FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Brothers and Sisters:

I would like to share with you the following meditation:

One in His Name, Consecrated in Truth

Saint Leo teaches that the Church must be one because Jesus Christ, her Bridegroom, is one. “For the Church is that virgin, the spouse of one husband, Christ, who does not allow herself to be corrupted by any error. Thus throughout the whole world we are to have one entire and pure communion.” In Saint Leo’s view, this remarkable unity of the Church has its wellspring in the birth of God’s Incarnate Word. “For Christ’s birth is the source of life for Christian people; the birthday of the Head is the birthday of the Body. Although every individual is called in his own turn, and all the Church’s sons are separated from one another by intervals of time, yet the entire body of the faithful, born in the baptismal font, is born with Christ in his Nativity, just as all are crucified with him in his Passion, raised again in his Resurrection, and set at the Father’s right hand in his Ascension.” It was Mary who participated most intimately in this secret birth of the body, the Church, because the Holy Spirit gave fruitfulness to her virginity. Saint Leo praises Mary as “the Lord’s virgin, handmaid, and mother, she who gave God birth.”

Furthermore, the Sacrament of Baptism makes those who are washed in the sacred font not only members of Christ, but also sharers in his kingship and his priesthood. Confirmation strengthens their assimilation to Jesus Christ, the Head of his body, the Church, and the sacrament of the Eucharist perfects this union. As Saint Leo says, “the reception of Christ’s Body and Blood does nothing less than transform us into that which we consume, and henceforth we bear in soul and body him in whose fellowship we died, were buried, and are risen again.” But mark this well: unless the faithful remain bound together by the same ties of virtue, worship, and sacrament, and all hold fast to the same belief, they cannot be perfectly united with the Divine Redeemer, the universal Head, so as to form with him one visible and living body. “A whole faith,” says Saint Leo, “a true faith, is a mighty bulwark. No one can add anything to it, no one can take anything away from it.”

SAINT JOHN XXIII

*Peace,
Monsignor Mancini*
