From Father Tom Sunday of the Word of God

A few years ago, Pope Francis – in order to foster greater appreciation of the sacred Scriptures among Catholics – designated the Third Sunday in Ordinary time as the “Sunday of the Word of God.” Therefore, the liturgies in OLS and OLV this weekend will, in a special way, celebrate this unique gift, the holy Bible, God’s revealed Word, and the need for all believers to love and study the Scriptures and to embrace the truth contained in them.

The Pope’s original document establishing this new focus is called “Aperuit Illis”, published in September 2019. In it, he asks Catholic parishes throughout the world be united in the theme of their worship this weekend. He asked all to celebrate, study and disseminate the Word of God with particular emphasis on this day. This was something new! He was asking pastors, preachers, catechists and liturgists to put aside all other themes on this given Sunday and share the riches of “the Word” with Catholics in all parts of the world. (The first Sunday of the World of God took place on 26 January in 2020.)

The title of the papal document, “Aperuit Illis”, is taken from St. Luke’s Gospel, where the Evangelist describes how the Risen Jesus appeared to his disciples, and how “he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures”.[2] Francis issued this directive in consequence of his intention to set aside “a Sunday given over entirely to the Word of God, so as to appreciate the inexhaustible riches contained in that constant dialogue between the Lord and his people” which he first talked about right after his election as chief pastor of the universal church.

So this weekend, let’s all focus on the Bible! We Catholics already know a great deal about it. From our childhood, we have been taught and guided by it’s teachings, stories, parables and its spirit. Yet, it’s riches are inexhaustible. In it’s very center is the Person of Christ, whose birth, death and resurrection has saved us all. One could spend a whole lifetime studying him, and still know very little. The good news is that we do have access to him here on earth in the sacred Scriptures, and we’ll have an eternity to come to know him more deeply, and love him more deeply, face to face, in heaven.

January 18th-25th, 2022

We are in the midst of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The “Church Unity Octave” was begun in January 1908 when a group of Episcopalian nuns and an Episcopalian priest, met on a remote hillside fifty miles from New York City called “Graymoor”, and decided to pray with intensity that the diverse Christian denominations separated after the Protestant Reformation would once again unite in faith and practice. Their meeting eventually caught the imagination of others and an energetic movement was born which blossomed into a worldwide effort to restore the unity of Christians. Over the years, this Unity Octave (also called “the Chair of Unity Octave”) developed into the “Week of Prayer for Christian Unity” which is now celebrated in Catholic and many Protestant churches throughout the world.

The two American Episcopalians who started the movement were Father Paul Wattson and Sister Lurana White, co-founders of the Franciscan Friars and Sisters of the Atonement. Eventually, both Fr. Paul and Mother Lurana entered the Catholic Church and brought their communities along with them. Their Order remains, to this day, committed to work for the reunion between Anglicans and Catholics as well as other denominations. They work and pray daily that “all may be one” -- that separated, Christians may once again be united in “one flock, one fold”.

When Fr. Paul and Mother Lurana became Catholic, Pope Pius X gave his blessing to the Church Unity Octave in 1916 and Pope Benedict XV extended this observance to the universal Church. This recognition by the pope gave the Octave its impetus throughout the Roman Catholic Church. Until his death, Fr. Paul – today on his way to canonization – emphasized the fundamental importance of remaining united in one Church, under the chief shepherd of the Church, the Pope. The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is celebrated every year from January 18-25.

After years of mutual mistrust and persecutions, Catholics today are fortunate that we live in an ecumenical age where there is no longer a great divide among Catholics, Protestants, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Evangelicals, etc. We are no longer walled up in defensive fear, unwilling to talk and interact with one another. One of the great graces of the Second Vatican Council is that it ushered in an “age of ecumenism” and “dialogue”. However, though we work side by side with our separated brothers and sisters, though we share resources and prayer, there still exists fundamental differences in our practices and beliefs. Our “divisions” still center around issues relating to the place of the Bible in our lives, the controversy of “faith verses works”, the importance of Tradition, the role of the Holy Father, the number of the Sacraments, the theology of the Holy Eucharist and priesthood, the role of the Blessed Virgin and the saints, and many moral teachings of the Church, such as abortion, contraception, homosexuality, celibacy for clergy, etc. These issues, among many, are far from resolved among Christians today.

So, there is work to be done in order for reunion to take place.

We pray this week, in a special way, that Christians will soon resolve these matters and reunite once again. We thank God for the work of the Vatican over these past decades in establishing permanent connection and dialogue with non-Catholic communities of faith. The path of reunion is still, for the most part, ahead-of-us. Our prayers and love will eventually show us the way.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
January 23, 2022—The 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God’s transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the “gods” of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God’s constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God’s Word, God’s life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one’s soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn’t forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God’s Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainly of God’s fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away. ©LPi
