EXHORTACIÓN APOSTÓLICA

DILEXI TE

DEL SANTO PADRE LEÓN XIV SOBRE EL AMOR HACIA LOS POBRES

Al lado de los últimos

77. Santa Teresa de Calcuta, canonizada en 2016, se convirtió en un icono universal de la caridad vivida hasta el extremo en favor de los más indigentes, descartados por la sociedad. Fundadora de las Misioneras de la Caridad, dedicó su vida a los moribundos abandonados en las calles de la India. Recogía a los rechazados, lavaba sus heridas y los acompañaba hasta el momento de la muerte con una ternura que era oración. Su amor por los más pobres entre los pobres la llevaba no sólo a atender sus necesidades materiales, sino también a anunciarles la buena noticia del Evangelio: «Queremos proclamar la buena nueva a los pobres de que Dios les ama, de que nosotros les amamos, de que ellos son alguien para nosotros, de que ellos también han sido creados por la misma mano amorosa de Dios, para amar y ser amados. Nuestros pobres son grandes personas, son personas muy queribles, no necesitan nuestra lástima y simpatía, necesitan nuestro amor comprensivo. Necesitan nuestro respeto, necesitan que les tratemos con dignidad». Todo esto nacía de una profunda espiritualidad que veía el servicio a los más pobres como fruto de la oración y del amor, que generan la verdadera paz, como recordaba el Papa Juan Pablo II a los peregrinos que habían acudido a Roma para su beatificación: «¿Dónde encontró la madre Teresa la fuerza para ponerse completamente al servicio de los demás? La encontró en la oración y en la contemplación silenciosa de Jesucristo, de su santo Rostro y de su Sagrado Corazón. Lo dijo ella misma: "El fruto del silencio es la oración; el fruto de la oración es la fe; el fruto de la fe es el amor; el fruto del amor es el servicio; y el fruto del servicio es la paz" [...]. La oración colmó su corazón de la paz de Cristo y le permitió irradiarla a los demás». Teresa no se consideraba una filántropa ni una activista, sino esposa de Cristo crucificado, a quien servía con amor total en los hermanos que sufrían.

APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION
OF THE HOLY FATHER LEO XIV
TO ALL CHRISTIANS
ON LOVE FOR THE POOR

At the side of the least among us

76. Christian holiness often flourishes in the most forgotten and wounded places of humanity. The poorest of the poor — those who lack not only material goods but also a voice and the recognition of their dignity — have a special place in God's heart. They are the beloved of the Gospel, the heirs to the Kingdom (cf. Lk 6:20). It is in them that Christ continues to suffer and rise again. It is in them that the Church rediscovers her call to show her most authentic self.

77. Saint Teresa of Calcutta, canonized in 2016, has become a universal icon of charity lived to the fullest extent in favor of the most destitute, those discarded by society. Foundress of the Missionaries of Charity, she dedicated her life to the dying abandoned on the streets of India. She gathered the rejected, washed their wounds and accompanied them to the moment of death with the tenderness of prayer. Her love for the poorest of the poor meant that she did not only take care of their material needs, but also proclaimed the good news of the Gospel to them: "We are wanting to proclaim the good news to the poor that God loves them, that we love them, that they are somebody to us, that they too have been created by the same loving hand of God, to love and to be loved. Our poor people are great people, are very lovable people, they do not need our pity and sympathy, they need our understanding love. They need our respect; they need that we treat them with dignity." All this came from a deep spirituality that saw service to the poorest as the fruit of prayer and love, the source of true peace, as Pope John Paul II reminded the pilgrims who came to Rome for her beatification: "Where did Mother Teresa find the strength to place herself completely at the service of others? She found it in prayer and in the silent contemplation of Jesus Christ, his Holy Face, his Sacred Heart. She herself said as much: 'The fruit of silence is prayer; the fruit of prayer is faith; the fruit of faith is love; the fruit of love is service.' It was prayer that filled her heart with Christ's own peace and enabled her to radiate that peace to others." Teresa did not consider herself a philanthropist or an activist, but a bride of Christ crucified, serving with total love her suffering brothers and sisters.
