Poetry Contest Winners

Thank you to everyone who participated in our recent Fatherhood Poetry Contest. The competition was very strong and after much discussion amongst the judges the winners have been chosen. Congratulations to the following:

First Prize - John Lessard | Second Prize - Gianna Paolucci | Honorable Mention - Stephen Compton

Fatherhood

by John Lessard

I give thanks for my father in heaven,
I give thanks for my good father on earth.
God has given the sacraments seven,
while my earthly father gave me joy and myrth.
The good creater gave life eternal,
and he in his mercy made all things,
down to every little seed and kernel,
and up to every angel that sings.
My heavenly father is the good shephard
God, he gently gathers up his sheep.
His earthly children, they he has treasured,
and them by his side he most kindly keeps.
My father on earth cares for me and still does,
he will even when I am old and gray.
I will always give thanks for him because,
him I could never, begin to repay.
Fatherhood, it should not be a burdon,
I am not saying the job should be light,
I'm just saying joy can occur when,
You fathers try hard, to treat it just right.

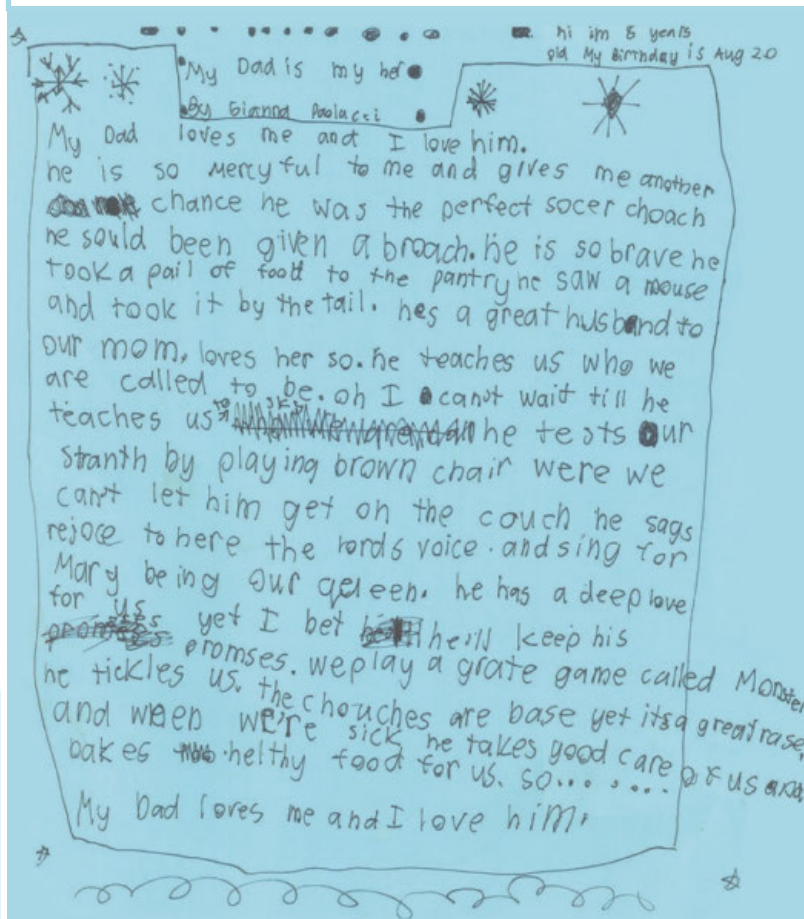

My Dad

By Stephen Compton, age 11

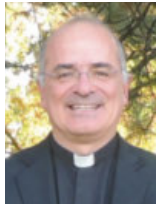

My father is great.
He is Catholic because it was fate.
I think about my father every date.
Because it's the way I was taught.
He is not mean,
And he wishes he was lean.
My father helps me see the way, the truth,
and the light.
Sometimes when we walk hand in hand,
We turn back to see our footprints in the sand.
My father gives me peace
When he tells me I'm not the least.
My father tells me to be ready to fight for the light
With all my might
And to love all my neighbors to the next level
Because I'm not a devil.
My father helps me not feel down when I fall down.
He teaches me skills for life.
I trust my dad because I'm not an adult
And if I didn't, it would be a fault.
This is why fathers are so good.
So love your father until you pass
And don't forget to go to Mass.

My Dad Is My Hero

By Gianna Paolucci, age 5

From The Pastor's Deck

Dear St. Mary Parish Family,
On the occasion of my installation as Pastor of St. Mary Parish on December 19th, I wish to share with you the great gratitude and the great hope I have in my heart :

Gratitude

- ◆ To Our Lord, who opens for me a new way of following him.
- ◆ To the Archbishop for his confidence in appointing me as your pastor.
- ◆ To my Superior General for having sent me to you.
- ◆ To Fr. Javier Nieva and my religious community for their constant support.
- ◆ To all of you for your welcome and patience.

Hope

These are not easy times either for society or for the Church. The Lord has wanted us to plough these fields and to open the way for others. In the current confusion and lack of visibility, I wanted to share with you my three fundamental lights and questions:

1. The Sacraments are sources of life, new beginnings. To lean on them is to lean on the gifts that God has given us for our greatness. How can the parish help the faithful so that the seed of each sacrament can flourish and make your life great?
2. The family is a path of holiness. Holiness is the perfection of love. And love is a matter of excellent actions. How can the parish promote the excellence and creativity of your love?
3. Mission enlarges the heart. The gratitude of recognizing the gifts God gives us makes us overflow in others, communicating what we have received. How can the parish channel the transmission of faith in the family and in society?

Christ makes our life great and beautiful. I begin my ministry in a parish that is already great and beautiful because of the work of those who have gone before me. I reap their fruit. And my desire is that it be even greater and more beautiful. Mary will accompany us. With gratitude and hope I entrust my ministry in your prayers. Many thanks.

Living Our Catholic Faith

Gospel Meditation—The Epiphany of the Lord

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, "Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

St. Augustine's Confessions

Six Week Online Course with Dr. Seth Fabian
January 10-February 14 6:30-8:30pm

St. Augustine's Confessions is a work that changes lives. Augustine's searingly honest account of his conversion reveals the journey to God that most of us experience: a deep desire for God compromised repeatedly by our own uncertainties and fear of total commitment. The result is the paradox at the center of our lives: we know that God alone can bring ultimate happiness and yet we try a thousand ways to find happiness elsewhere.

Join Dr. Seth Fabian, instructor for the St. John Vianney Theological Seminary, for this six-week online course Monday evenings starting January 10 as we read through Confessions with particular attention to clarifying the complicated historical and intellectual context of Augustine's world that will explain his thought and highlight the significance of his story to our own lived experience.
