A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The wicked say: Let us beset the just one, because he is obnoxious to us; he sets himself against our doings, reproaches us for transgressions of the law and charges us with violations of our training. Let us see whether his words be true; let us find out what will happen to him. For if the just one be the son of God, God will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes. With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test that we may have proof of his gentleness and try his patience. Let us condemn him to a shameful death; for according to his own words, God will take care of him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 54:3-4, 5, 6 and 8

O God,
by your name save me,
and by your might
defend my cause.
O God, hear my prayer;
hearken to the words
of my mouth. R

For the haughty have
risen up against me,
the ruthless seek my life;
they set not God
before their eyes. R

Behold,
God is my helper;
the Lord sustains my life.
Freely will I offer you sacrifice;
I will praise your name,
O LORD,
for its goodness. R

A reading from the Letter of Saint James

Beloved: Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace. Where do the wars and where do the conflicts among you come from? Is it not from your passions that make war within your members? You covet but do not possess. You kill and envy but you cannot obtain; you fight and wage war. You do not possess because you do not ask. You ask but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Mk 9:30-37

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark. Glory to you, O Lord Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him. They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in the their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, [Bow for next three lines]
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Many of our parishioners and families (along with hundreds of Catholics around the Archdiocese of Hartford) began a 33-day journey on September 4 to prepare for consecrating themselves to Jesus through Mary on October 7, the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

Here are some opportunities to make the Consecration as a group here in Ansonia on October 7, 2021:

- 8:00 am—Mass at Assumption Church
 - 9:10 am—Consecration Prayer Service at Assumption Church
 - 5:00 pm—Mass at Holy Rosary Church (with consecration)
 - 7:00 pm—Outdoor Candlelight Rosary Procession at Holy Rosary parish grounds
- (overnight adoration until 1:00 pm Friday at Holy Rosary as part of the Archdiocesan Rosary Rally)

With the need for more space during the pandemic and the closure of their building on Main Street, the YMCA has been leasing classroom space here at Holy Rosary church for their youth development programs and summer camp. Safe and affordable child care is such a critical need in the Valley, so we are happy for this partnership that has been mutually beneficial and provided a needed service. Below is an article from Ryan, one of the program directors, updating our parish community on the positive impact of the summer camp program that recently concluded.

The Valley YMCA Summer Day Camp provides kids with a safe, healthy, familiar, and fun-filled environment for them to explore, build confidence, develop skills and make lasting friendships and memories, so they can grow as individuals and leaders. For families, day camp offers a peace of mind knowing that your child is in a safe and enriching place.

As a leading nonprofit committed to nurturing the potential of youth, the Y has been a leader in providing summer camp for over 130 years. The Central Connecticut Coast YMCA continues to give youth an enriching and safe experience. Our experienced and caring staff and volunteers model the positive core Y values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility that help build character.

This summer was very successful. On average for the 11 weeks summer we had around 55-60 campers a week. Total number of unduplicated campers in the community that we served was 78 families. This is an increase of 10 that we served last summer in 2020. We were also able to provide healthy breakfast and lunch in partnership with Ansonia School District each day to each camper every day.
