Loving my Enemy? Are you kidding me!

In the 1st reading (1 Sm26) we can imagine all the hate that King Saul has against his servant David. Saul goes with 3000 men in search of David in the desert to kill him. Saul is full of jealousy against David who is more successful than him because "the Lord was with David". One night, while Saul is sleeping, God delivers Saul into David's grasp. David could have easily do justice to oneself by killing Saul, but he renounces vengeance saying: "Though the Lord delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm the Lord's anointed". David put in practice what Jesus will teach a few centuries later on the Mount of the Beatitudes: "Love you enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you" (Lk6). This seems humanly impossible and we have all experienced, at least once in our lives, how difficult it is to love our enemy! But Jesus cannot command the impossible. He knows our weakness and imperfection; He knows very well that never would we be able to love our enemies, unless "You, O my Jesus, loved them in me. It is because You wanted to give me this grace that You made your new commandment. Oh! How I love this new commandment since it gives me the assurance that Your will is to love in me all those You command me to love" (St Therese of Child Jesus). The more I am united to Jesus, the more I will be able to love everyone...even my enemy.

Fr. Luc Marie Vaillant

¿Amando a mi enemigo? ¿Me estás tomando el pelo!

En la primera lectura (1 Samuel 26) nos podemos imaginar el odio que el rey Saúl tenía contra su siervo David. Saúl sale al desierto con tres mil hombres en búsqueda de David para matarlo. Saúl está lleno de envidia contra David quien es más exitoso que por qué "el Señor estaba con David." Una noche, mientras Saúl dormía, Dios pone a Saúl al alcance de David. David pudo haber ejercido su justicia matando a Saúl, pero renuncia a la venganza diciendo: "Aunque el Señor te puso a mi alcance, no le haré daño al ungido del Señor." David pone en práctica lo que Jesús predicará siglos después en el monte de las Bienaventuranzas: "Ama a tus enemigos, hazle bien a los que te odian, bendice a los que te maldicen, ora por los que te maltratan." (Lucas 6) Esto parece humanamente imposible y todos nosotros, hemos vivido al menos una vez en nuestras vidas, lo difícil que es amar a nuestro enemigo. Pero Jesús no puede mandar a hacer lo imposible. El conoce nuestra debilidad e imperfección; El conoce muy bien que nosotros nunca podríamos amar a nuestros enemigos, a menos que "Tu, Oh mi Jesús, ámalos en mí. Es porque tu quisiste darme esta gracia que nos diste este nuevo mandamiento. ¡Oh! Como amo este nuevo mandamiento ya que me asegura que tu voluntad es amar en mi a todos los que me mandaste a amar" (St. Teresita de Niño Jesús). Mientras más unido esté a Jesús, mas podré amar a todos... aún a mi enemigo.

Join Deacon Colin for an Avila Institute Online Course:

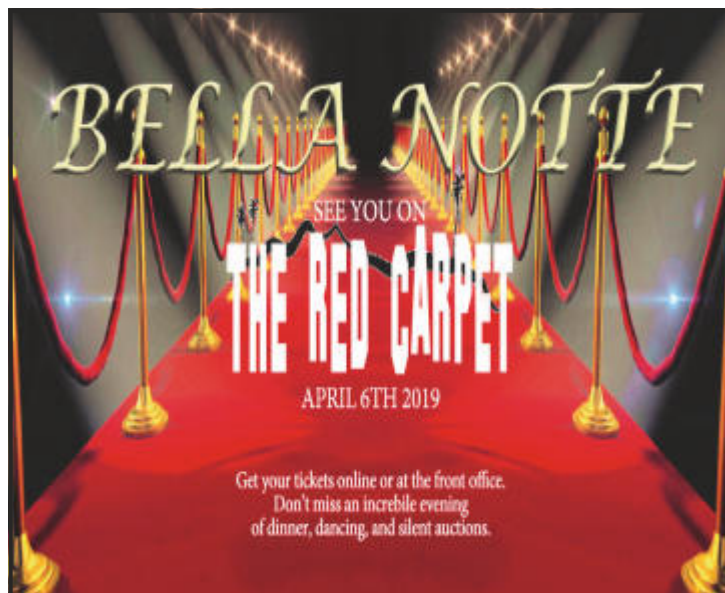

Introduction to St. Thérèse of Lisieux. Spring 2019

This course will give an overview of the life and message of St Thérèse of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face and introduce you to the principal themes of her spirituality, her works, and reflect on why her "Little Way" is so important in the new millennia. Students will learn how St Thérèse attained the summit of love by facing the depths of her own powerlessness, and how, through this, she was able to abandon herself more and more to the incarnation of God's mercy...Jesus Christ.
