Jesus Calling

How is Jesus calling you this Easter Season to be Peace in your everyday life?

2nd Sunday
OF EASTER

"Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." - Jn 20:29BC

OF MANY THINGS...

Jesus' Gift of Peace

Our readings for this Second Sunday of Easter invites us to reflect on the power of peace in our lives – that kind of peace that comes from being at one with those around us.

The early Christian community that we hear about in today's first reading knew the joy of being of one mind and one heart – those moments when all seems right with the world – when our hearts open in love toward another – family, friend, stranger – and love pours in – and we become at one with all that is.

We know in that moment such great peace. The pains of the past, the hurts, the betrayals, the abandonments, all seem to surrender to love.

This great gift of Peace was Jesus' greeting to his friends as they hid in fear in that upper room. These were among Jesus' closest friends – who during his agony, his darkest hour, they abandoned him, disappeared from view, even denied him.

It is to this group, in their darkest hour of fear, that Jesus brings the gift of peace – setting them free – on a path of reckless abandon to love – on a path of forgiveness, compassion, and healing.

What Jesus handed on to his disciples in the upper room... what the disciples handed on to that first community of believers... what has been handed on to us through the centuries... is ours today to receive and to live... in our world.

We have lived through a very difficult and challenging year during the pandemic. I believe that each of us is in need of healing of body, mind and spirit. We need the courage to acknowledge this and open our heart to it. It is a gift, freely given by Jesus, to you and to me.

The Loving – Kindness Meditation is a simple repetitive prayer that begins with prayer for oneself. In that way, it reminds me that I am in need of healing as much as everyone else. I begin to see how much we have in common: our shared concerns, dreams, hopes, sufferings. It reminds me to be more compassionate, and to stretch my heart in love and forgiveness for myself and those around me. It keeps me rooted in the present moment, frees me from worry and anxiety, reminds me that I am not alone on this journey.

To practice this meditation I begin by placing myself consciously in the presence of the God of Healing and Love and ask for openness of heart to pray for myself and others. After a few slow deep breaths, I allow myself to be quiet in body, mind and spirit, and I slowly and reverently say with all good intention:

*May I be filled with loving kindness,
May I be filled with peace,
May I be free of fear, anxiety, compulsion,
May I be at peace.*

This is repeated three times.

Then I turn my attention to those whom I love and allow their names and faces to drift into my heart. Turning my full attention to them as a group, I reverently, and with all good intention, surround those I love with these words:

*May you be filled with loving kindness,
May you be filled with peace,
May you be free of fear, anxiety, compulsion,
May you be at peace.*

This is repeated three times for those I love.

Next, I call to mind another group of people, for example, for those who are sick and dying, or for those on the front lines of the Coronavirus, for all who have been affected by Covid or for those with whom you are estranged or in a broken, hurting relationship, etc. You can choose another group of people, and continue for as long as you like, repeating the process. Or you can end this prayer after one group. You can make this prayer as long or as short as you like. You can pray for people by name or in groups of people. You can change the attribute of each line, too! The prayer concludes with praying for oneself again, May I be filled with loving kindness, etc...

Allow yourself to feel the power of this prayer – for yourself and for all for whom you pray. United in our desire for healing for ourselves and for one another, may we become the face of God's care and compassion for all people everywhere, no exceptions.

May this Easter Season be for each one of us a time of Peace, Joy, Hope and Love!

-Sister Pat

Thank You

to all you AWESOME Little Black Book readers, listed below, for guiding us through the daily readings and leading our prayer and reflection this past Lent.

And to all who joined our nightly 6 minute gatherings online, on facebook and youtube it was wonderful to have been on your Lenten journey where our hearts were turned around to our Faithful God!

Archbishop's Annual Appeal 2021 The 2021 Archbishop's Annual Appeal, Reaching Out, Healing Together, in these few short weeks, is in full swing. In the trying times we are facing, the need of our surrounding community grows and the assistance provided by the Appeal becomes all the more crucial. If you have not yet made your gift to this year's Appeal, please consider doing so in the days ahead. Your gift to the Appeal will help continue the vital services, ministries and programs that help so many throughout our Archdiocese. Be assured that all funds contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature or those listed at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal>. You may also call the Appeal Office at 800-781-2550 for additional information. No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.

Mustard Seed Fund Service Award Applications for are available on the parish website. Service awards are for deserving graduating high school seniors for higher education or vocational development with the stipulation that the recipient regularly attends mass and has given service to the church/community. Completed applications must be received in the parish office (hardcopy or via email to mkorsu@shcsby.org), no later than April 30th. Please contact Dave Kania with any questions at dkania08@gmail.com.

Sacred Heart Parish Center is meant to be a gathering place. We offer guidelines for any parish committee or ministry meetings to be held at Church:

- Register all meetings with Mary Korsu in Parish Office
- Masks are to be worn at all times with appropriate social distancing observed
- Assign a designated chairperson who will schedule meeting, assure building is open and that lights are out when meeting is done. Check with Mary Korsu.
- For each meeting, a log must be kept of attendees and phone numbers and submitted to Parish Office.
- During this Pandemic, parish meetings on Zoom, at a member's house for small groups or outside when the weather permits is always preferred.

MASS CAPACITY is 200

Please register online:

or call the Parish Office during office hours: 203-264-5071

EVENTBRITE CANCELLATION NOTICES

If you sign up for weekend Masses using our Eventbrite process, and you receive a notice of a cancellation of your reservation, this simply means that Mass has been cancelled.

We experienced our first event a few weekends ago due to the weather. Many called asking about this cancellation notice. It is our way of contacting you, via the emails you provided that the Mass is cancelled. If you have any questions, please contact Mary in the Parish Office.

As we move forward to increased attendance at Mass, please make sure you make your reservation early in the week.

FRIENDLY VISITORS

Available to visit with you by phone or online once a week for about an hour. If you or someone you know is looking for some extra company, contact:
