A Meditation of St. Augustine

Late have I loved you, O Beauty so ancient and so new. Too late have I loved you!

You were within me while I had gone outside to seek. In my unloveliness, I fell heedlessly upon all those lovely things you had made. Always you were with me, but I was not with you. Created things kept me far from you; yet if they had not been in you, they would not have been at all.

You called, you shouted, you broke open my deafness. You blazed, you gleamed, you banished my blindness. You lavished your fragrance, I gasped, and now I long for you. I tasted you, and now I hunger and thirst. You touched me, and now I burn with desire for your peace.

Confessions (X, 27, 38)

“IF YOU DO NOT ENJOY SWEET SILENCE, IT WILL BE IMPOSSIBLE AFTERWORDS, TO ENJOY THE THINGS OF GOD”

The Knights Corner Our Lady of the Flowers The miracle that continues

On December 29, 1336, Egidia Mathis, pregnant with her first child, was walking on the road toward the small town of Bra, Italy, which is 27 miles south of Turin in which the Shroud of Turin is venerated.

Many of the roads in Italy have pillars left from Roman times. One of the pillars on the road had a picture of the Blessed Virgin Mary with the Christ child in her arms. Egidia noticed two men approaching her. Fearful, she ran toward the pillar, followed by the two men. She prayed, “Holy Virgin Mary, help me.”

A bright light shown from the pillar as Our Lady appeared. Mary looked at the men and waved them off. Frightened, they ran away. Our Lady smiled at Egidia and comforted her. However, the stress of the incident caused Egidia to give birth to her baby.

The area around the pillar was surrounded by leafless blackthorn bushes covered with ice. Suddenly, the bushes were covered with flowers. Egidia ran home to her husband to tell him the amazing story. The incredible story was hard to believe, but when the townspeople went out to see the flowers blooming in winter, they too, were astonished and believed.

As the story spread, people came to see where the miracle took place. As the Devotion to Our Lady of the Flowers grew, a small church was built by the pillar. The original church has been expanded and is known as today as The Sanctuary of Madonna dei Fiori,

The rest of the story:

To this day, 686 years later, the blackthorn bushes bloom between December 25th and January 15th, with two exceptions - 1914 and 1939, the years before the World Wars began.

There were times the winter flowering was extended for months, each time corresponding with the rare public exposition of the Shroud of Turin.

The blackthorn botanic family name is Rosaceae – the rose family. Roses are associated with Our Lady.

Update On The Synod

WIEŚCI Z SYNODU C.D.

On the weekend of January 8 — 9, 2022, Pope Francis declaration to all people in the church called “Synod on Synodality” to welcome everyone to participate in this meetings. Father Felix asked that we reflect on three questions and from our reflections we are to respond and return our responses in an envelope marked “Synod” to the Church by February 5—6, 2022.

Last week, January 15 —16, 2022 Deacons Dominick and Krys emphasized our participation by incorporating the synodality information in their homilies. They encouraged all of us to do our part for future growth in our global and local church.

I was reminded last week of a statement made 61 years ago on January 20, 1961, by President John F. Kennedy in his inaugural address.

At the end of his speech, he emphasized “ask not what your country can do for you, but rather what you can do for your country.”

This year we are being challenged, what can we do together as a church to grow in communion, participation and mission. Our participation in the Synod will be completed by March, but it can not be done without your input. We need your responses.

Sisters Vicky and Lisa, Synod Facilitators

Once again, the questions are given to you:

- 1. How have we experienced the power of the Holy Spirit in my (our) life?
- 2. In what ways do I (we) see the Holy Spirit working in our parish?
- 3. What steps can we take in our parish to grow better in walking together as a Church?

We are asking that you please take the time to answer these question and return your responses in an envelope marked “Synod” to the Parish Office or place it in the collection basket by the February 12 –13 weekend.

Jak już wspomnieliśmy, 8 i 9 stycznia, 2022 roku, Papież Franciszek zaprosił cały lud wierny, WSZYSTKICH NAS, do brania czynnego udziału i śledzenia obrad Synodu. Ksiądz Proboszcz prosił nas, abyśmy postarali się rozmyślać i odpowiedzieć na trzy pytania, które następnie w kopercie oznaczonej SYNOD, NALEŻY ZŁOŻYĆ W KANCELARII PARAFIALNEJ LUB WRZUCIĆ NA TACĘ PODCZAS KOLEKTY DO 5-6 LUTEGO 2022 ROKU.

Poprzedniego weekendu nasi Diakoni: Domenick i Krzysztof podkreślali wagę naszego uczestnictwa w działaniach Synodu jako osoby indywidualne, czy rodziny, choćby tylko poprzez modlitwę. Zachęcali nas do zabrania głosu w sprawach ważnych dla naszej wspólnoty parafialnej, jak i całego Kościoła powszechnego.

Przypominają się tutaj słowa wygłoszone 61 lat temu podczas mowy inauguracyjnej przez prezydenta Johna F. Kennedy. Kończąc swoje przemówienie, podkreślił on gorąco te słowa: „nie pytaj, co Twój kraj może zrobić dla Ciebie, ale raczej co Ty możesz zrobić dla Twojego kraju”. Tego roku stajemy przed wyzwaniem: co moglibyśmy RAZEM JAKO WSPÓLNOTA zrobić, by wzrastać w komunii i zaangażowaniu w misję Kościoła. Nasz czynny udział w Synodzie, jako ludzi świeckich skończy się w miesiącu marcu, ale nie może on pozostać bez echa, bez zaangażowania z naszej strony. Potrzebujemy Waszych odpowiedzi!

W Chrystusie,
Siostry Vicky i Lisa, Facylitator Synodu

Oto jeszcze raz pytania:

- 1. W jaki sposób odczuwasz moc Ducha Świętego w swoim (naszym) życiu?
- 2. W jaki sposób dostrzegam działanie Ducha Świętego w naszej parafii?
- 3. Jakie działania możemy podjąć w naszej parafii, aby wzrastać we wspólnym podążaniu za Chrystusem jako Kościół?

SYNOD PRAYER for the ARCHDIOCESE of NEWARK

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path

nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together
to eternal life

and not stray from the way of truth
and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever. Amen.

FOR A SYNODAL CHURCH

COMMUNION ● PARTICIPATION ● MISSION

Modlitwa za Synod w Archidiecezji Newark

Stajemy przed Tobą, Duchu Święty,
Gromadząc się w imię Twoje.

Tylko Ty możesz nas poprowadzić,

Rozgość się w naszych sercach;

Ukaż nam drogę, którą mamy podążać.

Naucz nas nią kroczyć.

Jesteśmy słabi i grzeszni;

Zachowaj nas od tej słabości.

Nie dozwól abyśmy podążali złą drogą i aby
nasze działania były niewłaściwe.

Daj nam łaskę abyśmy mogli odnaleźć Cię w
naszej wspólnocie,

I razem zdążali ku życiu wiecznemu drogą
prawdy i piękna.

Prosimy Cię o to, który nieustannie działasz
wraz z Ojcem i Synem na zawsze i na wieki.
Amen.
