jesus knew EXACTLY who He wuz so He toldz da devil 2 scram like a catz. Dat iz wut Lent iz all about, not just about all da tingz da we doez wrong, not all da tingz we r givin up or tryin 2 do, but da realization of who we EXACTLY r in God's eyez! When we know exactly who we r as children of da Lord, den we knowz dat dere r tingz dat we haz 2 work on so we live out our livez as Christians (see prayer, fasting and almsgiving). So don't b like me and keep fallin 2 temptation! BE LIKE U - LOVED BY GOD AND ON DA JOURNEY 2 HEAVEN! And may u haz an awesome Lent 2 be a better U!

God Bless (and remember dat doggoz don't hav 2 giv stuff up 4 Lent)!

Batman, da rectory doggo
