Christmas in July?

Every year at this time we at Most Sacred Heart celebrate with the Discalced Carmelites of Morristown their Feast Day on July 16. The Nuns at Morristown count on our support to pray for them, but they also need our food or monetary donations. We've been assisting them now for 18 years when we first received a call for help. At the time, they only had rice in their cupboard. Because of us and our generosity we do our best every year in July and Christmas. Please, if you can send a check or gift card to our adopted Nuns in Morristown to lighten their burden.

Our checks or gift cards can be sent to DISCALCED CARMELITES

P.S. We will leave a basket by the Baptismal font if you prefer leaving a donation there. God Bless you!

The Precious Blood

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood. The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood. "The Precious Blood which we worship is the Blood which the Savior shed for us on Calvary and re-assumed at His glorious Resurrection; it is the Blood which courses through the veins of His risen, glorified, living body at the right hand of God the Father in heaven; it is the Blood made present on our altars by the words of consecration; it is the Blood which merited sanctifying grace for us and through it washed and beautifies our soul and inaugurates the beginning of eternal life in it."

Ordinary Time

Question:

Why do we have a liturgical season called ordinary time?

Answer:

Ordinary time is the longest season of the liturgical year. It begins the Monday after January 6, the Epiphany, and goes until the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. That period can last anywhere from five to eight weeks, depending on when Easter is celebrated. Ordinary time picks up again the Monday after Pentecost Sunday and lasts from twenty — three to twenty — seven weeks, until the end of the liturgical year, the Saturday before Advent begins.

Why the name ordinary? "Ordinary" is not in contrast to "extraordinary" or "special" but rather stress the Latin language notion of "ordinal" or numbered Sundays. The Latin title for the season, tempus ordinarium, conveys the sense that time of the year is measured or numbered time. Measured time can allude simply to the numbered Sundays, or the notion that these Sundays are a "measured" time to deepen and immerse ourselves completely in the realities of Jesus incarnation, ministry, passion, death, and resurrection. Ordinary time offers us the opportunity to connect the ordinary lived experiences of our lives with those of Jesus, who modeled for us how to live a truly human existence.

Wyrób w sobie nawyk bycia hojnym

Aby być hojnym wystarczy dawać każdego dnia. Wcale nie muszą to być pieniądze ani inne rzeczy materialne. Cała filozofia bycia hojnym streszcza się w tej właśnie prawdzie: nie musisz rozdawać pieniędzy ani rzeczy aby twoje życie stało się wypełnione tą piękną cnotą hojności.

Bycie hojnym jest piękne

Po pierwsze, wyraż swoje zadowolenie. Na świecie żyje 8 bilionów ludzi. 7.5 biliona ludzi kładzie się codziennie spać, będąc niezadowolonymi i pragnąc dowartościowania. Zdecyduj się być szczęśliwy.

Hojność jest kreatywna

Zadzwoń do kogoś, z kim dawno nie rozmawiałeś. Po to, by się przywitać, może przeprosić, sprawdzić, jak sobie radzi. "Żaden akt przyjaźni, nie ważne, jak mały, nie jest nigdy aktem straconym". (Ezop)

Hojność jest kreatywna

Zauważ, gdy ktoś robi coś dobrego. Nasza cała rzeczywistość jest nastawiona na przyłapywaniu ludzi, gdy uczynią coś złego. To niszczy zaufanie. Dzieci, które są chwalone za pozytywne, potrzebują prawdy, która pozwoli im rzeczywiście się rozwijać. "Traktujmy je z całą dobrocią, którą chcielibyśmy aby i w nich samych się wyzwalała". (Maria Montessori)

Hojność jest cnotą życiodajną

Jeśli zasadzisz drzewo, to pokolenia dzieci będą się cieszyć tym prezentem. Wdychamy tlen, który jest nam niezbędny do życia, a drzewa pochłaniają dwutlenek węgla i inne toksyny. Więc weź głęboki oddech, zasadź drzewo i podaruj prezent czystego powietrza następnym generacjom ludzi. Ta hojność dla środowiska zwróci się po stokroć. "Jeśli chcesz być szczęśliwy przez godzinę —zdrzemnij się. Jeśli przez dzień —idź na ryby. Jeśli przez rok —odziedzicz fortunę. A jeśli chcesz być szczęśliwy przez całe życie —pomóż drugiej osobie". (przysłowie chińskie)

Wasza ofiara pozwala sfinansować następujące programy i działania duszpasterskie Archidiecezji:

1. Ewangelizacja: służba wspólnoty wielokulturowym, działalność biura Ewangelizacji, biura życia rodzinnego i poradni rodzinnych, misje zagraniczne, posługiwanie osobom niesłyszącym.
2. Przekazywanie depozytu wiary: zajęcia religijne z młodzieżą, katecheza, posługa na kampusach uniwersyteckich i w uczelniach katolickich, posługa w szkołach katolickich.
3. Opieka nad chorymi i niepełnosprawnymi oraz osobami starszymi: katolickie organizacje charytatywne, posług akapelanów szpitalnych, posługa wśród osób niepełnosprawnych, biuro ochrony życia poczętego, biuro opieki nad osobami straszymi i ochrona dzieci.
4. Formacja przyszłych kapłanów i opieka nad emerytowanymi osobami duchownymi, wsparcie dla seminarzystów, kursy dokształcające się dla księży, opieka zdrowotna.

Twoja ofiara może być przeznaczona na którykolwiek z tych programów, lub możesz docelowo wybrać, na jaki cel chcesz ją przeznaczyć.

Jesteśmy bardzo wdzięczni za Twoją ofiarność.

Saint of the Week

Saint Henry was born in 972 to Henry, Duke of Bavaria, Germany, and his wife Gisela of Burgundy. Saint Henry's early life was permeated with Christianity, among those who guided his education was Bishop Wolfgang of Ratisbon, who became a saint himself. In 995, Saint Henry succeeded his father as Duke of Bavaria, and in 1002, upon the death of his cousin, Otho III, he was elected emperor. In 1014, Saint Henry undertook the long journey from Germany to Rome to be crowned Holy Roman Emperor by Pope Benedict XIII.

In 1022 Saint Henry assisted Pope Benedict VIII in holding the Council of Pavia, which promoted clerical celibacy and sought to end simony (the buying and selling of ecclesiastical goods and offices). During his reign, Saint Henry used his wealth and position for the Church. He confirmed Benedict's authority over Rome, was a patron of churches and monasteries, supported the Cluniac Reforms, restored episcopal sees, and founded the Diocese of Bamberg where he built a cathedral. Saint Henry was married to Cunigunde of Luxembourg, to whom he was incredibly devoted. Although disputed by some historians, some stories of the couple's marriage report they took vows of chastity because their union was childless. Saint Henry died in July of 1024 and was canonized in 1146 by Pope Eugene III.

Church of Saint Agatha of the Goths

An ancient church, St. Agatha's was consecrated by Pope St. Gregory the Great in the 590's, restored in the 9th Century, and partially rebuilt in 1633. Redecorated in the Baroque style, one can still see traces of the 5th Century plan, and includes beautiful frescoes, ancient columns and a unique floor. Currently the church requires significant restoration. It has been the titular church of Cardinal Burke since 2010.
