FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT BY CLARE CROSSLEY, PARISH COUNCIL

Rejoice! Easter is only three weeks away! Today we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent, traditionally called Laetare (rejoice) Sunday. Now is the time for us to look ahead with joyful anticipation of Jesus' Resurrection, even as we continue our practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. A reason to Rejoice!

For some, Lent can be a season of doom and gloom, a time to feel bad about all the ways we are not "measuring up" in our spiritual lives. But this view is far from the truth. Lent is a season of refreshment and love, of awakening and rebirth. A reason to Rejoice!

Today we hear the parable of the Prodigal Son in the Gospel of Luke. It's probably one of the most familiar of all of Jesus' stories because we've heard it so many times and resonates with many. This amazing parable tells the story of a young son who has the nerve to ask his dad for his inheritance, now! The father agrees and the young son leaves his home and turns away from his family only to squander away his money. In desperation from the mess he made of his life, the son finally "comes to his senses", realizing he would be better off back at home and returns with a heavy heart. And what does the father do? With deep compassion the father not only welcomes him home but honors him with a party. This compassion brought the son back to life. A reason to Rejoice!

As I reflect on Luke's Gospel, I am transported back a few years to a time when my husband, Dennis and I attended Mass at St. Monica's in NYC. Whenever we spend the weekend in the city, Mass is always part of the plan. Our friends Bill and Sue attended Mass that evening as well. She reluctantly joined us because she hadn't been to Mass in several years. He attends Mass each week by himself. Unfortunately, Sue never made her Confirmation, and they never married in the Catholic Church. Down deep she was struggling and feeling guilty.

Fr. Brady made quite an impression on our friend Sue that evening. His homily about the Prodigal Son opened Sue's eyes and heart as he asked the congregation if we were like the Prodigal Son? Maybe we thought God would never forgive us for things we did in our lives. The priest reminded us that God is like the father in today's parable. He is waiting for us to return. The Father in Heaven will never reject us. His love is unconditional, relentless and always inviting. He encouraged all to go to confession and invited those interested to explore the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) program, (formerly RCIA), for those seeking to become Catholic, or for Catholics who haven't received all the Sacraments of Initiation. This was the glimmer of hope Sue needed to right the wrongs in her life.

The emptiness she carried for so long was replaced with a sense of relief. Sue was finally Confirmed and her marriage to Bill was blessed in a special Mass solidifying her faith journey with her husband and the Catholic Church. A reason to Rejoice!

Sometimes we are lost. We lose sight of the Lord as well, but God never loses sight of us. He waits for us to "come to our senses", ready to welcome us back with open arms! A reason to Rejoice!

WEEKLY READINGS

FIRST READING

Joshua 5:9a, 10-12

The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you." While the Israelites were encamped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth of the month. On the day after the Passover, they ate of the produce of the land in the form of unleavened cakes and parched grain. On that same day after the Passover, on which they ate of the produce of the land, the manna ceased. No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 34:2-7

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall be ever in my mouth. Let my soul glory in the LORD; the lowly will hear me and be glad.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Glorify the LORD with me, let us together extol his name. I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy, and your faces may not blush with shame. When the poor one called out, the LORD heard, and from all his distress he saved him.

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 5:17-21

Brothers and sisters: Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come. And all this is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. So we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

GOSPEL

Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them Jesus addressed this parable: "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.' So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."' So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.' He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'"

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

FR. VALENTINE REBELLO

Dear Parish Family,

It's incredible to think that we've already arrived at the Fourth Sunday of Lent. As we gather to mark the Fourth Sunday of Lent, it's remarkable how swiftly time passes. We find ourselves now beyond the halfway mark of this sacred season, journeying steadfastly towards the joy of Easter.

During these middle weeks of Lent, our focus remains steadfast on responding to God's call to be disciples of the Lord Jesus and embracing the path of conversion. Today, the Fourth Sunday of Lent, known as Laetare Sunday, we rejoice in God's love. The Gospel from Luke tells the story of the prodigal son, illustrating the Father's immense love and His desire for our return. The parable highlights God's readiness to forgive those who leave and return, as shown through the father's acceptance of his younger son. It also challenges us to reflect on our own responses—whether we resemble the resentful older brother or embrace forgiveness and reconciliation. This story teaches us about God's unconditional love and forgiveness, urging us to return to Him regardless of our past sins. Let us rejoice in God's mercy and the opportunity to be reconciled with Him this Lent. I encourage you to delve deeper into the reflections provided by Clare Crossley, the Coordinator for Catholic Ministries Appeal, in today's bulletin.

As our Lenten Penitential Rite at Mass underscores, Lent serves as the primary season of reconciliation within the church year. To prepare ourselves for the renewal of our Baptismal commitment at Easter, let us actively participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confession times are available on Saturdays from 3:00 PM to 3:45 PM. Additionally, Lenten Reconciliation Services will be held in conjunction with our Faith Formation Program on Friday, April 4th, along with the Stations of the Cross. Furthermore, Reconciliation Monday falls on April 14th from 4:00 PM to 6:00 PM. I urge each of you to seize this opportune season for experiencing the profound healing of this sacrament. Refer to the Lenten Black Book Cover-page for scheduling details.

This weekend, during the Saturday, March 29th @ 4:00 PM Mass, we will celebrate the Second Scrutiny for our elect, Matthew O'Neill, who is preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist). These Scrutinies, rituals of self-examination and repentance, are pivotal moments in the journey towards baptism. As we support Matthew and our other elect, Veronica Chukwu, Will Windisch, Sean and Dylan Morrissey, in their path to becoming Catholic through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, let us keep them in our prayers. The Third Scrutiny will be observed next Saturday, April 5th, at the 4:00 PM Mass.

I extend my gratitude to all who have pledged to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Your contributions play a vital role in sustaining our Diocesan ministries and charities. We are striving to reach our 2025 CMA goal of $47,300, which will aid in essential initiatives, including the drainage system around our church area. If you haven't already done so, I encourage you to make your pledge soon. Envelopes are available in the Narthex and at the Parish Office, or you can give online at <https://www.drvc.org/donate/cma/>. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

Looking ahead, our Youth Group will present a live re-enactment of the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday, April 18th at 12:00 noon. This poignant portrayal invites us all to walk with Christ on His journey to Calvary.

Additionally, I urge you to mark your calendars for the Good Friday Blood Drive, scheduled for April 18th from 1:00 PM to 7:00 PM in the School gymnasium. Your participation in this life saving initiative is invaluable.

As we prepare for Easter, consider dedicating the Paschal Candle to your loved ones, and remember them by making a donation towards Easter flowers to adorn our church.

Our Annual Lenten Gourmet Soup Supper will take place next Sunday, April 6th, at 6:00 PM in Madonna Hall. Join us as we hear from Jean Kelly from the INN Program and gather toiletries for those in need. Your presence and contributions are welcomed.

Confirmation and First Holy Communion interviews with our candidates and their parents are underway. These interviews offer a valuable opportunity for reflection and understanding as we guide our children in their faith journey. My heartfelt thanks to our dedicated FFP Coordinators, Catechists, and all involved in our faith formation program.

Knights of Columbus Founders Day Recruitment Drive: Join us at this weekend's Masses to hear personal testimonies from our Knights and learn about the impactful opportunities within the Knights of Columbus. We invite all men aged 18 and above to consider joining this renowned organization. Don't miss the chance to be part of a community dedicated to faith, charity, and brotherhood.

Many more events and opportunities await us in our parish during this Lenten season. I encourage you to explore the bulletin for further details. As we continue our Lenten journey, may this be a time of spiritual renewal, deeper faith, and greater commitment to our baptismal call. Let us walk together in prayer, fasting, and acts of charity, preparing our hearts for the joy of Easter.

Be assured of our prayers, and please keep Frs. Tom, Chux, Shibi, Jude, Deacon John, and me in your prayers.

With prayerful Lenten blessings, Fr. Valentine~

JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother,
and the flame of charity
enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed
hope
for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil
vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.

ONLINE GIVING

Has This Ever Happened to You?

The ushers come forward to begin the Offertory collection process. You lean over and ask your spouse if she has the envelope? She replies that she left it on the table for you to put in your pocket. Ooops! No envelope to give this week! In the rush of getting off to church, we all forget the envelope once in a while.

Check out an easier way to give. Go to our parish website WWW.STPIUSXRC.COM and click on GIVE ONLINE (We Share)

It's simple! It's safe! And it keeps God at the top of your giving list! Thanks for your kind and generous support.
