From the Pastor

In this week's Gospel reading, It is only natural on a first superficial reading of this passage to find ourselves agreeing with the complainers that the owner of the vineyard was treating them unfairly. But a closer reading and reflection enables us to see that it really isn't so. This is especially true when we realize that the parable is an illustration of the way things are different in the Kingdom of Heaven than they are in the kingdom of humans. When we realize what this parable teaches indirectly about our eternal rewards, then our response becomes much different! We should yearn for all to go to heaven, even our enemies and those who now do not follow Christ. Our prayer should be for their conversion in the hope we could rejoice with them after they have been reconciled with the Lord.

Fr. Jason Keas
Pastor

Divine Redeemer is a welcoming community, thanks to the continued dedication of the greeters. We rely on these friendly volunteers to continue to help keep us all within the CoVid guidelines. However, some of the greeters are at high risk and cannot return yet to this valuable ministry. Therefore, we need more people to help greet parishioners as they enter the church. Please contact Trish Faber at 719-234-0311 or tfaber@divineredeemer.net for more information.
