COMING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT ON PENTECOST SUNDAY

Readings for the Week

First Reading: "Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." (Acts 7:56)

In Acts, we are first introduced to Saul (Paul) at the stoning of Stephen, the first recorded Christian martyr. After his conversion, Paul would look back at his persecution of the Church with deep remorse. How do you deal with regret in your life?

Psalm: The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.

Second Reading: The one who gives this testimony says, "Yes, I am coming soon." Amen! Come, Lord Jesus! (Rev 22:20) We hear today the final vision that John received. How do you imagine John thought about all the visions he had received from the Lord?

Gospel: That they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me. (Jn 17:23) In his final prayer during the farewell discourse, Jesus speaks about his disciples as the Father's gift to him. What gifts have God given you?

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We all have our ideas of who God is. We have to remember, however, that our ideas of God often do not capture who God really is. God is a wonderful mystery whose identity is inexhaustible. This makes life an exciting journey in search of belief, love, glory, and unity. Displaying all of the tenderness of a real love story, we hear from Jesus that God wants nothing more than for the world to believe. The same depth of affection given to Jesus, God the Father desires to share with us. Receiving this love gives the believer an even greater understanding of what gives us purpose and meaning. With God's unconditional love as our anchor, we can endure the greatest of hardships knowing that we carry the hope of glory within us. Sharing in the same incredible eternal destiny and glory that God gave His Son, we can all be one just as Jesus and the Father are one. Why is understanding all of this important? Because given the myriad choices of what can possibly define us, we now have the primordial truth of who we are given to us by God. We know, beyond doubt, where to look for true happiness and where our lives will end. ©LPi

Synod Listening Sessions

The Diocese is coordinating regional listening sessions for its 126 parishes, at which everyone is encouraged to share their opinions on what they are looking for from today’s Church. Bishop Scharfenberger will be in attendance, lead the opening prayer, and spend time listening to the faithful.

The session for the Adirondack area will be held at Our Lady of the Annunciation in Queensbury on June 28 at 6:30pm.

Visit www.rcda.org/synod for more information and to register.

This month we thank God for Ron Alcan, Melissa Calzada, Nicholas Clesceri, Robin Dapolito, Nyla Green-Cushing, Paul F. McHale, Michael Speranza, Maggie VanValkenburgh, and Kathleen Zarcopone. Let us pray that their faith in God grows as they become older, and that they find solace in God’s love.

A big thank you to those who helped Annette with Father John’s gathering last Sunday. It was worth the effort to let Father know how much we appreciate his ministry to our parish. For those who helped by purchasing supplies, setting up, hosting during the event, and, especially, for the group that cleaned up, we are so grateful. It is always heartwarming to see the members of the parish work together willingly and joyfully! That is a wonderful strength of the Blessed Sacrament Family.

Gracious God, On this Memorial Day, we pray for those who courageously laid down their lives for the cause of freedom. May the examples of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Bless the families of our fallen troops, and fill their homes and their lives with Your strength and peace. In union with people of goodwill of every nation, embolden us to answer the call to work for peace and justice, and thus, seek an end to violence and conflict around the globe. We ask this through your name. Amen.
