This weekend we celebrate the 17th week in Ordinary Time.

The first reading is from Ecclesiastes, a Greek word for the Title "Qoheleth". The title is a Hebrew word for a teacher or one who gathers an assembly.

Ecclesiastes details the essential meaning of life. It is a wisdom book sometimes associated with the writings of Solomon. It's a book about lessons of life. Life is transitory and does not endure. We need to learn what is really important in life. Things of this world can satisfy us, but only for a short time. We must work for things that endure and last forever, such as the wisdom in a faith filled covenant love with God, which lasts forever.

Once again St. Paul in his Letter to the Colossians invites us to strive for those things that last forever. We must put to death the old self, worldly practices, and look to Christ for our lasting relationships that will lead us to eternal salvation. We are called to renew our life in Jesus Christ, by the things we do and say.

In Luke's Gospel, we are cautioned about greed. Life does not consist of just possessions. Jesus uses a simple example of someone that has everything stored up for his long future. He can live comfortably, or so he thinks he can. God said to him, "You fool this night your life will be demanded of you." So, what happens to everything he had? It makes no difference to him. We are invited to invest our lives in that which matters, store up treasures in heaven with God. These will last forever. How about you? My money is on God! My life too! ~Msgr. Bob

STEWARDSHIP IT'S WHAT WE DO!

"Faith In Action Idea Of The Week"

"One of the great moments in the life of a Christian comes when we realize, once and for all, that a life with prayer is better than a life without prayer."

~Matthew Kelly~

Today's Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let's face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish. But let's see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools!

In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about "stuff" as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn't have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff. Patting himself on the back, he thought about what good times he would have in the years ahead. But Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man's last day on the earth. And he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish!

Don't be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God's eyes, Christian steward. And you will be rich in what matters most.

Our donation basket is located in the vestibule of the church.
