To the Parishioners of St. John the Baptist,

While we know that everyone is working through the changes and daily challenges of the COVID-19 virus restrictions, we thank you for continuing your financial support of our parish, even while Mass is not being held.

Please know that we are being mindful of our expenses, but most of the parish bills and financial obligations still have to be paid and your continued support is critical! More than 60% of our regular offertory typically comes from your donations at Mass.

Please mail your offertory donation to the parish, or drop it off at the parish office. Another option would be to sign up for our e-giving option, Faith Direct, as explained on this page.

We are so thankful for your faithful and generous support of the parish. May God bless you and protect you and your families and continue to strengthen your faithful confidence in God’s providence.

- In Christ, Fr. Humberto Márquez

St. John the Baptist Food Bank News

“But he said to them, ‘You give them something to eat.’” They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish – unless we are to go and buy food for all these people.” – Luke 9:13

While at Mass or waiting in Holy Communion carline this weekend, be on the lookout for our Parish youth handing out paper bags for our Summer Food Drive!

This weekend you can pick up one of these bags, which will have a list of desperately needed food items and school supplies needed by the Food Bank. Canned food, dry pasta, mac-n-cheese, peanut butter, oatmeal, instant meals and sides – all these are very low at the Food Bank. The Parishioners of SJB Parish have been very generous in the past – both with food and monetary donations. We have been purchasing food when we can, but most stores are limiting what we can obtain in bulk – so what we can buy tends to go very quickly. Our clients depend on everyone giving what they can – because when everyone gives a little, we end up with a lot! Please add what you can and return your bag when you come to Mass or Communion on July 26th.

In addition to food items, we also need donations of school supplies for our Backpack Program. Please consider adding something to help prepare the children of our client households for school this year. Supplies should be readily available in grocery and discount retail stores very soon. Let’s make sure none of these kids has to start the new school year at a disadvantage.

Thank you for considering donating to the Summer Food Drive! We at the Food Bank are excited at the chance to fill our shelves with much-needed food. Remember that there is no requirement to completely fill the donation bag you take – though you can if you are able. Even a few boxes or cans of food can mean all the difference to a client family.

Thank you again – and God Bless!

WHAT IS THE DIDACHE AND WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?

From Aleteia.org

Aleteia is an online publication offering a Christian vision of the world by providing general and religious content that is free from ideological influences.

The Didache is one of the earliest collections of Christian writings, and was often paired with the New Testament in the early Church.

After the New Testament, the Didache stands as one of the more influential collections of early Christian writings that allows us a glimpse into the beginnings of Christianity.

The Greek word didache means “teaching” or “the teaching,” and is a shortened form of the full title, which is often translated as, “The Lord’s Teaching Through the Twelve Apostles to the Nations.” Many scholars simply refer to it as the “Teaching of the Twelve Apostles.”

The Didache is a collection of Christian writings that is mentioned by various writers in the early Church and is often paired with the New Testament. For example, according to the Catholic Encyclopedia, “The Didache is mentioned by Eusebius after the books of Scripture (Church History III.25.4): ‘Let there be placed among the spuria the writing of the Acts of Paul ... what are called the Teachings of the Apostles ... if this be thought fit.’

There existed at a very remote period, most likely before the end of the first century, a work handed down by oral tradition which was supposed to embody the verbal teaching of the first Apostles. The expression itself, “teaching of the Apostles,” occurs in Acts 11:42, and the use of the word for teaching or doctrine is common in the New Testament, so that it would be the natural title for a collection of sayings or precepts which had been handed down by tradition as representing the verbal teaching of the Apostles. We may suppose that this work, after existing for a time in a traditional form, was embodied in writing, and used to form part of the earliest Christian books.

The contents of the Didache focus on ritual instructions regarding baptism, Holy Communion and fasting, for example. Above all, it stands as early evidence of various Catholic beliefs and teachings, and is used frequently to showcase a small snippet of what the early Christians believed.
From today’s Gospel:
"His slaves said to him, ‘Do you want us to go and pull them up?’ 29 He replied, ‘No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. 30 Let them grow together until harvest;’"

Why does God allow certain people to trouble our lives? The difficult people. The mean people. The people who are, as opposed to our obvious brilliance, so unintelligent.

Could it be that they help us grow? Could it be that by testing our patience, our generosity, our humility, our charity, our forgiveness, they sanctify us? Perhaps God, in His transcendent wisdom, allows us to be driven crazy by certain individuals so that we might be driven towards Him, laying our grievances and wounds and troubles at His feet.

We shall never have the wisdom of God, so perhaps a better question than ‘why’ might be ‘how’. How can we offer this thorn to Christ? How can we grow closer to Him through this difficulty? In what way can we unite our sufferings to Christ’s sufferings on the cross? Let us allow the weeds to strengthen us as we grow.

Questions for family discussion or prayerful meditation.
1. What is your first reaction to difficulties in your life?
2. Do you involve God in your daily struggles? Do you enlist His aid?
3. Christ suffered Death on the Cross that you might not suffer alone, and that all suffering may be redeemed through Him. How might approaching suffering with this in mind change your heart?

"Always remember to love your neighbor; always prefer the one who tries your patience, who test your virtue, because with her you can always merit: suffering is Love; the Law is Love."

A los feligreses de San Juan Bautista,

Si bien sabemos que todos están trabajando a través de los cambios y desafíos diarios de las restricciones del virus COVID-19, le agradecemos por continuar su apoyo financiero a nuestra parroquia; incluso mientras no se celebra misa.

La mayoría de las facturas y obligaciones financieras de la parroquia aún deben pagarse, ¡y su apoyo es crítico! Más del 60% de nuestro ofertorio regular generalmente proviene de sus donaciones en misa.

No dude en enviar por correo su donación ofertoria a la parroquia, o dejarla en las oficinas de la parroquia. Otra opción sería inscribirse en nuestra opción de entrega electrónica Faith Direct (mencionado en la parte de abajo).

Estamos muy agradecidos por su fiel y generoso apoyo a la parroquia. Que Dios te bendiga y te proteja a ti y a tu familia y continue fortaleciendo tu fiel confianza en la providencia de Dios.

-En Cristo, P. Humberto Márquez
