To the Parishioners of St. John the Baptist,

While we know that everyone is working through the changes and daily challenges of the COVID-19 virus restrictions, we thank you for continuing your financial support of our parish, even while Mass is not being held.

Please know that we are being mindful of our expenses, but most of the parish bills and financial obligations still have to be paid and your continued support is critical! More than 60% of our regular offertory typically comes from your donations at Mass.

Please mail your offertory donation to the parish, or drop it off at the parish office. Another option would be to sign up for our e-giving option, Faith Direct, as explained below.

We are so thankful for your faithful and generous support of the parish. May God bless you and protect you and your families and continue to strengthen your faithful confidence in God’s providence.

-In Christ, Fr. Humberto Márquez

St. John the Baptist needs your support now more than ever! Join the parishioners who are using Faith Direct for automated giving to St. John the Baptist. St. John the Baptist Food Bank News

“So we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.” -- Romans 12:5

One of the pleasures of operating an outreach ministry like the Food Bank is working with people and groups within our community, cooperating to improve the state of our local world together. The Food Bank benefits from the generosity of several stores and organizations - such as bread and dessert donations from Great Harvest Bread Company, Panera Bread, and the Journey Church. Recently we have welcomed another partner and (by the time of this article’s printing) will be benefiting from another local group’s kindness.

A sad fact of storing and distributing food, especially food heavily based on donations, is that occasionally we have foodstuffs that have spoiled, molded, or otherwise gone bad. Obviously we would not give this food to our clients so quite a bit of spoiled food can end up in the dumpster in a week. Recently, one of our volunteer team members introduced us to the Drylands Agroecology Research project where he was also volunteering. This group of young farmers began as a homestead effort up in the Lyons region and has blossomed into a research project advocating “regenerative land management.” In a comparatively short amount of time, they have transformed some of the dry, over-grazed land of the area into lush stretches full of grass and new trees. They are taking the techniques that they are developing in their work and sharing with other local farmers, helping teach sustainable methods of growing and ranching. (For more information, visit their website at drylandsagroecologyresearch.org.)

One aspect of their work involves the use of pigs to help fertilize the land. The pigs love fruits, vegetables, and bread - and are not real picky about the quality of the food! Our volunteer started collecting spoiled produce and moldy bread and bringing them to the farm to use as pig food. Though this volunteer has since left us, the project farmers are still happy to work with us and continue picking up any produce and bread we would otherwise throw away. We are happy to support such an ecologically friendly project - and it feels good not to be throwing away crates of food each week.

Our second supporter is the Fox Hill Club here in Longmont. On Tuesday June 9th, the Club will have held a fundraising event to benefit the SJB Food Bank. This Gives Day event occurs every year - members are encouraged to support a local charity. A couple Fox Hill Club members are also volunteers at the Food Bank and advocated for the ministry to be the beneficiaries of the event this year. We are extremely grateful for the generosity of the Fox Hill Club - as we are of all supporters of our work. We are also very appreciative of our volunteers who not only put forth physical effort serving our clients at the Food Bank, but who are also out in the community looking for more ways to lend support. Thank you to the Fox Hill Club!

Collaborative partnership is a powerful tool in service to our community and our world. The SJB Food Bank is eager and happy to continue working with other outreach and service organizations within the city. We are many parts but we are all one body in Christ!

A los feligreses de San Juan Bautista,

Si bien sabemos que todos están trabajando a través de los cambios y desafíos diarios de las restricciones del virus COVID-19, le agradecemos por continuar su apoyo financiero a nuestra parroquia; incluso mientras no se celebra misa.

La mayoría de las facturas y obligaciones financieras de la parroquia aún deben pagarse, ¡y su apoyo es crítico! Más del 60% de nuestro ofertorio regular generalmente proviene de sus donaciones en misa.

No dude en enviar por correo su donación ofertoria a la parroquia, o dejarla en las oficinas de la parroquia. Otra opción sería inscribirse en nuestra opción de entrega electrónica Faith Direct (mencionado en la parte de abajo).

Estamos muy agradecidos por su fiel y generoso apoyo a la parroquia. Que Dios te bendiga y te proteja a ti y a tu familia y continue fortaleciendo tu fiel confianza en la providencia de Dios.

-En Cristo,  P. Humberto Márquez

Faith Direct (Ofertorio Semanal)

Durante la Cuaresma, nos preparamos a través de la oración y la retribución a nuestra parroquia. Pero, con vidas ocupadas y familias activas, a veces se nos pasa una semana. Esta Cuaresma, quiero invitarlos a unirse a mí y a muchos otros en St. John the Baptist para establecer eGiving, recurrente a través de Faith Direct. Gracias a eGiving, su ofertorio seminal será atendido automáticamente, lo que le ahorrará tiempo y ahorra dinero a nuestra parroquia al eliminar todos los sobres do ofertorio no utilizados.

¡Comenzar es fácil! Visite faith.direct/CO509. Gracias por su continuo apoyo a nuestra familia parroquial.

En nuestra Tienda de Regalos...

Hasta que podamos reanudar nuestro horario regular en la Tienda de Regalos, estaremos contentos de servirle mediante cita previa de Lunes a Viernes. Favor de llamar a Nancy al (303) 776-0737, ext. 108 o enviar un mensaje electrónico a nancyo@johnthebaptist.org.
