FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Brothers and Sisters:

I would like to share with you the following meditation:

All for the Honor of Jesus

Most Holy Father: More and more, day by day, a sense of gratitude expands within me for such abundant and splendid favors as granted me by Your Holiness. It is utterly impossible to express by word or by letter what a heart so full yearns to make known to Your Holiness. O exult, Mother Church, who is given life not in vain by the outpouring of the blood of the Lord for the redemption of souls! Not least because in these remote regions of the known world the number of the faithful daily increases and is gathered before him who is the Rock upon whom the Church was built. Rejoice, Holy Father! Successor of Peter! I cry out again, Rejoice! The lambs of the Lord's flock are being multiplied greatly. Give thanks with us all to the Supreme Lord who is able to raise up children of Abraham even from the stones.

We have been able to complete a truly beautiful temple, considering these woodland regions, and a few days ago were able to dedicate it to the one Most High. Now the most pure Sacrifice is offered to Almighty God. Where five years ago the papacy and the Catholic religion were considered in parity with superstition and idolatry, now the truth of the Catholic faith is very freely and gloriously planted, received, and fructifies. The name of the Roman Pontiff, Leo XII, the common father of all the faithful, is familiar to the ears of almost everyone. His priceless gifts to the church of Cincinnati, brought together for public viewing, are admired, and a multitude, not only of the faithful but also of nonbelievers, observes and honors them. Those who very recently were estranged from our charity and our religious customs now pursue us with the highest praise and attend our sermons and services in such great number that the new edifice from time to time is incapable of accommodating them. They publicly praise in the newspapers what we are doing. For which reason we often exclaim: This was done by the Lord and it is wonderful in our eyes.

BISHOP EDWARD DOMINIC FENWICK

Bishop Fenwick († 1832) was an American Dominican priest and missionary, and the first Bishop of Cincinnati, Ohio. This text is from a letter to Pope Leo XVII upon the dedication of the first cathedral of Cincinnati.

Peace
Monsignor Mancini

Blessing for Our Nation

God of all things,
we come before you in thanksgiving
for all that you have created.
For the world and its beauty,
but especially for the people around us.
We ask you today to give us wisdom and courage to look at the world and all its problems and inspire us to dream great ways to improve upon what you have so graciously given to us.
Make us worthy to call you Father.
And together bestow insight upon us
to honor your created things.
Bless, protect, and gift us ever anew with your love.
Amen.
