This weekend, we celebrate the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

In our first reading from the Book of Kings, we find Elijah the prophet, who is ready to hand on his mantle of leadership to a young man. Elijah has served God as a faithful prophet drawing the people back to God and challenging them to be faithful. His time is coming to an end. Elisha is plowing in his family's field. Elijah as a sign of passing his call to a young man, throw his cloak over him. We don't know much about Elisha, yet he is called to do God's work. At first, he doesn't seem to be ready or even willing. He asks to speak with his family. Elisha burns the yoke and prepares a feast for the people to eat. He expresses his willingness to give up his way of life and answer the call of God. He becomes the next great prophet for the people of Israel.

St. Paul in his Letter to the Galatians, helps the people to understand what freedom in Jesus Christ means. Paul finds the Law imposed by certain Jewish factions, i.e., circumcision, as yoke of slavery are not required anymore, because the Law of Jesus is now grounded in love of God and neighbor freeing us from slavery and sin. It's pretty straight forward for Paul to be free and do what Jesus teaches.

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus completes his ministry in Galilee and moves toward his final destiny of Jerusalem. Along the way they were not welcomed in a Samaritan town. The apostles want retribution. Jesus rebukes them and moves on. The apostles are still learning what it meant to be called to serve God and His Church. We too, may sometimes find it hard to understand what our call to service in Christ really means. We must trust in the Lord Jesus and follow him, which means changing our lives and giving us things along the journey of life. If we can model our lives after Jesus and his love, we are on the right path. All this is not easy, but we are to help each other out by our words and actions. May profess our faith by love we show in our words and actions! ~Msgr. Bob

New Priest Arriving Soon

We thank Fr. Chance for his work here at St. Paul Parish and School this last year and a half. We are also preparing for the arrival of a new priest. We are hoping that Fr. George Sejo O.S.B., two other Benedictine priests, and a diocesan priest, all from India will arrive sometime in July. Certainly more information will be given as we hear more from Immigration.

Fr. George will be our new Parochial Vicar at St. Paul

Faith ~ Hope ~ Love

“Faith In Action Idea Of The Week”

Smile and wave...

Today’s readings take us back to the basics, inviting us to reflect honestly on our deepest priorities in life.

In today’s Gospel, from Luke, Christ refers to the struggle to put Him above all else as He encounters two “would be” disciples on His way to Jerusalem. “Follow me,” Jesus says to the first man. “But he replied, ‘Lord let me go first and bury my father.’ The other said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home.” These two want to follow Christ but only on their own terms, only after taking care of some other, more pressing matters (at least in their own minds).

To this, Christ says thanks but no thanks! Following Him requires an unqualified “yes” not a “yes but...” We are called to put Christ and His kingdom ahead of our own plans if we truly wish to be his disciples and to find victory in the battle of selfishness.

Living stewardship as a way of life can go a long way in arming us for victory. Stewardship living provides us with a custom-made “training plan” — the commitment to a specific offering of our time, talent, and treasure to the Kingdom of God. It is a plan discerned through prayer and by looking at the realities of our unique circumstances, strengths, and limitations. The daily discipline of committing to the plan strengthens us and helps us gradually move away from the “yes, but” attitude and towards an unqualified “yes!” to Christ and His will.

Do not be afraid to give the best of yourself and your gifts to Christ. He deserves nothing less. And this way of life, while challenging, will be characterized by a joy and peace that only comes from living for Him.

Even though the kiddos are just getting home for summer vacation, it’s time to stuff the backpacks for West Side CARES. We here at St. Paul’s have been asked to help provide 200 packages of Children’s Washable Crayola (or similar brand) Markers in the primary colors, which usually come in 10 markers to a pack. These are the fat markers that are easier for Kindergartners and early grades students to hold. School supplies usually start appearing in stores right after 4th of July and we need to turn in our 200 packages of markers by July 25th. If you can help, please bring them to church and place them in the designated box in the church vestibule. Thank you so much for your continued support!

Are You Traveling This Summer

Do you bring home the sample shampoos, conditioners and soaps from hotels when you have been on vacation? Are they taking up space in your bathroom or linen closet? Please donate them to the Marian House Soup Kitchen. In the summer there are a lot more people that need the services at Marian House. There is a shopping cart in the back of the church to put your donations and someone will pick them and take them to the Marian House on a weekly basis.

Farewell Fr. Chance

On behalf of myself, our staff and all of us here at St. Paul Parish. I would like to thank Fr. Chance for his time at St. Paul’s. May our prayers go with him as he moves to his next assignment at St. Francis in Castle Rock. We wish you much success. God bless you!
