2019 LENTEN REGULATIONS

FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE OF NEWARK

• The days of both fast and abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (Holy Saturday night) as the Paschal Fast to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.

On a day of fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted, and two (2) smaller meals, which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity.

Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast.

On a day of abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

• The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence "substantially," or as a whole, is a serious obligation.

• The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty*) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, March 10, 2019 to the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, June 16, 2019.

Canon 920: All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year.*

We wish you a prayerful, holy and fruitful Lenten season.

A NOTICE ON BAPTISMS AT THE CATHEDRAL BASILICA

Baptisms usually take place in the Cathedral sanctuary or Baptistery. However, if there is a Cathedral event scheduled in the main sanctuary, Baptisms may take place in the Cathedral crypt.

PALM SUNDAY

We now come to the Sunday with a split personality. It starts with an upbeat gospel recounting Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. But we quickly progress to the stark reading of Jesus' passion, bearable only because we already know its happy ending. Two names for the same day: Palm Sunday and Passion Sunday. I propose a third name: Fickle Sunday. For the same crowd that was cheering during the parade were jeering a few days later. They'd been wowed by his sermons, fed with loaves and fishes, healed of their diseases, delivered of their demons. But as soon as the tide began to turn, so did they. Their cries of "Hosanna" turned to shouts of a very different kind: "Crucify him!" Of course, he was not surprised in the least. The gospels tell us that he knew the human mind, heart all too well. He was not fooled by all the acclamations and fanfare. Flattery could not swell his head. He had no illusions of grandeur or ambition for worldly glory. In fact, our second reading tells us that he had willingly emptied himself of heavenly glory in pursuit of his true passion—His Fathers will and our salvation which. He "set his face like flint." He was on a mission and nothing would deter him. He barreled through barriers that usually stop us dead in our tracks—fear of ridicule, fear of suffering, abandonment by our closest companions. He was willing to endure the sting of sin to blot out sin, and was eager to face death in order to overcome it. He did indeed have a "well-trained tongue." His words had mesmerized the crowds, intrigued Herod and even made Pilate stop and think. But now his lips are strangely silent. All the gospels point out that he said very little during his passion, collecting only seven brief statements from the cross. Maybe this was to fulfill the Scripture that said "like a lamb led to the slaughter or a sheep before the shearers, he was silent and opened not his mouth" (Is 53: 7b). Actually, everything that happened in these fateful hours fulfilled Scripture. Isaiah 50 had foretold the beating and mockery. Psalm 22 lays it all out hundreds of years before it happens: his thirst, the piercing of his hands and feet by Gentiles (called "dogs" by the Jews), and the casting of lots for his clothing. The opening line of this psalm happens to be "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Could it be that the Lord uttered this phrase to remind us that this was all in the plan? So the virtual silence of his well-trained tongue was to fulfill Scripture. But there was another reason for his silence. Though Jesus was destined to preach on Good Friday, the message was not to be delivered in words. The language of this sermon was to be body language. Good Friday, according to Jewish reckoning, actually began at Sundown on Holy Thursday. So on the beginning of his final day, Jesus gave us the verbal caption of his last and greatest sermon: "This is my body, given for you; this is my blood, which is poured out for you." "I love you" is not so much something you say as something you demonstrate. Diamonds may be a moving testimony to love, but the laying down of one's life is even more compelling. And though this life is human and therefore vulnerable, it is also divine and therefore infinite in value. A gift so valuable that it outweighs every offense committed from the dawn of time till the end of the world. An act so powerful that it melts hearts, opens the barred gates of paradise, and makes all things new.

*Come, Holy Spirit!
Fill the hearts of Thy faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Thy love.
Come, and renew the face of the earth!*

OFFERING MASSES FOR THE REPOSE OF SOULS

It is customary not only to visit the graves of our dearly departed, but also to have Masses offered for the eternal repose of their souls. Having a Mass offered for the repose of a soul, and offering our own prayers, is more beneficial and comforting than a card or a bouquet of flowers.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC):
"From the beginning the church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God" (CCC #1032).

Contact the Cathedral Office to have a Mass offered for a relative or friend who may need our prayers!

ABRIL : MES DEL ESPIRITU SANTO

¡Ven, oh Santo Espíritu!
Llena los corazones de tus fieles
y enciende en ellos el fuego de tu amor...
Y renovarás la faz de la tierra!

«¡Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor! (Lc 19,38)»

Hoy, la Misa comienza con la bendición de las palmas y la procesión de ingreso en el templo. Así, el Domingo de Ramos rememora la entrada "triumfal" de Cristo-Rey en la Ciudad Santa, pocos días antes de su Pasión. Es su última y definitiva subida a Jerusalén: este ascenso terminará en la Cruz. Pocos días antes, el Maestro resucitó a Lázaro y en la ciudad había una gran expectación. Hoy Jesús se nos presenta en su condición de Rey. Esta vez sí que Él permite que las gentes le aclamen como Rey. El Viernes Santo confirmará su condición real ante Poncio Pilatos, máxima autoridad civil del lugar. Pero su reinado no es mundano.

Así se lo hizo saber al gobernador, y así nos lo enseña hoy. En efecto, Él es Rey de los pobres: llega «montado sobre un borrico», tal como había anunciado el profeta Zacarías (Za 9,9). «No llega en una suntuosa carroza real, ni a caballo, como los grandes del mundo, sino en un asno prestado» (Benedicto XVI). Y es que Dios siempre actuó con suavidad: cuando llegó al mundo (un establo, un pesebre, unos pañales); cuando se "marchó" del mundo (un asno, una cruz, un sepulcro). Todo con suma delicadeza, como para no asustarnos ni incomodar nuestra libertad. Con este Rey se «anunciará la paz a las naciones» y «serán rotos los arcos de guerra» (Za 9,10). Sí, Cristo convertirá la cruz en "arco roto": la Cruz ya no servirá como instrumento de tortura, burla y ejecución, sino como trono desde el cual reinar dando la vida por los demás. Finalmente, las multitudes le reciben aclamándole: «¡Bendito el Rey que viene en nombre del Señor!» (Lc 19,38). Aquel día debieron ser algunos miles; en el siglo XXI somos muchos millones las voces que «de mar a mar, hasta los confines de la tierra» (Za 9,10) le entonamos en el "Sanctus" de la misa: «Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor. Hosanna en el cielo».
