REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Core Question 2: Speaking Out –What enables or hinders you from speaking up in your parish and society?

In general, if the pastor is approachable and accessible, parishioners feel encouraged to speak up. Often parishioners feel more comfortable approaching the deacons of the parish with suggestions. Parish Pastoral Councils also enable different voices to be heard. Some parishes use surveys and suggestion boxes to encourage parishioners to share their ideas. Many expressed that the fear of being ignored, rejected, judged or shamed by the pastor and/or others in the parish who are involved in administration hinders them from speaking up. Some expressed a hesitancy to speak up because they do not know whom they can trust. Clericalism was also noted as a problem. Concerning speaking up in society, most participants are hesitant to discuss faith matters due to the society's "cancel culture" and the fear of being attacked or ostracized. Many blame this on "watered down" teachings and mixed messages brought on by Catholic politicians who claim to be devout but support things opposed by the Church, such as abortion, without repercussions. In addition, since the country is currently so politically divided, having conversations about faith outside of church often alienates people. Here again, the responses are divided with some expressing strong feelings about Catholic teaching and others saying the Church is too rigid and "out of touch." Many also expressed that polarization within the Church is a threat to unity. Many participants expressed a deep sadness because family members and especially children have left the Church. Numerous participants pointed to "outdated" and "offensive" language used by the Church to refer to those who identify as LGBTQ, such as "same-sex attraction" and "disordered." They describe this as hurtful and exclusionary and the use of these terms hinders people from speaking up candidly. While some respondents indicated that they thought that the Church is out of step with the world with regards to gender issues, more expressed a desire to make sure that those identifying as LGBTQ feel included in the Church and be better treated by the Church and its members.

Christmas Trees Project

Dear brothers and sisters,

Once again this year, our churches will be surrounded by REAL Christmas trees illuminated beautifully with lights and on each tree will be a beautiful plaque dedicating that Christmas tree as a memorial to someone who has died or perhaps as a gift for the living, or perhaps in Thanksgiving for what God's blessings. Throughout the Christmas season, Mass will include the intentions of all those for whom trees have been memorialized, whether living or deceased.

On Saturday, December 10th after the 4:00 PM Vigil Mass, we will have a blessing of the trees, and after a countdown, light the trees at both our churches which will then remain lit each evening during the whole Christmas season until the Feast of the Epiphany in January.

Please consider memorializing one of these beautiful trees. The cost to memorialize a tree will be $150 each. This will cover the cost of the tree, lighting of the tree, and the memorial gift for the church.

You will find a Reservation Form at both churches which you can fill out and return to the Parish Office with your memorial offering. Remember, the number of trees are limited so preserve yours as soon as possible.

Father Abraham.

Sínodo 2021-23

La pregunta fundamental: Para contribuir a la consultacion. Conclusion: Recordamos que la finalidad del Sínodo, y por lo tanto de esta consulta, no es producir documentos, sino «hacer que germinen sueños, suscitar profecías y visiones, hacer florecer esperanzas, estimular la confianza, vendar heridas, entretejer relaciones, resucitar una aurora de esperanza, aprender unos de otros, y crear un imaginario positivo que ilumine las mentes, enardecza los corazones, de fuerza a las manos.

Proyecto Árboles de Navidad

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Una vez más este año, nuestras iglesias estarán rodeadas de REALES árboles de Navidad, iluminados bellamente con luces. En cada árbol de Navidad habrá una hermosa placa que dedicara el árbol ya sea a alguien que ha muerto, o como un regalo para los vivos, o tal vez como Acción de Gracias por las bendiciones que hemos recibido de Dios. A lo largo de la temporada navideña, la Misa incluirá las intenciones de todos aquellos para quienes los árboles han sido conmemorados, ya sean vivos o fallecidos.

El sábado 10 de diciembre después de la Misa de Vigilia de las 4:00 PM, tendremos una bendición de los árboles, y después de una cuenta regresiva, encenderemos los árboles en nuestras dos iglesias que luego permanecerán encendidas cada noche durante toda la temporada navideña hasta la Fiesta de la Epifanía en Enero.

Por favor, considere conmemorar uno de estos hermosos árboles. El costo de conmemorar un árbol será de $150.00. Esto cubrirá el costo del árbol, la iluminación del árbol y el regalo conmemorativo para la iglesia.

Encontrará un formulario de reserva adjunto que puede completar y devolver a la Oficina Parroquial con su ofrenda conmemorativa (contribución o donación). Recuerde, el número de árboles es limitado, así que reserve el suyo lo antes posible... Fr. Abraham

Amoris Laetitia: Mitigating factors in pastoral discernment

303. Recognizing the influence of such concrete factors, we can add that individual conscience needs to be better incorporated into the Church's praxis in certain situations which do not objectively embody our understanding of marriage. Naturally, every effort should be made to encourage the development of an enlightened conscience, formed and guided by the responsible and serious discernment of one's pastor, and to encourage an ever greater trust in God's grace. Yet conscience can do more than recognize that a given situation does not correspond objectively to the overall demands of the Gospel. It can also recognize with sincerity and honesty what for now is the most generous response which can be given to God, and come to see with a certain moral security that it is what God himself is asking amid the concrete complexity of one's limits, while yet not fully the objective ideal. In any event, let us recall that this discernment is dynamic; it must remain ever open to new stages of growth and to new decisions which can enable the ideal to be more fully realized.

Be part of the Eucharistic Revival movement and deepen your understanding and devotion to the great mystery of the Eucharist. "Abide in My love," and, "bear much fruit." Christopher-Marcus Gibson is the Director for the Princeton Initiative in Catholic Thought.
