THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

Dear friends,

Soon, if you have not yet, will hear a lot the words "Synod" and "Synodality". Let me start by briefly describing what a Synod is. A Synod is Greek word meaning "assembly" or "same road" where various issues of doctrine, evangelization, Liturgy, ect. are discussed and addressed. The Synod of Bishops is a permanent body or advisory body of the Pope established in 1965.

In preparation to the 16th Synod of Bishops in October of 2023 in Rome, the Pope Celebrated the opening of the Synod on Synodality: Communion, Participation, Mission, this past Saturday, October 9th to which he invites all members of the Catholic Church in the entire world to "journey together" in a process of listening and discernment. To listen to the Holy Spirit and to each other in order to discern the path the church must walk together into a new millennium.

Synodality is the method the church utilizes to listen to the Holy Spirit and from its members and to discern where we are heading and how we are living and proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our world today.

Next week we will look at the three stages the Church is asked to walk in this journey: Communion, Participation, and Mission.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Bismarck

SAINT SPOTLIGHT: JOHN PAUL II

The longest reigning pope in modern history, John Paul II, took his message on the road, visiting 129 countries -- several repeatedly -- on 104 trips and logging more than 700,000 miles in a papacy that lasted more than 27 years. Blessed John Paul died at the age of 84 at the Vatican April 2, 2005, the vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday.

As the first non-Italian pope in 455 years, John Paul became a spiritual protagonist in two global transitions: the fall of European communism, which began in his native Poland in 1989, and the passage to the third millennium of Christianity. The day of his canonization is Divine Mercy Sunday -- an observance Pope John Paul put on the church's universal calendar in 2000 on the Sunday after Easter. The Polish pope was a longtime enthusiast of the Divine Mercy devotions of St. Faustina Kowalska, whom he beatified in 1993 and canonized in 2000.

Pope John Paul also instituted the annual February 2 World Day of Consecrated Life, the February 11 World Day of the Sick and a World Meeting of Families every three years. But welcoming hundreds of thousands of young people to the Vatican for a special Palm Sunday celebration in 1984, Pope John Paul launched what has become the biggest international gathering on the church's calendar: World Youth Day.

In his later years, the pope moved with difficulty, tired easily and was less expressive, all symptoms of the nervous system disorder of Parkinson's disease. Yet he pushed himself to the limits of his physical capabilities, convinced that such suffering was itself a form of spiritual leadership.

FUN FACT!

A first-class relic of his can be found in the very side chapel he prayed at while he was visiting our Cathedral Basilica.

"EL CÁLIZ DE LA SALVACIÓN" MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO XXIX DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Por el Dr. Scott Hahn

En el Evangelio que se nos presenta hoy, los hijos de Zebedeo no saben lo que están pidiendo. Su forma de pensar evoca el modo en que los gentiles gobiernan, con privilegios reales y honores.

Pero el camino al reino de Cristo es por la vía de su cruz. Para compartir su gloria, hemos de estar dispuestos a tomar de la copa de la que El bebe.

La copa (o "cáliz") es una imagen que, en el Antiguo Testamento, se refiere al juicio de Dios. Los malvados tendrían que tomar de ella en castigo por sus pecados (cfr. Sal 75,9; Jer 25,15.28; Is 51,17). Pero Jesús ha venido a tomar esta copa en favor de toda la humanidad. Ha venido a ser bautizado—es decir, decir meterse o sumergirse—en los sufrimientos que hemos merecido por nuestros pecados (cfr. Lc 12,50).

De este modo cumplirá la misión prefigurada por el Siervo Sufriente de Isaías, de quien leemos en la primera lectura de este domingo. Como el Siervo de Isaías, el Hijo de Hombre dará su vida en ofrenda por el pecado, así como los sacerdotes de Israel ofrecieron sacrificios por los pecados del pueblo (Lv 5,17-19).

Jesus es el Sumo Sacerdote celestial de toda la humanidad, como dice en la epístola de este domingo. Los Sumos Sacerdotes de Israel ofrecieron la sangre de cabritos y terneros en el santuario del Templo. Pero Jesús entró en el santuario del cielo con su propia Sangre (cfr. Hb 9,12).

Y al cargar con nuestra culpa y ofrecer su vida para cumplir la voluntad de Dios, Jesús rescató “a muchos”, pagando el precio de la redención de la humanidad, liberándola de la esclavitud espiritual del pecado y a la muerte.

El nos ha librado de la muerte, como decimos con gozo en el salmo de hoy.

Debemos permanecer firmes en la profesión de nuestra fe, como nos exhorta la epístola de esta misa. Hemos de ver nuestras pruebas y sufrimientos como la parte que nos toca de la copa que Cristo prometió a los que creen en Él (cfr. Col 1,24). Tenemos que recordar que hemos sido bautizados en su Pasión y Muerte (cfr. Ro 6,3).

EL SÍNODO SOBRE LA SINOLIDAD

Estimados amigos,

Muy pronto, si es que aun no lo han escuchado, escuchará mucho las palabras “Sínodo” y “Sinodalidad”. Permítanme comenzar describiendo brevemente qué es un Sínodo. Un Sínodo es una palabra griega que significa “asamblea” o “un mismo camino” donde se discuten y tratan varios temas de doctrina, evangelización, liturgia, etc. El Sínodo de los Obispos es un organismo permanente o asesoramiento del Papa que fue establecido en 1965.

En preparación para el XVI Sínodo de los Obispos en octubre de 2023 en Roma, el Papa celebró la apertura del Sínodo sobre Sinodalidad: Comunión, Participación, Misión, el pasado sábado 9 de octubre, al que invita a todos los miembros de la Iglesia Católica en todo el mundo a “Caminar juntos” en un proceso de escucha y discernimiento. Escuchar al Espíritu Santo y a los demás para discernir el camino que la iglesia debe caminar unida hacia un nuevo milenio.

La sinodalidad es el método que utiliza la iglesia para escuchar al Espíritu Santo y de sus miembros y para discernir hacia dónde nos dirigimos y cómo estamos viviendo y proclamando el Evangelio de Jesucristo en nuestro mundo de hoy.

La próxima semana veremos las tres etapas que se le pide a la Iglesia que camine en este camino: Comunión, Participación y Misión.

Con amor y oraciones,

P. Bismarck

"CUP OF SALVATION" GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR THE 29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

by Dr. Scott Hahn

The sons of Zebedee hardly know what they're asking in today's Gospel. They are thinking in terms of how the Gentiles rule, of royal privileges and honors. But the road to Christ's kingdom is by way of His Cross. To share in His glory, we must be willing to drink the cup that He drinks.

The cup is an Old Testament image for God's judgment. The wicked would be made to drink this cup in punishment for their sins (see Psalm 75:9; Jeremiah 25:15, 28; Isaiah 51:17). But Jesus has come to drink this cup on behalf of all humanity. He has come to be baptized—which means plunged or immersed—into the sufferings we all deserve for our sins (compare Luke 12:50).

In this He will fulfill the task of Isaiah's suffering servant, whom we read about in today's First Reading. Like Isaiah's servant, the Son of Man will give His life as an offering for sin, as once Israel's priests offered sacrifices for the sins of the people (see Leviticus 5:17-19).

Jesus is the heavenly high priest of all humanity, as we hear in today's Epistle. Israel's high priests offered the blood of goats and calves in the temple sanctuary. But Jesus entered the heavenly sanctuary with His own blood (see Hebrews 9:12).

And by bearing our guilt and offering His life to do the will of God, Jesus ransomed "the many"—paying the price to redeem humanity from spiritual slavery to sin and death. He has delivered us from death, as we rejoice in today's Psalm.

We need to hold fast to our confession of faith, as today's Epistle exhorts us. We must look upon our trials and sufferings as our portion of the cup He promised to those who believe in Him (see Colossians 1:24). We must remember that we have been baptized into His passion and death (see Romans 6:3).

In confidence, let us approach the altar today, the throne of grace, at which we drink the cup of His saving blood (see Mark 14:23-24).
