Scripture Reflection

(by Deacon John, Chaplain for Senior Club)

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Each year when we reach the end of the liturgical year, the Church selects a gospel relating to the end times. Perhaps this is a way of reminding us that this earth is not our permanent home. Our time home is in heaven with God. We hear evangelical preachers on TV say, “The end time is near.” Some have even ‘predicted’ an exact day and time, only to be proven wrong. Jesus has told us that no one, except the Father, knows the day and hour.

Odds are, we will not live to witness the end of the world. For each of us, our end of this world comes when we die, so each of us will have our own individual “end of the world”. So, with this, the question is, “Do good Christians need to fear death?”

Most of us don’t like talking about death. When someone dies, we often say he/she “passed away”, because we don’t even like to use the word “death”. It’s an uncomfortable topic, but we do not need to fear death. Just as we would not be walking around today if we did not go through the process of “birth”, we cannot enter heaven without going through the process of dying.

St. Paul tells us in his letter to the Romans: “Are you not aware that we who were baptized in Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Through baptism into his death we were buried with him, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life.” In his second letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul says, “We know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, should be destroyed, we have a building from God, a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven. None of us has seen heaven. We don’t know what our new eternal body will be like, but we do know that our body will be perfect. It will not be subject to disease or pain. It will not require any surgeries, medications, or treatments of any kind. We know that being united to our God in heaven will give us a joy that is not known on earth.

Heaven – a place of no pain, suffering, worries, nor hardships. Heaven – a place of great joy, happiness, and peace. A place where we will be reunited with all our relatives and friends who have gone before us. Well, what about our relatives and friends on earth, that we leave when we go to heaven? We will be ahead of them, not behind them. In time, they too will leave this world and go to heaven. We will be reunited with them. By Christ’s death on the cross and his resurrection, He paid for our sins. He conquered sin and death for all who believe. Because of what Christ did for us, we have no reason to fear death. Death has no power over us.

So, while we like our home and love our family and friends, we always remember that this body is not our permanent eternal body and our home is not our permanent home. We enjoy life on this earth, but our ultimate goal is to be with our God in heaven. St. Paul summarizes this best in his second letter to the Corinthians: “So we are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord.”

We See God in the Ordinary

Giving Until It Hurts

In the time of Christ, sacrifice was nothing new to the Jewish people. The Israelites were experts at sacrifice. So, after centuries of every kind of offering imaginable, what was so special about Christ’s? What made it so different from the sacrifices offered by the Levitical priests for centuries before his death?

Well, to adequately answer that question would consume whole volumes. And, of course, the first and most important reason is that Christ was the son of God and the savior of the world, not a random (if “unblemished”) lamb offering. It was only by the blood of Christ that we could be redeemed.

But another answer is this: Christ’s sacrifice cost him. In fact, it cost him everything. The offerings made by the Israelites through their priests cost them too, of course. They gave of their flocks, of their household stores, of their wealth. But Christ gave differently. He gave of himself. He gave until it was all gone.

Such is the highest form of stewardship: the gift of self to the point of discomfort. It can take a multitude of forms and I am not saying we are all called to be nailed to the cross. In fact, for most of us, our gifts will not involve physical discomfort at all. But certainly, stewardship demands discomfort. It demands that we go against our human nature of putting ourselves first, of thinking primarily of our own needs and desires. And most of all, it demands love. For that, above all else, distinguished the gift Christ gave us.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

We Pray & We Reflect

I set the LORD ever before me;
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord!

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence; because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord!

You will show me the path to life, fullness of joys in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord!

FIRST READING: DN 12:1-3

In those days, I Daniel, heard this word of the Lord:
"At that time there shall arise
Michael, the great prince, guardian of your people;
it shall be a time unsurpassed in distress
since nations began until that time.
At that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book.
"Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake;
some shall live forever,
others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.
"But the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever."

SECOND READING: HEB 10:11-14, 18

Brothers and sisters:
Every priest stands daily at his ministry, offering frequently those same sacrifices that can never take away sins.
But this one offered one sacrifice for sins,
and took his seat forever at the right hand of God;
now he waits until his enemies are made his footstool.
For by one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated.
Where there is forgiveness of these,
there is no longer offering for sin.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord!

O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot.

We Pray & We Reflect

GOSPEL for the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time MK 13:24-32

Jesus said to his disciples:
"In those days after that tribulation
the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,
and the stars will be falling from the sky,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.
"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds'
with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.
"Learn a lesson from the fig tree.
When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near.
In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates.
Amen, I say to you,
this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.
Heaven and earth will pass away,
but my words will not pass away.
"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." Take a moment to ponder these words from today's Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It's hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love.

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the "when" of death, the "what" of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord's coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God's eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear.

Remembering Fr. Robert A. McGuire, S.J.

Memorial Mass on Sunday, November 21st, 2021 at 5pm

Fr. Robert A. McGuire, SJ, son of James and Mary Burns McGuire, was born on March 13, 1928, in Jackson Heights, N.Y. He attended Xavier High School in Manhattan (1941-1945) and immediately entered the Society of Jesus at St. Andrew-on-Hudson in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. In 1949, Fr. McGuire went to West Baden College, Indiana, to study philosophy; and in 1952 he was assigned, for his regency, to teach at Fordham Prep in the Bronx.

In 1955, Fr. McGuire went to Woodstock College in Maryland for his theology studies and was ordained by Francis Cardinal Spellman in the Fordham University Church on June 21, 1958. He completed his theological studies in 1959 and was once again assigned to teach at Fordham Prep, for one year, before moving on to Tertianship at Auriesville, N.Y. (1960-1961).

After tertianship Fr. McGuire spent a year (1961-1962) at the Gonzaga Retreat House in Monroe, N.Y., giving youth retreats. In 1962, he went to Regis High School as student counselor for the next 13 years. In 1975, he went to The Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley for a further study of theology.

For the next three years (1976-1979) Fr. McGuire lived in Harriman, N.Y., assisting the Charismatic Community at Harriman College. Then he began his ministry to the Charismatic Community at St. Pius X Church in Plainview, N.Y. For the next 24 years Fr. McGuire served as Coordinator of the Charismatic Community, Chaplain at the Parish House of Prayer, director of Spiritual Exercises and Director of the Pius X Spirit Life Center (on the parish campus of St. Pius X, Plainview, NY).

From 2003 to 2005, Fr. McGuire lived at the Loyola Jesuit Community on the Fordham University Campus and then moved to the Jesuit Martyr's Shrine in Auriesville, N.Y., as an assistant at the shrine, working for the Apostleship of Prayer and directing retreats (2005-2012). Fr. McGuire was enthusiastically engaged in and dedicated to the cause for the canonization of St. Kateri Tekakwitha.

In 2012, the year Kateri was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI, Fr. McGuire moved to Murray-Weigel Hall, the Jesuit Infirmary, where he prayed for the Society of Jesus and for the Church until his death from COVID-19 on the feast of the North American Martyrs, Oct. 19, 2021.

May he now rest from his many labors in the arms of the Lord whom he so faithfully served.

Tweet of the Week

Pope Francis @Pontifex

The world needs Christians who know how to demonstrate the beauty of the Gospel by the way they live; who are weavers of dialogue, models of fraternal life; who bring the sweet fragrance of hospitality and solidarity, who protect and safeguard life.

Welcome Newcomers

Welcome!

We are glad you are here. We encourage you to explore the offerings of our parish. We think you will find much here to encourage your engagement in our common spiritual journey.

Register as a Parishioner

Information for Families with Young Children

Welcome! Many families with children tend to worship at the monthly Family Mass at 10:30am as well as the 5:15pm Mass on Saturdays which offers contemporary music.

Here are some suggestions to parents to help their children learn to pray the Mass, and create a reverent, prayerful atmosphere at Mass for all ages.

- If you have time, visit the church and walk your child around the worship space and acquaint them with the art, statues and architecture of our beautiful Catholic tradition. Show them the baptismal font and talk about their baptism. Point out the beauty of our stained glass. Stop by the Parish Office - if the pastor is available, he will gladly accompany you on your visit.
- For Mass, arrive early to use the restroom, get a drink, and settle in.
- Children are curious. Sit toward the front. Children will be able to see what the priest is doing and with your help will pay more attention.
- Help your children pray and embrace the Mass. The Mass offers a teaching moment with your children to develop a sense of reverence and respect for the Mass and the sacred.
- Model full participation for your child by actively participating in the Mass responses and singing the hymns.
