Parish Membership: We welcome new members to our Parish family and request you register in the Parish as soon as possible. Active membership is determined by registration, faithful participation and giving of one's time, talent and resources to this community of faith. The parish cannot issue certificates of eligibility for sacramental sponsorship, give recommendations or character references if a person is not active parishioner.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Baptism is the celebration through which a child is brought into the faith of the Catholic Church. Parents must be registered and practicing members of the parish. Parents and sponsors are required to attend a pre-baptismal class. Sponsors must be practicing Catholics in good standing and able to obtain a certificate of eligibility from their parish.

The Sacrament of Matrimony: requires a time of spiritual, intellectual and emotional preparation. Couples should arrange with the Parish Office one (1) year prior to the wedding date. Please call the parish office for an appointment with the pastor prior to making any other wedding plans.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: Anyone who feels called by God to become a member of the Catholic Church participates in the RCIA Program. A series of instructions and liturgical ceremonies designed to give total formation in the Catholic Faith

Pastoral Care of the Sick: Any parishioner who is sick, aged or incapacitated may receive the Eucharist at home. Please contact the Parish Office to have a priest visit you at home or in the hospital.

Pope Leo's World Mission Sunday Message

Dear brothers and sisters, on World Mission Sunday every year, the whole Church prays united, particularly for missionaries and the fruitfulness of their apostolic labors.

When I served as a missionary priest and then bishop in Peru, I saw firsthand how the faith, the prayer, and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities.

I urge every Catholic parish in the world to take part in World Mission Sunday. Your prayers, your support will help spread the gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories.

This October [18th], as we reflect together on our baptismal call to be missionaries of hope among the peoples, let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus, our hope, to the ends of the earth. Thank you for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world. God bless you all.

With praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God
The Church of Metuchen cordially invites you to attend the Mass of Installation of

His Excellency
The Most Reverend Michael A. Saporito, D.D. as Sixth Bishop of Metuchen

By
His Eminence Joseph Cardinal Tobin, C.Ss.R

We Celebrate 100 Years of World Mission Sunday!

This World Mission Sunday marks the 100th anniversary of its establishment by Pope Pius XI in 1926. This centenary is an opportunity to celebrate with renewed missionary zeal.

Last year, Pope Leo XIV made an appeal to us in a personal video for World Mission Sunday. His request echoed around the world: "Please help me help missionaries everywhere."

That's what World Mission Sunday does: it helps Pope Leo care for the 1,130 missionary dioceses and territories under his supervision through the Dicastery for Evangelization.

We are all called to be a part of this missionary work and we have a singular means to do so: World Mission Sunday.

The second collection we take up today helps extend the Church's evangelization work to missionary lands where the Gospel is being proclaimed for the first time, as well as to places where the Church barely exists, or is too young, too persecuted, or too poor to sustain herself. Thank you for responding to Pope Leo's call to help him help missionaries everywhere!

EXHORTACIÓN APOSTÓLICA

DEL SANTO PADRE LEÓN XIV

SOBRE EL AMOR HACIA LOS POBRES

Al lado de los últimos

78. En Brasil, santa Dulce de los Pobres, conocida como “el ángel bueno de Bahía”, encarnó el mismo espíritu evangélico con rasgos brasileños. Refiriéndose a ella y a otras dos religiosas canonizadas en la misma celebración, el Papa Francisco recordó el amor que profesaban a los más marginados de la sociedad y afirmó que las nuevas santas «nos muestran que la vida consagrada es un camino de amor en las periferias existenciales del mundo». La hermana Dulce enfrentó la precariedad con creatividad, los obstáculos con ternura, la carencia con fe inquebrantable. Comenzó acogiendo a enfermos en un gallinero, y desde allí fundó una de las mayores obras sociales del país. Atendía a miles de personas al día, sin perder nunca su dulzura. Se hizo pobre con los pobres por amor al sumamente Pobre. Vivía con poco, rezaba con fervor y servía con alegría. Su fe no la alejaba del mundo, sino que la sumía aún más profundamente en los dolores de los últimos.

79. Se podría recordar también a san Benito Menni y las Hermanas Hospitalarias del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, junto a las personas con discapacidades; a san Carlos de Foucauld entre las comunidades del Sahara; a santa Katharine Drexel, junto a los grupos más desfavorecidos de Norteamérica; a la hermana Emmanuelle con los recolectores de basura en el barrio de Ezbet El Nakhil, en la ciudad de El Cairo; y a muchísimos más. Cada uno a su manera descubrió que los más pobres no son meros objetos de compasión, sino maestros del Evangelio. No se trata de “llevarles a Dios”, sino de encontrarlo entre ellos. Todos estos ejemplos enseñan que servir a los pobres no es un gesto de arriba hacia abajo, sino un encuentro entre iguales, donde Cristo se revela y es adorado. San Juan Pablo II nos recordaba que «en la persona de los pobres hay una presencia especial [de Cristo], que impone a la Iglesia una opción preferencial por ellos». Por lo tanto, cuando la Iglesia se inclina hasta el suelo para cuidar de los pobres, asume su postura más elevada.

APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION DILEXI TE OF THE HOLY FATHER LEO XIV
TO ALL CHRISTIANS ON LOVE FOR THE POOR

At the side of the least among us

78. In Brazil, Saint Dulce of the Poor — known as “the good angel of Bahia” — embodied the same evangelical spirit with Brazilian characteristics. Referring to her and two other religious women canonized during the same celebration, Pope Francis recalled their love for the most marginalized members of society and said that the new saints “show us that the consecrated life is a journey of love at the existential peripheries of the world.” Sister Dulce responded to precariousness with creativity, obstacles with tenderness and need with unshakeable faith. She began by taking in the sick in a chicken coop and from there founded one of the largest social services in the country. She assisted thousands of people a day, without ever losing her gentleness, making herself poor with the poor for the love of the Poorest One. She lived with little, prayed fervently and served with joy. Her faith did not distance her from the world, but drew her even more deeply into the pain of the least among us.

79. We could also mention individuals such as Saint Benedict Menni and the Sisters Hospitallers of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, who worked alongside people with disabilities; Saint Charles de Foucauld among the communities of the Sahara; Saint Katharine Drexel for the most underprivileged groups in North America; Sister Emmanuelle, with the garbage collectors in the Ezbet El Nakhel neighborhood of Cairo; and many others. Each in their own way discovered that the poorest are not only objects of our compassion, but teachers of the Gospel. It is not a question of “bringing” God to them, but of encountering him among them. All of these examples teach us that serving the poor is not a gesture to be made “from above,” but an encounter between equals, where Christ is revealed and adored. Saint John Paul II reminded us that “there is a special presence of Christ in the poor, and this requires the Church to make a preferential option for them.” Therefore, when the Church bends down to care for the poor, she assumes her highest posture.
