“The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all who cause others to sin and all evildoers. They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father.”

— Mt 13:41-43a

ST. SHARBEL MAKHLUF

On July 24th, we celebrate the feast of a saint who ran away from home! St. Sharbel was born Yusef Antoun Makhluf in the Lebanese countryside in the mid-1800's. His life was a simple one, attending school, caring for the family cow, and taking long solitary walks to contemplate the beauty of creation. When his family pressured him to marry, the young man quietly left home without a word. He traveled on foot to a nearby monastery. When his family caught wind of where he had gone, the decision had been made. After being ordained a priest, St. Sharbel still showed a longing for solitude. He received permission to become a hermit. His reputation for holiness, however, led to a busier life than he might have liked! Many people sought him for advice and blessings. St. Sharbel Makhluf's life reminds us that a life of prayer -- even an unconventional one -- is attractive!

The Vatican announced Thursday the date and theme for the third annual World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. This event will take place on July 23.

Blessing of Grandparents

Let us bless our Grandparents on this day. For without them there would be less joy in the hearts of children: Good and gracious God, you have given us the gift of children, who in turn give us the gift of grandchildren. Bless our children and help them to be good parents to our grandchildren. Let the little children come to us with arms wide open. Help us to open our hearts as wide as those little arms that wrap around our necks. Protect them and their parents from worry and stress. And give us as many days of life as possible to hear those little voices cry, "Saba!" We ask all this in Jesus' name who is your Son and lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen

Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation for our grade 10 students will take place on Saturday, September 30th at 10:00 p.m.

At the Cathedral of Saint Joseph in Hartford.
All candidates should have received an email with more details.

Please call the rectory at 203-265-1694 if you have any questions.

Annual Resurrection Family Picnic

Mark your calendars for Sunday, September 17th after the 10:30 Mass to join us for our Family Picnic. A fun day of food, fun and games for all. More information to come in the following weeks.
