National Eucharistic Revival: Parish Phase, June 2023 to June 2024

INVITATION #2

Monthly "Encounter Nights" That Help Parishioners Encounter Jesus in the Eucharist Personally

During the Year of Parish Revival, the National Eucharistic Revival proposes that every parish begins a monthly hour of Eucharistic adoration for "encounter", so that every parishioner has the opportunity to meet Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. As the year begins, an "Encounter Night" guide will be provided along with other resources to give a detailed template that could be used, a list of liturgical items needed, appropriate prayers, and suggested options for songs.

These holy hours of Eucharistic adoration are planned for the evening or during the weekend—preferably a time that most members of the parish could attend—in a desire for every Catholic to encounter the Lord anew. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is encouraged to be offered, and appropriate reading or talks could be given.

It is powerful to see this movement already taking place across the country and the world. St. Peter's Basilica in Rome has started their own monthly nights of Eucharistic adoration in the square. At the heart and home of the Church, our Pope is praying alongside his people for Jesus' presence to be made known.
