FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Brothers and Sisters:

I would like to share with you the following meditation:

Summoned to the Praise of His Glory

If you knew the gift of God, Christ said one evening to the Samaritan woman (Jn 4:10). But what is this gift of God if not himself? And the beloved disciple tells us: He came to his own and his own did not accept him (Jn 1:11). Saint John the Baptist could still say to many souls these words of reproach: There is one in the midst of you- "in you" - whom you do not know (Jn 1:26).

We have been destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory. It is Saint Paul who tells us this, Saint Paul who was instructed by God himself. How do we realize this great dream of the Heart of our God, this immutable will for our souls? In a word, how do we correspond to our vocation and become perfect "Praises of Glory of the Most Holy Trinity"?

In heaven each soul is a praise of glory of the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, for each soul is established in pure love and lives no longer its own life, but the life of God. Then it knows him, Saint Paul says, as it is known by him (1 Cor 13:12). In other words, its intellect is the intellect of God, its will the will of God, its love the very love of God. In reality it is the Spirit of love and of strength who transforms the soul, for to him it has been given to supply what is lacking to the soul, as Saint Paul says again. He works in it this glorious transformation. Saint John of the Cross affirms that "the soul surrendered to love, through the strength of the Holy Spirit, is not far from being raised to the degree of which we have just spoken," even here below! This is what I call a perfect praise of glory!

SISTER ELIZABETH OF THE TRINITY

Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity († 1906) was a French Carmelite nun whose writings focused on the indwelling of the Trinity. She died from Addison's disease at the age of twenty-six.

Peace
Monsignor Mancini

SAINT WHO?

Saint John the Baptist

Prophet († 1st century)

Feast: June 24

John was the son of the priest Zechariah and his wife Elizabeth. His birth was heralded by an angel who tells his father that he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb, and that he will go before the Lord in the spirit and power of Elijah to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children (Lk 1:15, 17).

John would emerge on the public scene as the first prophet in Israel in about four centuries: I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, "Make straight the way of the Lord" (Jn 1:23). An ascetic who had been tested and tried by a long sojourn in the wilderness of Judea, the arid region south of the Jordan Valley and west of the Dead Sea, John subsisted on locusts and honey—probably not the honey of bees, but a sap that oozed from the stems of certain shrubs. Dressed in camel hair, he embodied the essence of his preaching: a profound call to penance. He conferred a baptism of repentance, in anticipation of the one whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie (Jn 1:27).

John's baptism of Jesus in the Jordan signaled the beginning of Jesus's own ministry. From this time, John recognized, He must increase; I must decrease (Jn 3:30). John was later imprisoned by King Herod and beheaded to satisfy a vengeful Herodias.

His emblem in the Church's art is the animal skin.
Loving Father, through the intercession of Saint John the Baptist, draw me to profound repentance for my sins.
