Święty Michale Archaniele!

Wspomagaj nas w walce, a przeciw niegodziwości i zasadzkom złego ducha bądź naszą obroną. Oby go Bóg pogromić raczył, pokornie o to prosimy, a Ty, Wodzu niebieskich zastępów, Szatana i inne duchy złe, które na zgubę dusz ludzkich po tym świecie krążą, mocą Bożą strąć do piekła. Amen.

KURS PRZEDMAŁŻEŃSKI ( PRE-CANA ) W NASZEJ PARAFII

Narzeczonych pragnących zawrzeć sakramentalny związek małżeński zapraszamy na spotkania przygotowujące. Spotkania prowadzone w języku polskim odbywać się będą w dwie niedziele 27 lutego oraz 6 marca 2022 od godz. 20:00 do godz. 22:00.

Zainteresowanych prosimy o kontakt z kancelarią parafialną w celu rejestracji 908-862-1116.

UROCZYSTOŚCI JUBILEUSZOWE MAŁŻEŃSTWA W NASZEJ RODZINIE PARAFIALNEJ

JUBILATÓW, którzy w tym roku obchodzą rocznicę zawarcia sakramentu małżeństwa (5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30 itd.), prosimy o telefoniczne zgłoszenie tego do kancelarii parafialnej (imiona i nazwisko małżonków, numer telefonu i która rocznica). W weekend 12-13 lutego w naszej parafii planujemy odnowienie przyrzeczeń małżeńskich oraz miłą niespodziankę dla wszystkich par, które zgłoszą się do 8 lutego włącznie.

CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE CELEBRATION IN OUR PARISH FAMILY

We are asking those couples in our parish, who will be celebrating 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, 60, 65, or 70 years of Christian marriage this year, to contact our rectory office. On the weekend of February 12-13 we are planning a ceremony, which includes renewal of the vows and a little surprise for the couples. Please notify us on or before February 8th (we will need your names, phone number and what anniversary will you celebrate).

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The living reality of the Word of God is presented to us in today's readings with a vibrant, irresistible force. We need background to understand what's happening in today's First Reading. Babylon having been defeated, King Cyrus of Persia decreed that the exiled Jews could return home to Jerusalem. They rebuilt their ruined temple and under Nehemiah finished rebuilding the city walls.

The stage was set for the renewal of the covenant and the re-establishment of the Law of Moses as the people's rule of life. We hear the moving account of a people newly returned to their homeland, determined to restore their broken end of the covenant just as they had labored to restore the broken walls and gates of their ruined city. The thousands of Israelites gathered together, standing attentively to hear Ezra the priest read from the books of the law from his platform high above them.

Their response is astonishing: first praising the Lord with hands raised, then prostrating themselves on the ground, then weeping with emotion. Ezra, Nehemiah and the Levites rally the Israelites, reminding them that "today is holy to our Lord" and that it is an occasion to rejoice that their fortunes—and their relationship with God—have been restored. They urge them to celebrate with rich foods and sweet drinks.

In the Gospel today, it is Jesus who, like the Israelites in the first reading, has come home. He is given the scroll to read, this time from the book of Isaiah. He finds the passage which He knows refers to Himself, His voice riveting as He reads:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

He sits, the traditional posture for teaching, and there is an expectant moment as all eyes are fixed on Him. Then he speaks. "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

Effectively, he is declaring Himself to be the expected Messiah. The Word of God, long cherished by his people, is now present in the flesh, and filled with the Spirit, He is the fulfillment of the Scriptures and the key to interpreting it. Sitting in their midst, His presence alone gives them much more reason to rejoice than ever Ezra could promise.

But their response, we will see next week, is far different from the reaction of the newly returned Israelites in the first reading.

In today's Second Reading, St. Paul is speaking about the Mystical Body of Christ. The Church is the Mystical Body of Christ. This teaching on the Church was first revealed to St. Paul at the time of his conversion when Jesus asked St. Paul (then called Saul) why he was persecuting Him. At that time, St. Paul had been persecuting the Church out of devoutness to his own interpretation of Scripture. His encounter with Jesus led him to understand that the Church is Jesus' Mystical Body.

The Church teaches that receiving the Eucharist unites us to Jesus and to one another. The Mystical Body includes all the members on earth in every country and of every vocation; all the members in Heaven; and all the souls in purgatory. We are all part of the Church and united to one another. "Giving the body unity through Himself and through His power and inner joining of the members, this same Spirit produces and urges love among the believers.

From all this it follows that if one member endures anything, all the members co-endure it, and if one member is honored, all the members together rejoice." Lumen Gentium (7). This is why we must pray for and assist the members of the Church who are persecuted, who are sick, who are poor, who don't understand the Church's teachings, and any members who are in need. This is also why we feel such joy when other members experience something good, such as being made a canonized saint, giving birth to a new baby, joining a religious order, or founding an apostolate.

There can be a misunderstanding among some Catholics, when they think that the only important roles in the Church are limited to those of bishops, priests, and deacons, ignoring the unique gifts they have been given as laity. St. Paul addressed this in discussing the different roles in the Church. In his Letter to the Romans, St. Paul wrote:

"For as in one body we have many parts, and all the parts do not have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ and individually parts of one another. Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us exercise them: if prophecy, in proportion to the faith; if ministry, in ministering; if one is a teacher, in teaching; if one exhorts, in exhortation; if one contributes, in generosity; if one is over others, with diligence; if one does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness." (Romans 12:4 - 8).

The lives of the saints show the great variety of ways in which Catholics have exercised the gifts that God gave them. Each of the saints is different. They came from different countries, they had different vocations, they were given different gifts from God, and they served God and the Church in different ways. What they had in common is that they all lived lives of love: love of God and love of neighbor. They remained faithful Catholics in the Mystical Body of Christ and persevered in the Faith until they died. Reading about the saints and other faithful Catholic witnesses can inspire us to use the gifts and talents God gave us to serve Him.

What is our response to the Word of God? Are we attentive to it? Do we allow ourselves to be moved to praise, repentance, and gratitude? Do we put it on the proper platform in our lives, giving it a place of primacy in our prayer?

Perhaps now is a good time to commit, or re-commit, to daily reading of Scripture, especially to the Mass readings of each day. These daily readings connect us to the rest of the Church, and as part of the Mass they also connect us to the Eucharist—in a mysterious way, as much Jesus Christ really and physically present as he was sitting among the townspeople of Nazareth.

Have a blessed and peaceful day!

Fr. Ireneusz
