This is the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Today's reading from the Prophet Isaiah, is from the last chapter of his writings. We hear a theme from our prophet, one of hope and rejoicing in the promises of God. The people are returning home after the Babylonian exile. They find the City of Jerusalem and the Temple in destruction yet, they are told to rejoice. God's promise is to once again make of them a fruitful people and a great nation. They hope in God's promise of the good things that come to those who are faithful. God offers us the same promise. None of this comes without living out our faith by our words and actions. We need to practice what we say and believe. As we renew ourselves in the Eucharist, we become a new creation in Christ Jesus. We in turn are called to spread the Good News.

In our second reading, we hear the last of St. Paul's Letters to the Galatians. He has tried to reinforce his teachings about Jesus, mainly that by the death and resurrection of Christ we are freed from the Law. The cross of Jesus has set us free, and Christ needs to be the center and core of our lives. So, how do we live as Jesus asks us? What needs to change in our lives?

In our Gospel from Luke, Jesus appoints seventy-two others and sends them in pairs ahead of him to the places he intends to visit. He needs them to prepare the people for his message of Good News of the Kingdom. Some people will listen, and some will resist. Much like our world today. Clearly, we all need this message of love and hope. Our role is to spread this Good News by our words and actions.

We thank God for the Roe vs. Wade decision being overturned. What a poor choice from the beginning. Our work needs to continue to overcome the tragic loss of so many innocent lives. We must be the example of respecting all lives, all people and work to provide for the needs of everyone. Jesus is sending us out in pairs to spread the Good News of his love for everyone and that we need to do the same.

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday for the 4th of July Holiday!

Even though the kiddos are just getting home for summer vacation, it's time to stuff the backpacks for West Side CARES. We here at St. Paul's have been asked to help provide 200 packages of Children's Washable Crayola (or similar brand) Markers in the primary colors, which usually come in 10 markers to a pack. These are the fat markers that are easier for Kindergartners and early grades students to hold. School supplies usually start appearing in stores right after 4th of July and we need to turn in our 200 packages of markers by July 25th. If you can help, please bring them to church and place them in the designated box in the church vestibule. Thank you so much for your continued support!

Looking for Green Thumbs!

We want to thank Linda Mertens for all the wonderful work she has done to the flowers and greenery in front of the Church! However, we are looking for a few more volunteers with a green thumb to take over and are willing to help keep the grounds in front of the Church looking beautiful. Please contact the Parish Office if you are interested. Thank you!

A big thank you to Jeniene Knight, Allison Reida and their wonderful committee for our fun-filled movie night and parish picnic last Friday and Sunday! So many came to enjoy the great movie, wonderful food, games and entertainment. It was a great opportunity for us to gather again as a parish community and say goodbye to Fr. Chance.

So, here's my request. Stay involved. Stay active. Smile at others. Come to Mass. Bring your family. We have all sorts of great activities coming up this summer and fall. Check out our parish website for more information: www.stpaulcos.org ~ Msgr. Bob ~
