Order of Christian Initiation (OCIA). The Order of the Christian Initiation, OCIA, is the ordinary way in which adults who were not raised in the Catholic Faith become initiated into the Catholic Church through Baptism, Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation. Who is the OCIA for? It is for adults from all walks of life who consider joining the Catholic Church: someone who was baptized Catholic, but never received any other Sacraments:

- Someone who was baptized into a different faith.
- Someone who was never baptized and is beginning their faith journey.

Transfiguration of the Lord Parish would like your help in recommending names of potential candidates for our upcoming OCIA Program. Perhaps you have thought about becoming a Catholic yourself, or maybe you know a family member or a friend who might be interested. Please contact Fr. Abraham or the parish office for more information.

 Food Pantry

Hunger does not recognize a special time of the year and doesn't happen to just the poor. It does not recognize color or religious beliefs, but it happens. When jobs are lost, or when illness brings unplanned medical expenses, it happens. It happens to your friends, your neighbors, and even members of your own family. You might not know about their plight, but it is there. We do our best to help them and when our pantry is full, we can.

The types of food needed are:

cereal	tuna fish	canned vegetables and fruit
pasta	tomato sauce	boxed macaroni and cheese
baked beans	soup	peanut butter	rice	juice
jelly/jam	canned meat products (ravioli, stews, etc.)
boxed or canned potatoes		canned milk	crackers

Hunger happens 365 days a year. Please help us feed those who need help. Thank you and God Bless You!

EXHORTACIÓN APOSTÓLICA DILEXI TE DEL SANTO PADRE LEÓN XIV SOBRE EL AMOR HACIA LOS POBRES

Un Iglesia para los Pobres

La Iglesia y la educación de los pobres

68. Dirigiéndose a algunos educadores, el Papa Francisco recordó que la educación ha sido siempre una de las expresiones más altas de la caridad cristiana: «La vuestra es una misión llena de obstáculos, pero también de alegrías. [...] Una misión de amor, porque no se puede enseñar sin amar». En este sentido, desde los primeros tiempos, los cristianos se dieron cuenta de que el saber libera, dignifica y acerca a la verdad. Para la Iglesia, enseñar a los pobres era un acto de justicia y de fe. Inspirada en el ejemplo del Maestro, que enseñaba a la gente las verdades divinas y humanas, la Iglesia asumió la misión de formar a los niños y a los jóvenes, especialmente a los más pobres, en la verdad y el amor. Esta misión tomó forma con la fundación de Congregaciones dedicadas a la educación popular.

Apostolic Exhortation DILEXI TE of the Holy Father Pope Leo XIV
to all Christians on love for the poor
CHURCH FOR THE POOR

The Church and the education of the poor

68. Addressing educators, Pope Francis recalled that education has always been one of the highest expressions of Christian charity: "Yours is a mission full of obstacles as well as joys... A mission of love, because you cannot teach without loving." In this sense, since ancient times, Christians have understood that knowledge liberates, gives dignity, and brings us closer to the truth. For the Church, teaching the poor was an act of justice and faith. Inspired by the example of the Master who taught people divine and human truths, she took on the mission of forming children and young people, especially the poorest, in truth and love. This mission took shape with the founding of congregations dedicated to education.
