(1 John 3:1-2, 21-24)

Holy Family

Fr. Michael Brizio, IMC

Ben Walter Hooper

October 13, 1870– April 18, 1957

Fred Craddock was a big name among Protestant preachers. He was a great preacher and a great teacher of preachers. Years ago, Yale invited him to deliver a series of lectures on preaching in their series, Lyman Beecher Lectures. It was a great honor to be invited to deliver that series of lectures.

In one of his lectures, Craddock told a personal story from his own life. He and his wife were on vacation in the Smokey Mountains and were having dinner at a fancy restaurant called the Black Bear Inn. They were enjoying the beautiful view through the window and trying to make their way through the menu when an old man walked over to their table. The old man said, “Good evening,” and Craddock replied, “Good evening.” The old man said, “You on vacation?” and Craddock said that they were. The old man asked, “Enjoying yourself?” and Craddock allowed that they were. The old man asked, “Where are you from?” and Craddock told him that they were from Oklahoma. The old man said, “Oklahoma! I have never been to Oklahoma!” and Craddock, who was becoming a bit annoyed at the intrusion, thought, “Let’s keep it that way”—but he kept that thought to himself. The old man asked what Craddock did, and Craddock said that he taught in a seminary. The old man said, “Oh, you teach preachers! I have got a story about a preacher,” and he pulled up a chair.

Now let me tell you a little secret. If you want to see a preacher cringe, just say, “I have got a story about a preacher.” We’ve all heard the preacher stories. Most of them are not very funny. When someone says, “I have got a preacher story,” we know that we are going to have to be polite and act like it was a good story.

The old man started by saying that he had been born in those mountains. His mother was not married, and everyone knew it. The kids had a bad name that they called him, and it hurt. He talked about recess. For most kids, recess is the best part of the school day, but that had not been true for this old man when he was a child. When recess came, he would hide in the weeds until recess ended so he would not have to endure the other kids’ cruelty.

The old man said that when he was in the seventh or eighth grade, he decided to start going to church. The preacher looked severe, and he frightened the boy and attracted him at the same time. The boy was afraid that people would wonder what a boy like him was doing in church, so he would slip in late and rush out early. But then one Sunday, he found the pew blocked. He could not get out. He broke out in a sweat, figuring that someone would ask, “What’s a boy like you doing in church?” Suddenly, he became aware of a hand on his shoulder and the preacher was standing over him. The boy cowered as he awaited the public humiliation that he was sure was coming.

Sure enough, the preacher made some comment about whose child he was—but then he said, “Well, boy, you are a child of ah—You’re a child of ah—Ah, wait!” And then the preacher said, “You are a child of God. I see a strikin’ resemblance! And he patted the boy on a shoulder and said, “Go claim your inheritance!” That was the end of the preacher story. It was a preacher story that Craddock had never heard and one that he was glad to hear.

He asked the old man his name, and the man said, “Ben Hooper.” Then Craddock remembered his father telling him about the state of Tennessee electing what they used to call an “illegitimate child” to be governor of that fine state—a governor whose name was Ben Hooper. And that was the turning point in Ben Hooper’s life. Ben Hooper became a brand new person the day that he realized that he had a father—a heavenly father.

I love that story because it reminds me that God is my father too. I have heard that all my life—that God is my father—but I sometimes have trouble believing it.

My guess is that you, too, have probably heard that you are a child of God—and that you, too, sometimes have trouble believing it.

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

The recent “40 Days For Life” peaceful and prayerful protest at the Shrewsbury Planned Parenthood abortion center was successful. We had all our shifts covered for the full six Fridays and received a lot of public attention. Thanks for participating. We will participate again during Lent in 2022.

There is a very active group of about 18 to 24 pro-lifers that meets every Saturday morning at the PP abortion center, 69 Newman Springs Road, Shrewsbury, picketing and saying the rosary, from 9:00 AM to 10:00 AM. All are welcome to join.

Lastly, after an abridged session last January due to the pandemic, there will be a full annual March For Life planned in Washington, DC, scheduled for Friday, January 21, 2022. St Rose participants will once again be invited to join with members of St. Gabriel’s and St. Thomas More, on a bus to Washington to attend the March. Stay tuned for more details. Check out the March website for history, info, and news about the March, at <https://marchforlife.org/national-march-for-life/>.

for young people grades 8 – 12

Sundays 6 pm – 7:30 pm
January 9 and 30
February 6 and 27

All meetings will be in person and virtual at the same time. Meetings are held in the parish hall of St. Robert Bellarmine, 61 Georgia Road, Freehold. We have members from St. Robert’s, St. Thomas More, St. Rose of Lima and St. Thomas the Apostle and St. Joseph’s. Youth can join at any time during the year. We find different projects that enable us to share our faith through action of service and LIFT up all whom we encounter. We look for new and different ways to serve the Church, the community and the world with random acts of kindness, and in the process, create life-long friendships. Meetings are usually held on the first and third Sundays of each month from 6 to 8 pm during the school year.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTERS NEEDED

The Bereavement Ministry is a ministry of parish volunteers who offer assistance to families at the time of death of a loved one to help plan the Funeral Mass. They provide a link between the parish and the community, assisting the bereaved, and providing support group information if needed. Bereavement Ministers will receive training at the parish and through the diocese. We hope that you will prayerfully consider this ministry. If you are interested in learning more, or if you have any questions, please contact the Parish Office at (732) 462-0859. Thank you!

ALL parish and school employees, religious education volunteers, scout leaders, SVDP advocates, Hispanic ministry leaders, nursing home and hospital ministers must attend a VIRTUS Awareness Session. This is mandated by our Bishop and the Trenton Diocese in addition to being fingerprinted. Volunteers, employees and school staff need to be recertified every four years. School and Church employees must attend a session, even if they do not work directly with children.

Due to COVID-19, Virtus Sessions will be held online. The online option allows participants to complete initial and re-certification online at a place convenient to them within a two-week time frame. The participant will receive an email containing a link to the assigned session.

- Go to virtusonline.org and sign-in to your account OR create on new account.
- Create a VIRTUS account with a username, password and valid email address.
- Participant should not select a session at the time of account creation.

After you register and have a username and user ID, please call Donna (732) 462-0859 in the parish office to provide your information, so you can be scheduled for the training module.

Are you tired because of the burden of your duties, because many misunderstand you? Are you trying to find hope and meaning in life? Abandon yourself to Jesus and He will refresh you! The more time you spend with Jesus, the more you will come away feeling renewed and healed. Miracles of peace, answers to prayers, physical healings, and many other wonderful things happen where and when the Lord Jesus is adored in the Blessed Sacrament. We can offer Him our concerns, our troubles, our joys, our gratitude, our disappointments, our needs and our aspirations.

The chapel is open Monday to Saturday, 9:00 AM to 12 Noon. The Chapel is located between the church and the rectory.

The Knights of Columbus Freehold Council #1672 is collecting used and unused eyeglasses (no evelglass cases) for the Lions Club. Glasses may be deposited in the drop-off boxes located in the main entrances of the church and chapel.

CATHOLIC

Test Your Knowledge of the Catholic Faith!

When we sing or say, “Marana tha” we express our desire for...

The correct answer is C.

The Church celebrates the mystery of her Lord “until he comes,” when God will be “everything to everyone.” “Since the apostolic age the liturgy has been drawn toward its goal by the Spirit’s groaning in the church: Marana tha! The liturgy thus shares Jesus’ desire: “I have earnestly desired to eat this passover with you...until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.” In the sacraments of Christ, the Church already receives the guarantee of her inheritance and even now shares in everlasting life, while “awaiting our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus.” The “Spirit and the Bride say, ‘Come, Come Lord Jesus!’”

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

All articles for the parish bulletin are to be submitted to the Parish Office before 5 PM, ten days before the weekend you want the article to be published, no exceptions.

Journeying Together through the Synod

Hopefully, you have been thinking about your own experience of journeying with the Church. We can learn so much when we reflect on our own story of faith and listen to the story of others. These conversations can be a time of grace! And we believe the Lord Jesus who promised, “For where two or more are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them.” Matthew 18:20

The Synod is not an invitation to debate Church teachings. The Synod is not a time or place to create conflict or chastise the “other.” Pope Francis calls us to step away from the caustic battles of 21st century conversations; and instead to share part of our own story, listen with care to one another, and build understanding and insight.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

HAITI How can You Make a Difference ?

The riots in Haiti are making life even more difficult for our brothers and sisters as streets close and rampant destruction causes mayhem in the capital, Port-Au-Prince. Although our friends in Fond Pierre are not subjected to the violence and unrest, they are negatively impacted by the economic fall-out from the disturbances. Father Daisma also wanted to thank you on behalf of the people of Fond-Pierre for your past generous support.

The focus of our twinning relationship with St. Peter's Church, which spans over a decade, continues to be the education of the more than 360 students that make up the parochial school. The total cost to pay for the 16 teachers, 3 canteen cooks, 1 secretary and 1 guard's salaries amount to about $14,000 for the entire year. Three years ago, we began a program whereby St. Rose parishioners could choose to sponsor the monthly salary of one teacher at a cost of $100 per month.

We graciously thank all those who participated. We are once again asking for sponsorship of one teacher's salary at possibly the $100 level. Alternatively, we ask that you prayerfully consider a one-time sacrificial donation. Your donation will provide the school children with the tools they need, give them hope, and will set the foundation for a brighter future. We are mindful that your personal financial situation will dictate whether a monthly or one-time contribution is appropriate. Rest assured, however, that whether your support is monetary or spiritual, the young people of Fond Pierre and their educators are forever grateful that strangers are willing to sacrifice of themselves to give them an opportunity to lead a fulfilled life.

Please make checks payable to St Rose of Lima, annotated "Haiti Teachers Program." You may drop in the collection basket or mail to 16 McLean Street, Freehold NJ 07728.

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

¿Estás cansado por la carga de tus deberes, porque muchos te malinterpretan? ¿Estás tratando de encontrar sentido a la vida?

¡Entrégate a Jesús y Él te guiará! Cuanto más tiempo pases con Jesús, más te sentirás renovado y sanado. Milagros de paz, respuestas a oraciones, curaciones físicas y muchas otras cosas maravillosas suceden donde y cuando el Señor Jesús es adorado en el Santísimo Sacramento. Podemos ofrecerle nuestras preocupaciones, nuestros problemas, nuestras alegrías, nuestra gratitud, nuestras decepciones, nuestras necesidades y nuestras aspiraciones.

La capilla está abierta de lunes a sábado, de 9:00 am a 12 del mediodía. La Capilla se encuentra entre la iglesia y la rectoría.

Un acto de comunión espiritual

Jesús mío, creo firmemente que estás en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar. Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo tenerte en mi alma. Ya que ahora no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, ven por lo menos espiritualmente a mi corazón. Como si ya hubieses venido, te abrazo y me uno todo a ti.
Amen

Fecha de Nacimiento: Siglo 1, Judea

Fecha de Fallecimiento: 74, Etiopia

Causa de muerte: Muerte natural

Festividad: 21 de septiembre rito romano

16 de septiembre rito bizantino

Santuario: Catedral de Salerno (se conservan sus restos)

Mateo es admitido como Santo por todas las confesiones cristianas.

San Mateo es uno de los doce apóstoles de Jesucristo y autor del evangelio en el año 80.

Jesús le dio el nombre de Mateo, que significa “don del Señor”, antes de seguir a Jesús era llamado Levi o Levi de Alfeo, es decir, hijo de Alfeo.

El Nuevo Testamento no nos da más detalles biográficos sobre Mateo, pero indica que evangelizó Judea y posteriormente fue misionero en Etiopia y Persia. Vivió varios años en Antioquia donde escribió su Evangelio. Cuyo testimonio a sido muy importante desde los primeros tiempos de la iglesia.

HISTORIAS EJEMPLARES

Domingo de la Sagrada Familia – Año C
(1 Juan 3:1-2,21-24)
El P. Michael Brizio, IMC
www.frmichaelbrizio.com

Ben Walter Hooper, 13 de octubre de 1870 - 18 de abril de 1957)

Fred Craddock fue un gran nombre entre los predicadores protestantes y maestro de predicadores. Yale lo invitó a dar una serie de conferencias sobre predicación las Conferencias Lyman Beecher. Fue un gran honor para él a ser invitado a dictar esas conferencias.

En una de sus conferencias, Craddock contó una historia de su propia vida. Él y su esposa estaban de vacaciones en las Montañas Smokey y cenaban en un restaurante elegante llamado Black Bear Inn. Estaban disfrutando de la hermosa vista a través de la ventana y chequeando el menú cuando un anciano se acercó a su mesa. El anciano dijo: “Buenas noches,” y Craddock respondió: “Buenas noches.” El anciano dijo: “¿Estás de vacaciones?” y Craddock dijo que sí. El anciano preguntó: “¿Estas disfrutando?” El anciano preguntó: “¿De dónde eres?” y Craddock le dijeron que eran de Oklahoma. El anciano dijo: “¡Oklahoma! ¡Nunca he estado en Oklahoma!” y Craddock, que se estaba molestando un poco por la intrusión, pensaron: “Mantengámoslo así” – pensó para sí mismo. El anciano preguntó qué hacía Craddock, y Craddock dijo que enseñaba en un seminario. El anciano dijo: “¡Oh, enseñas a predicadores! Tengo una historia sobre un predicador,” y tomo una silla y se sentó.

Ahora déjame contarte un pequeño secreto. Si quieres ver a un predicador encogerse, solo di: “Tengo una historia sobre un predicador.” Todos hemos escuchado las historias del predicador. La mayoría de ellos no son muy graciosos. Cuando alguien dice: “Tengo una historia de un predicador,” sabemos que vamos a tener que ser educados y actuar como si fuera una buena historia.

El anciano comenzó diciendo que había nacido en esas montañas. Su madre no estaba casada, y todos lo sabían. Los niños me habían dado un sobrenombre para llamarme y me dolía. Hablé de receso. Para la mayoría de los niños, el receso es la mejor parte del día escolar, pero eso no había sido cierto para este anciano cuando era niño. Cuando llegaba el recreo, se escondía en la maleza hasta que terminaba el recreo para no tener que soportar la crueldad de otro niño.

El anciano dijo que cuando estaba en séptimo u octavo grado, decidió empezar a ir a la iglesia. El predicador parecía severo y lo asustó al niño y lo atrajo al mismo tiempo. El niño temía que la gente se preguntara qué estaba haciendo un niño como él en la iglesia, como el para que saliera tarde y saliera corriendo temprano.

Pero luego, un domingo, encontró un banco bloqueado la salida. No pudo salir. Comenzó a sudar, pensando que alguien le preguntaría: “¿Qué está haciendo un niño como tú en la iglesia?” De repente, se dio cuenta de una mano sobre su hombro y el predicador estaba de pie a su lado. El niño se acobardaba esperando la humillación pública que estaba seguro que le vendría.

Por supuesto, el predicador hizo algún comentario sobre de quién era – pero luego dijo: “Bueno, chico, eres un hijo de ah – Eres un hijo de ah – ¡Ah, espera!” Y luego el predicador dijo: “Eres un hijo de Dios. ¡Veo un parecido sorprendente!” Y acarició al niño en un hombro y dijo: “¡Ve a reclamar tu herencia!” Ese fue el final de la historia del predicador. Era una historia de predicador que Craddock nunca había oído y que estaba contento de escuchar.

Le preguntó al anciano su nombre, y el hombre dijo: “Ben Hooper.” Luego Craddock recordó que su padre le habló sobre el estado de Tennessee eligiendo lo que solían llamar un “hijo ilegítimo” para ser gobernador de ese estado – un gobernador cuyo nombre era Ben Hooper. Y ese fue el punto del cambio en la vida de Ben Hooper. Ben Hooper se convirtió en una persona completamente nueva el día que se dio cuenta de que tenía un padre – un padre celestial.

Me encanta esa historia porque me recuerda que Dios también es mi padre. He oído eso toda mi vida – que Dios es mi padre – pero a veces tengo problemas para creerlo.

Supongo que tú también probablemente hayas oído que eres un hijo de Dios – y que tú también tienes problemas para creerlo.

Todas las reuniones serán en persona y virtuales al mismo tiempo. Las reuniones se llevan a cabo en el salón parroquial de St. Robert Bellarmine, 61 Georgia Road, Freehold. Tenemos miembros de St. Robert’s, St. Tomás Moro, St. Rosa de Lima, St. Tomás el Apóstol y St. Joseph’s. Los jóvenes pueden unirse en cualquier momento del año. Encontramos diferentes proyectos que nos permiten compartir nuestra fe a través de la acción de servicio y LIFT a todos los que encontramos. Buscamos formas nuevas y diferentes de servir a la Iglesia, a la comunidad y al mundo con actos aleatorios de bondad, y en el proceso, crear amistades de por vida. Las reuniones generalmente se celebran el primer y tercer domingo de cada mes de 6 a 8 pm durante el año escolar. ## INTECIONES PARA LA MISA DE ESTA SEMANA

Hoy celebramos la Santa Misa por:

Diciembre 26: Por el eterno descanso de Inocencio Rivera 3 meses de fallecido de parte de su hija y nieto.

Diciembre 26: Por el descanso eterno de Narciso Rodríguez Corona de parte de su mamá Victoria Corona.

Cuando cantamos o decimos “Marana tha” expresamos nuestro deseo de...

La respuesta es C: La Iglesia celebra el misterio de su Señor “hasta que venga,” cuando Dios será “todo para todos.” Desde la era apostólica, la liturgia se ha sentido atraída hacia su meta por el gemido del Espíritu en la Iglesia: ¡Marana tha! Por lo tanto, la liturgia comparte el deseo de Jesús: “He deseado sinceramente comer esta Pascua contigo...hasta que se cumpla en el reino de Dios.” En los sacramentos de Cristo, la Iglesia ya recibe la garantía de su herencia e incluso ahora participa en la vida eterna, mientras “espera nuestra bendita esperanza, la aparición de la gloria de nuestro gran Dios y Salvador Cristo Jesús.” El “Espíritu y la Novia dicen: ‘Ven... ¡Ven, Señor Jesús!’”

La reciente protesta pacífica y orante “40 días por la vida” en el centro de aborto Shrewsbury Planned Parenthood tuvo éxito. Tuvimos todos nuestros turnos cubiertos durante los seis viernes y recibimos much apoyo por la atención pública. Gracias por participar. Participaremos de nuevo durante la Cuaresma del 2022.

Hay un grupo muy activo de 18 y 24 personas provida que se reúnen todos los sábados por la mañana en el centro de aborto PP, 69 Newman Springs Road, Shrewsbury, haciendo huelgas y rezando el rosario, de 9:00 a.m. a 10:00 a.m. Todos son bienvenidos a unirse.

Por último, después de una sesión abreviada en enero pasado debido a la pandemia, habrá una Marcha por la provida anual completa planeada en Washington DC, para el viernes 21 de enero de 2022. Los participantes de St Rosa serán invitados una vez más a unirse a los miembros de St. Gabriel's y St. Thomas More en un autobús para Washington para asistir a la marcha. Estén atentos para más detalles. Visite el sitio web de marchas para ver historias, informaciones y noticias sobre la Marcha, en <https://marchforlife.org/national-march-for-life/>.

Para obtener más información sobre cualquiera de estos eventos, no dude en ponerse en contacto con Jim Meyer, del St Rose Respect for Life Committee, al (973) 583-0245, o en meyerjim1953@gmail.com.
