From the Pastor

The Christmas season is now over and we are entering what is called Ordinary Time, which continues from now until Ash Wednesday, March 2nd. However, for us who are Christians no season is ordinary and our Savior and Redeemer, Jesus Christ, who is "Emmanuel" continues to be with us especially in Word and Sacrament and in our gathering together for worship. It will take some effort and intention but let us not forget that Sunday is the Lord's Day and make this time special. Certainly, coming to church should be considered a time to call this to mind and even if we find ourselves staying home because of the pandemic and participating at Mass through livestream, we can be very conscious that our God is with us and continues to come to us bringing us joy and peace. Despite all that is going on around us, we have reason to be thankful for the gift of grace which makes every moment of our life extraordinary.

This Sunday in the Gospel we experience another "epiphany" or manifestation of the Lord. Like the coming of the magi celebrated on the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord and the Lord's Baptism, the wedding feast of Cana is a sign of who Jesus is - concerned about us and wanting to grace us in abundance. The wine is simply a symbol of the Lord's goodness. The wedding feast of Cana also reminds us of the beauty of the Sacrament of Matrimony where God's life giving presence and love is felt in the mutual love and respect between husband and wife. Whether we be married or single, today let us be mindful of the gift of human love which is reflective of love divine.

God bless,

Father Charles

First Saturday Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

In these times, let us seriously consider one of the important messages from our Lady of Fatima- the First Saturday devotion for Reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This would include attending five consecutive first Saturday masses, going to confession within eight days, receiving Holy Communion, and meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary for fifteen minutes. Please prayerfully consider this for 2022, what a great way to start the New Year! Holy Family Parish is offering First Saturday devotion masses. The First Saturday mass for February is on the 5th. First Saturday devotion mass will be held at 8:30am, with Rosary and Confession offered at 8:00am at Holy Family Church, and this will continue throughout the calendar year.

Milestone Marriage Anniversaries will be celebrated on February 6, 2022, at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Burlington, with Bishop Coyne. ST. PIUS X PARISH

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Following 9:30am Mass at St. Pius X until 5:00pm

One of the signs of a vital parish is when the parishioners have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ who is present in the Sacraments of the Church. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will begin at the end of the 9:30 am Sunday Mass until 5:00 pm in the afternoon. For this to happen, we need parishioners to sign-up so someone is always there to pray before the Blessed Sacrament. You can sign up online at www.saintpiusx.net or by calling (802-878-5997) or emailing (saintpiusx@comcast.net) the St. Pius X office. You can sign-for a continual commitment for each Sunday or simply for one Sunday at a time. I will be praying that there is a good response since I know the power of prayer. Please remember to pray for me and the needs of the Essex Catholic Community.

Funeral Luncheons Suspended

Due to the surge in COVID numbers and the difficulty in keeping appropriate distance in a close group, there will be no funeral luncheons held for the next several months at St. Pius X. We sincerely apologize for this but feel we need to keep each other healthy and safe.

St Pius is currently looking to add servers. If you will be in 4th grade this fall all the way to an adult member of the Parish, please consider joining us in serving Mass. Training will be provided. If you're interested, please contact the parish office saintpiusx@comcast.net.

NEWS FROM The Inland See

January 15-21, 2022

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

‘Look me in the eye’

“The lamp of the body is the eye. If your eye is sound, your whole body will be filled with light.” — Mt 6:22

My mother was a great observer when it came to solving which child was naughty. She would say, “Look me in the eye and tell me what happened.” I could never get away with anything, even as an adult. I also learned that it was easier to tell the truth than to attempt to perpetuate a lie.

I find looking into the eyes of children easier than looking into the eyes of strangers; perhaps because there is a fear of what the other person might discover about me as they look back.

In the eyes of children, there is an innocence and trust, until it is broken or taken. Our faith teaches us to have a moral compass, a moral conscience, where we do good and avoid evil: “The education of the conscience is a lifelong task,” notes the Catechism of the Catholic Church. “From the earliest years, it awakens the child to the knowledge and practice of the interior law.”

As parents and a faith community invested in teaching our children — we might try to rely on our own experiences to guide us when fostering both justice and mercy in our children. We might attempt to share stories of our youth, when we were hurt by friends, picked on for what we wore or could not afford. We might have been the ones to do the hurting, choosing to fit in with the popular or cool kids, as the temptation to do evil was wrapped up in a well disguised package. We may continue to find these same temptations, disguised differently to lure us into keeping up with our neighbors or trying to help our children by being their “friends” and not following up on the ground rules we set to guide them. Our children witness our actions and model what they see. What exactly are we doing to set the example?

Our children experience far greater temptations and dangers than ever before that can prey upon them at school, at home, at soccer or dance. The battle is real. It began with Adam and Eve and continues today. Our faith, the truth of God’s love, is our saving grace.

“Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it.” — Mk 10:15

Take the time to look into the eyes of your children every day. Talk about the day and listen. What is God trying to tell you at this moment in this conversation?

Choose a time to sit together and look at each other, maybe over a meal. Our children deserve our time, love and closeness. Turn off all distracting media. We all deserve this focused attention, this relationship with one another as God is present during these times too.

Practice forgiveness and how to reconcile with one another. Model the behavior you hope to instill in your children. It is not always easy, and you can always turn to God for guidance to help you find the words to say, “Please forgive me for . . . I was wrong. Will you forgive me?” This carries more weight than just saying, “I’m sorry.”

We are called to be in communion that begins at home. Parents are the first teachers of their children. God, our Father, desires this for us. His children. We can support one another, beginning at home, and bring this into the larger community. Together we can make a difference for both our children and one another as we grow in our faith.

“Act justly, love kindness, walk humbly with God.” — Mi 6:6-8

— Terri McCormack is coordinator of marriage and family life for the Diocese of Burlington.

“ Take the time to look into the eyes of your children every day. Talk about the day and listen. ”
