hen Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." - ME 17:4-5

The Health & Wellness Committee would like to thank all parishioners and non-parishioners who have had their blood pressure taken by our medical volunteers over the past few years. This service has been offered because of requests provided by your responses to the Medical Needs Survey. We would like to invite any parishioner interested in expanding ideas for additional programs to our next meeting on March 8, 2023 at 6:00 p.m. in the church conference room. New people bring new ideas! Please share with us what health service ideas could be added. Contact any member of the H & W Committee by calling the rectory. Leave your name and phone number. One of the committee members will be happy to return your call.

MONDAYS

Church of the Resurrection will offer confession every Monday during Lent from 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m.

> The Long Walk Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The walk down from Mount Tabor after the Transfiguration must have been a long one for Peter, James, and John. How differently they must have viewed the world with the eyes that had seen what they had just seen. How uncertain they must have been. I think it's important to remember that, on the mountain, they were amazed, yes - but first, they were afraid. We are given the image of these three grown men – these saints, these giants of salvation history – cowering in fear at the voice of God. It was not until Jesus touched them that they could even bear to look up. Christ was transfigured on Tabor, but in a way, the disciples were transfigured as well. We are all changed by what we see and what we hear. That change can be hard because knowledge is hard. Truth is hard. Sometimes cowering is easier. Go forth, God told Abram. I will make of you a great nation, rise, Christ told his disciples. And do not be afraid. I spend too much time cowering in fear at the voice of God. I cower even when the voice whispers into my heart instead of booming from the clouds. When it's the start of a hard day or a tough conversation. When it's the middle of a half-finished battle, big or small. When I know where Christ is and what he is asking, but I'm afraid because the walk down the mountain is so long, and the world that awaits me is so uncertain.

March 12th is the beginning of Daylight Savings Time. Please remember to set your clocks one hour ahead.
