Christmas Trees Project

Dear brothers and sisters,

Once again this year, our churches will be surrounded by REAL Christmas trees illuminated beautifully with lights and on each tree will be a beautiful plaque dedicating that Christmas tree as a memorial to someone who has died or perhaps as a gift for the living, or perhaps in Thanksgiving for what God's blessings. Throughout the Christmas season, Mass will include the intentions of all those for whom trees have been memorialized, whether living or deceased.

On Saturday, December 10th after the 4:00 PM Vigil Mass, we will have a blessing of the trees, and after a countdown, light the trees at both our churches which will then remain lit each evening during the whole Christmas season until the Feast of the Epiphany in January.

Please consider memorializing one of these beautiful trees. The cost to memorialize a tree will be $150 each. This will cover the cost of the tree, lighting of the tree, and the memorial gift for the church.

You will find a Reservation Form at both churches which you can fill out and return to the Parish Office with your memorial offering. Remember, the number of trees are limited so preserve yours as soon as possible.

Father Abraham.

Priests Convocation

From October 11 to 13 the Priests of Metuchen Diocese will have their Annual Convocation at Spring Lake, NJ. Please pray for the Priests of the Diocese. There will be no mass at our churches on those days.

Special Remembrance of the Dead

On Saturday, October 29th at the 4:00 PM Vigil Mass, at Guardian Angels Church, we will have a special remembrance of all our parishioners who passed away between November 1st, 2021 and October 30th 2022. Please invite your family and friends to this Mass.

Gertrude Hawk Candy catalogs will once again be available at both Churches on Sept. 10th. All orders must be received by Sunday Nov. 7th. For more information call Cathy White at 732-277-8882. Profits from sales support the Parish.

Conclusion: Recordamos que la finalidad del Sínodo, y por lo tanto de esta consulta, no es producir documentos, sino «hacer que germinen sueños, suscitar profecías y visiones, hacer florecer esperanzas, estimular la confianza, vendar heridas, entretener relaciones, resucitar una aurora de esperanza, aprender unos de otros, y crear un imaginario positivo que ilumine las mentes, enardecza los corazones, dé fuerza a las manos.

Proyecto Árboles de Navidad

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Una vez más este año, nuestras iglesias estarán rodeadas de REALES árboles de Navidad, iluminados bellamente con luces. En cada árbol de Navidad habrá una hermosa placa que dedicara el árbol ya sea a alguien que ha muerto, o como un regalo para los vivos, o tal vez como Acción de Gracias por las bendiciones que hemos recibido de Dios. A lo largo de la temporada navideña, la Misa incluirá las intenciones de todos aquellos para quienes los árboles han sido conmemorados, ya sean vivos o fallecidos.

El sábado 10 de diciembre después de la Misa de Vigilia de las 4:00 PM, tendremos una bendición de los árboles, y después de una cuenta regresiva, encenderemos los árboles en nuestras dos iglesias que luego permanecerán encendidas cada noche durante toda la temporada navideña hasta la Fiesta de la Epifanía en Enero.

Por favor, considere conmemorar uno de estos hermosos árboles. El costo de conmemorar un árbol será de $150.00. Esto cubrirá el costo del árbol, la iluminación del árbol y el regalo conmemorativo para la iglesia.

Encontrará un formulario de reserva adjunto que puede completar y devolver a la Oficina Parroquial con su ofrenda conmemorativa (contribución o donación). Recuerde, el número de árboles es limitado, así que reserve el suyo lo antes posible... Fr. Abraham

Amoris Laetitia: Mitigating factors in pastoral discernment

304. It is reductive simply to consider whether or not an individual's actions correspond to a general law or rule, because that is not enough to discern and ensure full fidelity to God in the concrete life of a human being. I earnestly ask that we always recall a teaching of Saint Thomas Aquinas and learn to incorporate it in our pastoral discernment: "Although there is necessity in the general principles, the more we descend to matters of detail, the more frequently we encounter defects... In matters of action, truth or practical rectitude is not the same for all, as to matters of detail, but only as to the general principles; and where there is the same rectitude in matters of detail, it is not equally known to all... The principle will be found to fail, according as we descend further into detail".³⁴⁷ It is true that general rules set forth a good which can never be disregarded or neglected, but in their formulation they cannot provide absolutely for all particular situations. At the same time, it must be said that, precisely for that reason, what is part of a practical discernment in particular circumstances cannot be elevated to the level of a rule. That would not only lead to an intolerable casuistry, but would endanger the very values which must be preserved with special care.

Lecture Series: St. Thomas Aquinas: the Eucharist, and Spiritual Fruitfulness

Wednesday, October 19, 2022, 7:00 PM

Location: St. John the Evangelist Church

Be part of the Eucharistic Revival movement and deepen your understanding and devotion to the great mystery of the Eucharist. Join us as we listen to Dr. Christopher-Marcus Gibson draw from teachings on Saint Thomas, the Gospel of John and other theologians and Fathers of the Church to reflect on the union Christ desires to have with us in the Eucharist, both in Communion and Adoration, and the spiritual and apostolic fruitfulness that flows from this. "Abide in My love," and, "bear much fruit." Christopher-Marcus Gibson is the Director for the Princeton Initiative in Catholic Thought.

SYNTHESIS OF THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY The Roman Catholic Diocese of Metuchen New Jersey REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Core Question 3: Sharing Responsibility for Our Common Mission – How are the baptized members of your parish able to participate in the mission of the Church to proclaim the Gospel?

Participants had difficulty commenting on this theme because many did not understand the meaning of "common mission." At one of the listening sessions, the group defined an "active Catholic" as someone who attends Mass, receives the Sacraments and is involved in ministry. He or she is someone who ties faith to everyday life, ministers to others and evangelizes. Participants largely agreed that the Church could be strengthened from greater clarity on the mission itself. Participants shared that having fellowship, community gatherings and ministry opportunities in the parish fosters participation in the mission of the Church. This is also the case where pastors are welcoming and inviting. Being part of a parish ministry or serving in a particular role in the parish helps parishioners feel more a part of the mission to spread the Gospel. Participants expressed that communication is key in helping parishioners understand what the Church's mission is and how the laity have a role in sharing in it. Everyone seems to agree that we can proclaim the Gospel most effectively by the way we live our lives. Aside from the pandemic, which greatly hindered participation in the mission of the Church, other factors also prevent involvement. While there is a wide array of opportunities to participate in the mission of the Church, only a small percentage of people get involved. People have very busy lives and being active in the parish is not a top priority. Many young parents have left the Church. Many of those who bring their children to religious education to receive the Sacraments do not practice the faith themselves and so there is no reinforcement of Catholic practices. In many cases, parents have no personal relationship with God, and children have no faith role models. Often, grandparents fulfill this role by providing a good example and by encouraging participation in religious education. There seems to be a breakdown of the family as the "domestic church." Synod participants identified the need for ongoing formation and catechesis both for themselves and for others. They expressed a deep desire to have a better understanding of fundamental Church teaching on the Eucharist, Sacraments, morality and social justice. They felt like a deeper knowledge would assist them in dialoguing with others who are disaffiliated, marginalized or unchurched. "We need to attract people to Church with truth and beauty, joy and kindness, offering something that is not of this world." "Often times, people are unaware of their own giftedness and feel they have nothing to give."

2022 Catechetical Conference, "See You in the Eucharist: Evangelization Post Pandemic!"

The Conference will be held at The St. John Neumann Pastoral Center on Saturday, October 29. This year our keynote speaker will be Fr. Paul Manning, Episcopal Vicar for Evangelization in the Diocese of Paterson, a known presenter and advocate for the New Evangelization. The day will open with Mass celebrated by Bishop Checchio.

Silver and Gold Anniversary Prayer Service

The diocesan church cordially invites couples celebrating their 25th or 50th wedding anniversaries in 2022 to attend the Silver and Gold Anniversary Prayer Service with Bishop F. Checchio. The Prayer Service is on Sunday, October 30th, 2022 (Please note the change in date--previously October 16th) at 3:30 PM at the Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi, 548 Main Street, Metuchen, New Jersey.
