Collection for Wildfires, California:
Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Altadena

The parish of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Altadena, CA, was hit extremely hard by the recent wildfires. A flyer distributed by the parish reads, "More than 100 parish households were burned out of their homes and apartments." The Church was saved by some parishioners and Deacon Jose Diaz.

The parish has Masses in English, Spanish, Vietnamese and Tagalog. This ethnically diverse neighborhood, historically black and predominantly Hispanic, is known for its deep roots and loving community.

The pastor, Fr. Gilbert Guzman, and parishioners need resources to triage and comfort those in crisis. They are perfectly positioned to act with speed and discernment. They're ministering to each other as only people who live down the street can. They're bound by worship and prayer.

Jubilees Throughout History

In ancient Judaism, the Jubilee Year (which was called the year of the yōbēl, "of the goat", because the holiday was proclaimed by the sound of a goat's horn) was a year that was declared holy. During this period, the Mosaic law prescribed that slaves could regain their freedom, and that land, (of which God is the sole master), should be returned to its former owners. A jubilee year was typically celebrated every 50 years.

In the Christian era, after the first Jubilee of 1300, Pope Boniface VIII fixed the frequency of Jubilee celebrations to every 100 years. Following a plea from the people of Rome to Pope Clement VI (1342), the frequency was reduced to every 50 years.

In 1389, in remembrance of the number of years in the life of Christ, Urban VI chose to set the Jubilee cycle to every 33 years and called for a Jubilee in 1390—though it was only celebrated after his death by Pope Boniface IX.

Despite this, in 1400, at the end of the previously fixed 50-year period, without having declared a Jubilee ahead of time, Boniface IX granted a Jubilee indulgence to the pilgrims who had flocked to Rome.

In 1425, Martin V celebrated a new Jubilee, opening the holy door of St John Lateran for the first time.

The last to celebrate a Jubilee on the 50-year cycle was Pope Nicholas V in 1450. Paul II extended the inter-jubilee period to 25 years, and in 1475 a Holy Year was celebrated by Sixtus IV. From then on, ordinary Jubilees were held at regular intervals. Unfortunately, the Napoleonic wars prevented the celebrations of the Jubilees of 1800 and 1850.

The Jubilees were resumed in 1875, after the annexation of Rome to the Kingdom of Italy, although that year it was celebrated without the tradition of solemnity.

World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Sunday, February 2, 2025, and in parishes over the weekend of February 1-2, 2025. In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples.

Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

«Aquí comienza una nueva vida» (Dante Alighieri)

NEW YORK— En su 17ª edición, el New York Encounter, un acontecimiento cultural público anual de tres días de duración que incluye mesas redondas, actuaciones artísticas y exposiciones, tendrá lugar del 14 al 16 de febrero de 2025 en el Metropolitan Pavilion, 125 W. 18th St. La edición de 2025 pondrá de relieve cómo, en una situación cultural que presenta graves desafíos entre ellos una pérdida generalizada de contacto con el pasado y el peligro de un aislamiento personal cada vez mayor - el encuentro con una presencia extraordinaria, «un gran amor», revela un nuevo significado para el pasado, el presente y el futuro. En la memoria de este encuentro nace la esperanza y encontramos la fuerza para construir. Así pues, el Encuentro 2025 tratará de dar testimonio de una vida floreciente generada por la fe, catalizando el compromiso a través de la indagación, el diálogo y, en última instancia, los juicios que engendran una nueva vida, al tiempo que tratan de comprender y abrazar nuestra propia historia. Las exposiciones se centrarán en las consecuencias de romper con el pasado y en la promesa de nuevos encuentros y comienzos. La serie Here Begins a New Life (Aquí comienza una nueva vida), exclusiva de esta edición, ofrecerá una conversación sobre J.R.R.
