FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Brothers and Sisters:

I would like to share with you the following meditation:

Invited to "Come Away" with Him

Christ is alive! We need to keep reminding ourselves of this, because we can risk seeing Jesus Christ simply as a fine model from the distant past, as a memory, as someone who saved us two thousand years ago. But that would be of no use to us: it would leave us unchanged, it would not set us free. The one who fills us with his grace, the one who liberates us, transforms us, heals and consoles us is someone fully alive. He is the Christ, risen from the dead, filled with supernatural life and energy, and robed in boundless light. That is why Saint Paul could say: If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile.

Alive, he can be present in your life at every moment, to fill it with light and to take away all sorrow and solitude. Even if all others depart, he will remain, as he promised: I am with you always, to the end of the age. Because he lives, there can be no doubt that goodness will have the upper hand in your life and that all our struggles will prove worthwhile. If this is the case, we can stop complaining and look to the future, for with him this is always possible. That is the certainty we have. Jesus is eternally alive. If we hold fast to him, we will have life, and be protected from the threats of death and violence that may assail us in life. Every other solution will prove inadequate and temporary. It may be helpful for a time, but once again we will find ourselves exposed and abandoned before the storms of life. With Jesus, on the other hand, our hearts experience a security that is firmly rooted and enduring. Saint Paul says that he wishes to be one with Christ in order to know him and the power of his Resurrection. That power will constantly be revealed in your lives too, for he came to give you life, and life in abundance. If in your heart you can learn to appreciate the beauty of this message, if you are willing to encounter the Lord, if you are willing to let him love you and save you, if you can make friends with him and start to talk to him, the living Christ, about the realities of your life, then you will have a profound experience capable of sustaining your entire Christian life.

POPE FRANCIS

His Holiness Pope Francis was elected to the See of Saint Peter in 2013.

Peace
Monsignor Mancini

The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) of New England connects men and women ages 50 and over with volunteer opportunities to serve the needs of those who are poor and marginalized, to work for a more just society, and to grow deeper in faith by reflecting and praying in the Ignatian tradition. Volunteers work at agencies 2 days per week, 10 months per year (September to June) in positions that utilize the volunteer's skills and experiences. A monthly support meeting involves travel to Boston, Providence, or Worcester, alternately. If you are interested in becoming an Ignatian Volunteer, or if your agency is interested in having a volunteer, contact Dave Hinchey, IVC New England Regional Director at newengland@ivcusa.org or at (617) 571-3838.
