THE ICON OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS—A PRO-LIFE IMAGE

Tuesday: December 28, 2021 The Feast of The Holy Innocents
(The Children Slaughtered by King Herod in search of the Christ child)

Attention: Please be aware that the liturgical season of Christmas for Christians of the Catholic tradition of the Western Rite (Latin/Roman) begins at Sundown on Christmas Eve – Friday: December 24, 2020 and continues through the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord in the Jordan River celebrated on Sunday: January 9, 2022

Maranatha!

Gabriel, the archangel brought hard joy to the Virgin Mary: “Rejoice, most favored, the Lord is with you. If you agree, you will have a baby who is your savior and your God.”

What an awe-filled choice! And Mary said yes.

Such cooperation between the Lord and the woman begins the revelation of the great hidden mystery: the presence of Christ Jesus, Savior and Lord, among us.

Celebrating Mary’s choice, give glory to God through the only begotten Son, Jesus. Maranatha!

Chrystus Nam Się Narodził!

Uwielbiamy Go!

CHRIST IS BORN!

GLORIFY HIM!

Christus Natus est!

Glorificate Eum!

Shop in Heaven's Grocery Store

I was walking down life's highway a long time ago.

One day I saw a sign that read Heaven's Grocery Store.

As I got a little closer, the door came open wide,

And when I came to myself, I was standing inside.

I saw a host of angels; they were standing everywhere.

And one angel said, "My child shop with care."

Everything a Christian needed was in that grocery store.

And all you couldn't carry you could come back the next day for more.

First I got some patience, love was in the same row.

Further down was understanding, you need that everywhere you go.

I got a box or two of wisdom, a bag or two of faith.

I just couldn't miss the Holy Ghost for He was all over the place. I stopped to get some strength and courage to help me run the race.

By then my basket was getting full, but I remembered I needed some grace.

I didn't forget salvation, for salvation that was free.

So, I tried to get enough of that to save you and me.

Then I started to the counter to pay my grocery bill.

For I thought I had everything to do my Master's will.

As I went up the aisle, I saw prayer and just had to put that in.

For I knew when I stepped outside, I would run right into sin.

Peace and joy were plentiful, they were on the last shelf.

Song and praises were hanging near so I just helped myself.

Then, I said now how much do I owe?

He just smiled and said, Just take them everywhere you go.

How much do I really owe?

He smiled and said, My child, Jesus paid your bill

a long time ago.

BLESSING OF HOMES | "KOLENDA"

One of the most ancient of Slavic customs piously observed and practiced, is the New Year's blessing of homes and the annual visitation of individual families by the local parish priest. This venerable tradition known as "KOLENDA" usually begins on or near the Feast of Our Lady's Visitation by the Magi (January 6th). The custom of visiting the homes of parishioners by the local clergy is essential because it emphasizes the importance of the family. "Kolenda" is the bridge that connects the local parish Church to the individual family unit. The annual pastoral visitation of homes is an occasion to spend time together as God's Family. A sacred event during which God's blessings for the New Year are invoked, the parishioners home is rededicated with prayer and the sprinkling of Holy Water, the main doorway inscribed with the initials of the Three Kings: Kasper, Melchior and Baltazar (20 + K + M + B + 22) and the parish records updated.

In the gospel of St. Luke, we hear Jesus' words: "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me, welcomes the one who sent me." If a peace-loving man lives there, let your greeting of peace remain on him; if not, take back your greeting of peace (Lk 10,5:6). The invitation extended to the local parish priest is not only a sign of hospitality, it is also a manifestation of our faith in God and a sign of our loyalty to our own parish Church. The "Kolenda" is a special time of grace and gratitude to Almighty God for the gift of faith as realized in being a member of Most Sacred Heart Parish.

How to prepare?

The Christmas Tree and Crib should be lit.

The table should be covered with a holiday tablecloth on which can be found a crucifix, bible, two candles and a container of Holy water together with blessed chalk.

Television, radios and other electronic sound equipment should be turned off during the visit.

The family gathered together should be respectfully dressed for the occasion.

A "Thank you" offering envelope prepared for the visiting priest.

→ → Please fill out the form below and return it to the rectory or place it into the collection basket
The "Kolenda" schedule will be printed in the bulletin.

Yes, I would like to invite our parish priest to bless my home (Kolenda).
