Dear Friends in Christ,

This weekend, the Second Sunday of Easter, is also referred to in the Church as Divine Mercy Sunday. This title has a relatively short history in the 2,000 plus years of the Church, but this does not in any way diminish the importance of the celebration. Pope Saint John Paul II decreed that Divine Mercy Sunday should be celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter for the Church throughout the world. The Vatican Congregation for Divine Worship says this about Divine Mercy Sunday:

"In connection with the octave of Easter, recent years have witnessed the development and diffusion of a special devotion to the Divine Mercy based on the writings of Sr. Faustina Kowalska, who was canonized 30 April 2000. It concentrates on the mercy poured forth in Christ's death and resurrection, fount of the Holy Spirit who forgives sins and restores joy at having been redeemed. Since the liturgy of the Second Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday - as it is now called - is the natural locus in which to express man's acceptance of the Redeemer's mercy, the faithful should be taught to understand this devotion in the light of the liturgical celebrations of these Easter days."

Mercy and sacrifice are undeniably linked when we look upon Jesus on the Cross and when we encounter Him in the Eucharist. Especially after the serious focus on repentance that we have embraced in the past season of Lent, the idea of God's mercy should be fresh in our hearts and in our minds. As we continue to celebrate Jesus' resurrection, we are also called to reflect on the depths of His mercy for each one of us. May the mercy that we receive daily from our Lord help us to extend that mercy to those we encounter in the world!

May God Bless you!
