Third Sunday of Lent

Today we hear in the 1st reading even after the people of Israel had seen the glory of Lord God that took them out of Egypt their thirst drove them to grumble against Moses his servant. This real thirst seems to make them forget how God had already cared for their every need. God knows our needs and is eager to fulfill them, are we ready to trust that he will? The phrase “hope does not disappoint” this was awakened in the heart of the Samaritan woman when she meets Jesus. Today’s Gospel is our story. We are the Samaritan. We are often weighed down with a thirst that cannot be quenched by the “world”. Today let us receive these words in the depths of our soul. . . “whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” Hope in Him, He will not disappoint.

Deacon Colin Coleman

Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma

Hoy escuchamos, en la primera lectura, que el pueblo de Israel, aun después de haber visto la gloria del Señor Dios sacarlos de Egipto, su sed los llevó a quejarse contra Moisés, su servidor. Esta verdadera sed parece hacerlos olvidar como Dios ya había cuidado de cada una de sus necesidades. Dios conoce nuestras necesidades y está deseoso de colmarlas, ¿estamos listos para confiarle cada una de nuestras necesidades? La frase, "la esperanza no decepciona" despertó dentro del corazón de la mujer Samaritana, cuando conoció a Jesús. Muchas veces nos sentimos abrumados por una sed que el 'mundo' no puede colmar. Hoy, vamos a recibir estas palabras en lo profundo de nuestra alma... "el que beba del agua que yo le daré no volverá a tener sed jamás, sino que dentro de él esa agua se convertirá en un manantial del que brotará vida eterna". Ten esperanza en El, no te decepcionará.

Diácono Colin Coleman
