Amoris Laetitia: Growing in conjugal love

123. After the love that unites us to God, conjugal love is the “greatest form of friendship”.¹²² It is a union possessing all the traits of a good friendship: concern for the good of the other, reciprocity, intimacy, warmth, stability and the resemblance born of a shared life. Marriage joins to all this an indissoluble exclusivity expressed in the stable commitment to share and shape together the whole of life. Let us be honest and acknowledge the signs that this is the case. Lovers do not see their relationship as merely temporary. Those who marry do not expect their excitement to fade. Those who witness the celebration of a loving union, however fragile, trust that it will pass the test of time. Children not only want their parents to love one another, but also to be faithful and remain together. These and similar signs show that it is in the very nature of conjugal love to be definitive. The lasting union expressed by the marriage vows is more than a formality or a traditional formula; it is rooted in the natural inclinations of the human person. For believers, it is also a covenant before God that calls for fidelity: “The Lord was witness to the covenant between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been faithless, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant... Let none be faithless to the wife of his youth. For I hate divorce, says the Lord” (Mal 2:14-16).

Mass for a Loved One/Special Intention

It is a Catholic tradition, dating back to the early Church, of Christians having a Mass said for a loved one, living or deceased. A good Catholic practice can be to request to have a Mass said for the repose of the soul of a loved one who died, for a person who is ill, for a special intention, for a celebration such as birthdays or anniversaries, and in thanksgiving. The Mass intention is announced at Mass and in the Parish Bulletin. Please fill out this form and return it with your offering or mail it to the Parish Office with your offering.

Eucharistic Holy Hour for Vocations

On Friday, June 21, 2019 at 6:00 p.m. Bishop Checchio will preside at a Eucharist Holy Hour for Vocations. This Holy Hour will be held at The St. John Neumann Pastoral Center, Piscataway. Included in the intentions of this Holy Hour are the men who will be ordained priests on the following day and the Sanctification of priests of our Diocesan Church. We will also ask that the inviting voice of Jesus will be heard by men and women amidst the various “:voices of our days,”: and that they will joyfully and courageously respond to His invitation to serve as priests, religious and deacons.

Church Humor

Early one morning the husband and wife were arguing over who should get out of the warm bed to make the coffee. Finally the wife folded her arms and said decidedly, “You have to make the coffee. It’s in the Bible!” The husband was shocked. “Is not! Show me!” Pulling out her Bible, the wife opened it to one of the New Testament books and declared, “It says right here — HEBREWS!”
