CONSECRATION TO ST. JOSEPH

In honor of the “YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH” the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul will be offering a 6 week Consecration to St. Joseph program every Wednesday evening at 7PM from February 17 to March 24.

We will be using the book, CONSECRATION TO ST. JOSEPH by Donald H. Calloway, MIC. He along with many others in the Church are working towards a worldwide consecration to St. Joseph on his feast day, March 19, 2021. Let us journey together with St. Joseph to become, in the words of Donald Calloway, “a faithful, loving, and trusting companion to Jesus and Mary.”

“Saint Joseph is the Patron of the Church and Terror of Demons! Our spiritual father will teach us to place God above all things, strive for purity of heart, maintain a profound interior life and have boundless confidence in unchanging truth. Now is the time for individuals, families, parishes, and dioceses to consecrate themselves to the spiritual fatherhood of Saint Joseph.”—Most Rev. Althanasius Schneider, ORC, DD.

PARKING AND SECURITY PROVIDED

There will be a limited number of books available on a first come first serve basis. For additional information, please call Diane at (401) 533-7895.

FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Brothers and Sisters:

I would like to share with you the following meditation:

The Radiant Purity of Christ

Jesus again and again, day after day, gives us the Eucharist as sacrament and sacrifice which is celebrated perpetually every minute of the day, over the whole surface of the earth, wherever the sun rises. It is the unceasing manifestation of Christ's merciful love, answering the spiritual needs of each era and of each soul. Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish (Eph 5:25-27).

This being so, he grants to his Church, especially through the Mass and Holy Communion, the graces she needs at the various moments of her history. In the catacombs the Mass was a source of ever new graces and so it is today, giving us the strength to resist the great perils that threaten us. Despite the sorrows of the present, the interior life of the Church in our time is indeed beautiful when viewed from above as God and the angels see it.

All these graces come to us from the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus who has given us the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and Holy Communion, and who is ever giving us his blood sacramentally shed on the altar. A single drop of our Savior's precious blood can regenerate thousands of souls that have gone astray. Indeed, it is a truth that we too often forget. This worship of the precious blood of the Savior and deep suffering at the sight of it can do much to turn the Eucharistic heart of Jesus toward his poor sinners—yes, his poor sinners. They are his, and apostles like Saint Paul, Saint Francis, Saint Dominic, Saint Catherine of Siena, and so many others loved our Savior enough to strive by his side for the salvation of these souls. If there is a single soul in the state of grace, a truly fervent and renounced soul such as that of Father Charles de Foucauld, a soul which receives everything that the Eucharistic Heart of Christ wishes to give to it, sooner or later the radiation of that soul will inevitably transmit to straying souls something of what it has itself received. It is impossible that the precious blood should not in some measure overflow the chalice at Mass and some day—at least at the moment of death—purify those straying souls who do not resist divine attentions. Each of them has an immortal soul for which the heart of our Lord gave all its blood.

FATHER REGINALD GARRIGOU-LAGRANGE, O.P.

Father Garrigou-Lagrange (+ 1964) was a prolific Dominican theologian and spiritual writer. He was the theology doctoral advisor of the future Saint John Paul II.

Peace,
Monsignor Mancini
