Love God. Love Others. Make Disciples and Strive "To Restore all Things in Christ."

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT BY SR. ROSEMARY TRAYNOR, CP

The opening prayer for today's Mass, the First Sunday of Lent, asks God to grant that through the observance of Lent we may grow in an understanding of the riches hidden in Christ and live lives worthy of such riches. What are those riches that the Church prays we understand?

When we said, "Amen", on Ash Wednesday to, "Turn away from sin and believe the Good News", did we look to Jesus as a model and guide to accompany us on our Lenten journey as we prepare to celebrate The Paschal Mystery: His suffering, death and Resurrection.

After His Baptism by John in the Jordan, Saint Luke tells us that Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, where he fasted and was tempted by the devil. Jesus rejected the devil's temptation to use His power to appease his hunger by quoting the Scripture, "One does not live on bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of God". The devil then offers Jesus all the kingdoms of the world, if Jesus will worship him. Again, Jesus uses scripture to rebuke the temptation: "You shall worship the Lord your God, and him alone shall you serve". Jesus resists again when tempted and He refuses to put God's promise of protection to the test. Jesus showed his familiarity with the Scriptures when He countered the words the devil used to tempt him. He rejected earthly power and glory and putting God to the test.

Jesus knew His mission: to proclaim and establish God's reign of justice, peace and love on earth. It was by the Gift of the Spirit that had anointed Him at Baptism that He was going to accomplish this mission. How He was going to accomplish it became clear to Him as He pondered and prayed the Scriptures alone in the desert. Isaiah 61 pointed the way to Him, so when He returned to the synagogue, He proclaimed how He would accomplish His mission and His role in fulfilling the prophecy of Isaiah. (Lk, 4: 18)

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

Jesus' path would be to turn the other cheek, to walk the second mile and to take up the cross. He would defeat evil by suffering it in love and forgiving His enemies. He would choose the path of redemptive suffering.

Lent calls us to do likewise. This means that we are to turn away from the busyness of our lives and prayerfully listen to God who speaks to us in the depths of our hearts, in the community, in the people we meet and in the beauty of nature. Jesus is our model and teacher as we seek to find 'the riches hidden in Christ'.

Pope Francis encourages us to contemplate the closeness which Jesus showed to the people. Recall, he writes the stories in the Gospel when He speaks to people. He looks into their eyes with deep love and concern: "Jesus, looking upon him, loved him". (Mk 10:21) We see how accessible he is, as he draws near to the blind man (Mark:10: 46).

The mission of Jesus, The Good News, is full of examples of how to treat and love our neighbor as Jesus did. Lent is an opportune time for us to extend that spirit in our world. (#269 The Joy of The Gospel)

WEEKLY READINGS

FIRST READING Deuteronomy 26:4-10

Moses spoke to the people, saying: “The priest shall receive the basket from you and shall set it in front of the altar of the LORD, your God. Then you shall declare before the Lord, your God, ‘My father was a wandering Aramean who went down to Egypt with a small household and lived there as an alien. But there he became a nation great, strong, and numerous. When the Egyptians maltreated and oppressed us, imposing hard labor upon us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and he heard our cry and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. He brought us out of Egypt with his strong hand and outstretched arm, with terrifying power, with signs and wonders; and bringing us into this country, he gave us this land flowing with milk and honey. Therefore, I have now brought you the firstfruits of the products of the soil which you, O LORD, have given me.’ And having set them before the LORD, your God, you shall bow down in his presence.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 91:1-2, 10-15

R. Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, say to the LORD, “My refuge and fortress, my God in whom I trust.”

R. Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

No evil shall befall you, nor shall affliction come near your tent, For to his angels he has given command about you, that they guard you in all your ways.

R. Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

Upon their hands they shall bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone. You shall tread upon the asp and the viper; you shall trample down the lion and the dragon.

R. Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

Because he clings to me, I will deliver him; I will set him on high because he acknowledges my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in distress; I will deliver him and glorify him.

SECOND READING Romans 10:8-13

Brothers and sisters: What does Scripture say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart—that is, the word of faith that we preach—for, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. For the Scripture says, No one who believes in him will be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, enriching all who call upon him. For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

GOSPEL Luke 4:1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry. The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, One does not live on bread alone.” Then he took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a single instant. The devil said to him, “I shall give to you all this power and glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I may give it to whomever I wish. All this will be yours, if you worship me.” Jesus said to him in reply, “It is written You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve.” Then he led him to Jerusalem, made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written: He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you, and: With their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone.” Jesus said to him in reply, “It also says, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test.” When the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from him for a time.

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

FR. VALENTINE REBELLO

Dear Parish Family,

Today is the Second Sunday of March – First Sunday in Lent 2025. This past Ash Wednesday, our entire Church throughout the world entered into the Holy Season of Lent. At each of our Masses, from the early morning to the evening, row after row of people approached the altar to receive ashes, marking the beginning of this sacred time. Among them were familiar faces—our regular parishioners, young families, our Faith Formation Program students and catechists, business professionals on their way to or from work, and even visitors from other parishes. Regardless of age, background, or circumstance, all responded to the call of Lent, seeking renewal and transformation. It was a profound and encouraging sight as we collectively acknowledged our need for conversion and embarked on this Lenten journey together.

Yet, Ash Wednesday was only the beginning. Today is a new day, and today's Scripture readings once again invite us into this sacred season of change. Each year, on the first Sunday of Lent, we reflect on Jesus' 40-day fast in the desert. This year, we hear Luke's Gospel account of Christ's time of solitude, fasting, and facing temptation. He enters the silence of the desert, and we are invited to do the same. Silence, however, is not always welcome—it can be unsettling. It forces us to listen, to face our true selves, and perhaps hear things we would rather avoid.

Matthew Kelly, in Rediscovering Catholicism, speaks about "The Classroom of Silence" and the importance of listening in our spiritual growth. He reminds us that our modern world is filled with constant noise, leaving little space to hear God's voice. Late Bishop Ken Untener, in The Little Black Book for Lent, encourages us to dedicate just six minutes a day to quiet prayer. Imagine the transformation if we each carved out a few moments daily to listen to the Lord. This Lent, let us not merely "give something up" but instead give ourselves over to deeper communion with God.

As part of your Lenten journey, copies of The Little Black Book for Lent 2025 are available at the back of the church, offering daily six-minute meditations on the Passion according to John. These reflections serve as a meaningful guide throughout this season of grace.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and the Rite of Election

Let us keep in our prayers those preparing to enter full communion with the Catholic Church through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and the Rite of Election. We joyfully support our Catechumen, Matthew O'Neill, and our candidates for First Holy Communion and Confirmation, Dylan and Sean Morrissey, Veronica Chukwu, Will Windisch. May their journey of faith inspire us all as we walk together toward Easter.

Lenten Outreach and Parish Events

SOCKS of LOVE Project: This year, our 7th and 8th-grade Faith Formation youth, as part of their Confirmation retreat, will undertake the SOCKS of LOVE Project, benefiting the homeless on Long Island. Drive: Scheduled for April 18th, from 1:00 pm to 7:00 pm in the School Gymnasium. There is an urgent need for blood donations, and your generosity can save lives. Special thanks to Kim Musi, Edward Thorgersen, and Angela and John Manzi for organizing this important event.

Pastoral Update

After serving for 12 wonderful years (two terms of six years each) as your pastor, I had requested an extension from the diocese. I am grateful to Bishop Barres for granting me an additional year, allowing me to remain with you until June 2026. It has been a blessing to serve this parish family, and I look forward to continuing this journey of faith together.

Let us commit ourselves to embracing this Lenten season with open hearts and minds. A number of wonderful opportunities are scheduled. May Lent be a time of profound transformation and spiritual enrichment for us all. As always, may God continue to bless us abundantly.

A Holy Jubilee Year – Pilgrims of Hope

As we observe Lent in 2025, let us also remember that this is a Holy Jubilee Year, a time to renew our faith and embrace our role as Pilgrims of Hope. This special year calls us to deepen our relationship with God, strengthen our commitment to service, and live out the Gospel with renewed enthusiasm.

Be assured of our prayers, and please keep Frs. Tom, Chux, Shiby, Jude, Deacon John, and me in your prayers.

With prayerful Lenten blessings, Fr. Valentine~

JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother,
and the flame of charity
enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil
vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.

ONLINE GIVING

Has This Ever Happened to You?

The ushers come forward to begin the Offertory collection process. You lean over and ask your spouse if she has the envelope? She replies that she left it on the table for you to put in your pocket. Ooops! No envelope to give this week! In the rush of getting off to church, we all forget the envelope once in a while.

Check out an easier way to give. Go to our parish website WWW.STPIUSXRC.COM and click on GIVE ONLINE (We Share)

It's simple! It's safe! And it keeps God at the top of your giving list! Thanks for your kind and generous support.
