From the Pastor

This Gospel account raises a question which warrants our attention: "How do we respond to God's call for conversion and change when we encounter it?" And perhaps there is even a more basic question we should consider: "Do we desire conversion and change?" The hope of the Gospel, is that Christ brings a holy and powerful force into our lives which will enable us to break the bonds of enslavement to our old nature and its passions and habits. We always need to be looking to Christ as he is always challenging us to grow in holiness we also need to be patient with ourselves as we grow and heal always returning to Christ for strength and his peace allowing him to heal us in the silence as we keep focused on him.

Today's Gospel January 30, 2022
Luke 4:21-30

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

Scrip is available after Mass. For more information, please contact Diane Torrence at scrip@divineredeemer.net or (719) 332-6018 (text or call). IMPORTANT: The Benefit Mobile app will cease to work in February. Please use up any balances you may have in your app. If you have questions, please contact Diane.

Did you know that candles are lit for prayer intentions? To "light a candle for someone" indicates one's intention to say a prayer for another person, and the candle symbolizes that prayer. Pray for a special intention, and ask for blessings for that person.
