PRO-LIFE DISCUSSION

Pro-life Discussion attempts to write about interesting, diverse, controversial, current, relevant topics. Hopefully, some are thought provoking. However, this is...not that. To many Catholics, the themes of detachment, sacrifice, humility and repentance appear far more frequently in religious writing than the spiritual benefits of a good laugh. The value of humor actually has deep roots in Catholic tradition. In the 13th century, Dominican scholastic theologian St. Thomas Aquinas composed a lengthy summary of theology that became one of the most important resources in the Catholic tradition: The Summa Theologica. In it, Aquinas argued that humor offers the mind and soul the kind of rest the body needs. Having the gift of humor is an important quality to keep us from taking ourselves too seriously. It was the union of this natural gift of a sense of humor with the supernatural gift of Faith that produced the optimism of the Saints. The combination of wit, wisdom and humor should show us all that there is real joy to experience. Many Catholic Saints have considered laughter to be an integral part of nature itself. This joyous, holiness humor comes straight from God. The humor of the Saints should be an instructive inspiration for us all to emulate. St. Teresa's gift of humor has been called "a divine gift." It may have been the deep and passionate trust she had in God's goodness that allowed St. Teresa to maintain and treasure a sense of humor, even in the midst of turmoil. St. Ignatius said, "Laugh and grow strong." St. Francis of Assisi was commonly credited with a nimble wit. His philosophy was, "Playfulness of wit is a striking feature." Wit is the truest source of joy for the believer. St. Thomas More had a sense of humor that never deserted him, even up to the moment of his execution. "Assist me up," he said to the Lieutenant of the Tower. "Coming down I will look after myself." Such confidence raises the soul and produces a light heart. Pope Francis is not the only Pope to stress the value of humor in Catholic life. Remember..."You can be Catholic and be funny. You can be Catholic and laugh." Pope St. John XXIII was known for his humor. Famously, when asked once how many people worked at the Vatican, he replied, "About half of them." Ecclesiastes 3:4 tells us that there is "a time to weep, and a time to laugh." A sense of humor is vital for a true spiritual life. Where there is a great deal of Faith, there will always be a great deal of laughter. Humor helps to keep us humble. Humor can break down barriers across cultures and bring people together. When you pray, ask God for, among other things, "a good sense of humor ... to share with others."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

In today's Gospel Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick— no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. When Jesus sent his disciples to bring the Good News, he sent them with nothing but trust in a provident God, he asked them to take nothing that could distract them from the mission he had entrusted to him, only trust in God was all they needed for the journey. The question for us is: What is it that distracts us from doing what the Lord commands us? What is it in our hearts that keeps us from going out to proclaim the Good News? God is good, and he is a provident God who takes care of us when we take care of his things here among our brothers. He gives each one of us what we need and does not abandon us. Lord Jesus, you who ask us to leave everything that binds us to the ephemeral, increase our faith so that we may abandon ourselves into the hands of the Father.

Amen

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

En el Evangelio de hoy llamó Jesús a los Doce, los envió de dos en dos y les dio poder sobre los espíritus inmundos. Les mandó que no llevaran nada para el camino: ni pan, ni mochila, ni dinero en el cinto, sino únicamente un bastón, sandalias y una sola túnica. Y les dijo: "Cuando entren en una casa, quédense en ella hasta que se vayan de ese lugar. Si en alguna parte no los reciben ni los escuchan, al abandonar ese lugar, sacúdanse el polvo de los pies, como una advertencia para ellos". Los discípulos se fueron a predicar el arrepentimiento. Expulsaban a los demonios, ungían con aceite a los enfermos y los curaban. Cuando Jesús manda a sus discípulos a llevar la Buena Nueva, los mandó sin nada solo la confianza en un Dios providente, les pidió que no llevaran nada que les pudiera distraer de la misión que le había encomendado, solo la confianza en Dios era todo lo que necesitaban para el camino. La pregunta para nosotros es: Qué es lo que nos distrae para que podamos hacer lo que el Señor nos manda? Qué es lo que está en nuestro corazón que no nos deja salir a anunciar la Buena Nueva? Dios es bueno, y es un Dios providente que se preocupa de nosotros cuando nosotros nos ocupamos de sus cosas aquí entre nuestros hermanos. Nos da a cada uno de nosotros lo que necesitamos y no nos abandona. Señor Jesús tu que nos pides que dejemos todo lo que nos ata a lo efímero, aumenta nuestra fe de tal modo que podamos abandonarnos en las manos del Padre.

Amén

Kids Corner

Prayer

Dear God, help me always to remember that it is your power that turns people's lives around. Amen.

Mission for the Week

Choose one friend you know who needs to hear about God's love. Ask your parents if you could offer a ride to that friend, and invite him or her to church with you.

Sharing the Gospel

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus prepared his disciples for a mission trip, where they would help the people in area towns and teach them about God. Before they left, Jesus asked his disciples to travel light—they were to bring no food or clothes or money. They could not survive without God's help. Jesus also asked them to heal people. They could not heal without God's power, either. God provided everything they needed for their mission trip.

Draw a picture of a disciple

PUZZLE

You can count on Jesus for sure, but can you count how many are shown here?

NEILSON BURTON

MISSION

Ask God to bless your family so that they will be able to obey God's commandments.
