Catholic Relief Services Collection
March 28, 2021

The Catholic Relief Services Collection is an opportunity for you to help improve the lives of some of the most vulnerable people around the world and here in the United States. Funds from the collection support (CRS) and other organizations that aid victims of natural disasters, immigrants in need of legal assistance and resources to help them adapt to life in their new home, and refugee children with special education needs. Thank you for your generosity!

2021 Catholic Charity Appeal
DID YOU KNOW THAT THE CATHOLIC CHARITY APPEAL HELPS FUND THE DIOCESAN HEALTH CARE MINISTRY?

The program covers the costs associated with our diocesan priests visiting the sick in hospitals, nursing homes and private residences. The ministry coordinates priest coverage for 13 hospitals (2,500 beds) and the one RI in-patient hospice care facility. 75% of active priests, many who are retired from a parish, help to provide ministry and emergency coverage for our sick, elderly and dying brothers and sisters in these facilities. As Catholics, we know how comforting it is to have a priest with us in such difficult times. Because of your generosity, this program is funded every year, along with 30+ other ministries and services.

FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Brothers and Sisters:

I would like to share with you the following meditation:

Welcoming Our Savior and Our King

What a difference between Blessed is he who comes and Away with him! Crucify him! What a difference between King of Israel and We have no king but Caesar; Give us Barabbas. What a difference between the verdant branches and the cross, the flowers and the thorns that lacerated his head! Here, on Palm Sunday, they spread their garments before him; later they will take away Christ's garments in order to scourge him and nail him to the cross. Such is the limitation of this world, such the shortness of passing joy.

As for ourselves, we are the daughters of Zion and we dwell in the watch-tower and ark of the holy faith. Let us find our joy in Christ, our King, and not in worldly things that vanish like smoke. Isaiah urges us: Behold our king, and his reward with him. He comes for our sake, not for his own, and desires to enrich us with spiritual wealth and treasures. He came in gentleness. He came riding on ass and did not make his journey in a carriage or on a brightly outfitted horse, for he loves only poverty and does not require any tributes. He wishes to act as Savior and not to exercise rule like the princes of the earth, for his Kingdom is not of this world.

Let us therefore immediately rise up and honor him as he deserves with garments and palm branches and songs of praise; let us sing Hosanna to the Son of David with heart and voice. He will certainly save us from the tyranny of Satan and grant us an outstanding freedom and his grace during this mortal life. And after this life is finished he will bestow heavenly glory on us. To him honor through all ages with the Father and the Paraclete. Amen.

SAINT ALONSO DE OROZCO

Saint Alonso (+ 1591) an Augustinian friar and great preacher of the court of Spain under Charles V, was the author of many spiritual treatises.

Peace,
Monsignor Mancini

Sunday, March 28

Worldly glory is fleeting. Christ enters into Jerusalem to the tune of crowds chanting, "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" Only five days later, the same crowd cries, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" How their fickleness contrasts with Jesus' constancy, for he remains faithful, humble, "obedient to death, even death on a cross." Despite beatings, insults, and spitting, Jesus knows full well that he will "not be put to shame." United to him neither will we, for it is in his Passion that we find the forgiveness of our sins and the strength to rise above persecution, injustice, and suffering.
