WHEN IS JESUS' BIRTHDAY?

In our present world, much is made of birthdays. Marking the years of our life is a great excitement when we are young, less so as we get older! We know that it is not so much the counting of days, as the scope of our lives that is being celebrated. This is also true with regard to Christ. The glorious reality of Christ's birth lies in the Incarnation, God becoming man. This is the beginning of our salvation, and shows God's love for his flock.

Often the question arises as to when Jesus' birth day is. Of course, we celebrate on Dec. 25, but are aware that this is probably not his actual date of birth. In fact, there is no way to prove yea or nay, as the calendar was not used in the same way at that time. No one has found any "birth announcements" from Mary and Joseph, nor has Jesus' birth appeared in any Roman records. We do know of the frame of years as the reference is made in the Gospel of Luke to Jesus' birth occurring during the census of Caesar Augustus. We know this date-range from Roman records. How did December 25 come about as the accepted date of Jesus' birth? St. Augustine gave the following reasons. First, Jesus said, "I am the light of the world". After the Winter Solstice (Dec. 21), the light "grows" incrementally each day. Also, John the Baptist stated that "I must decrease as he increases". The summer solstice is the longest day of the year (June 21). Guess when St. John the Baptist's feast occurs: June 24! As the Julius Caesar calendar was changed to the Pope Gregory calendar, a few days have been moved around here and there. But, the settlement on Dec. 25 makes sense from a symbolic perspective. Christ is truly the light of the world!

One aside, scholars speculate that Jesus was probably born in the spring, say March. It is known that the shepherds took the flocks of sheep out into the fields at this time of the year, for the occasion of the birth of the lambs. We know again from Luke that the shepherds were in the fields at night with their flocks at the time of Jesus' birth. This Advent, we prepare for this great gift of Christ to the world. This celebration should occur in our hearts each and every day

Second Sunday of Advent

When I hear about John the Baptizer dunking Israelites in the Jordan I remember a tender moment with my friend Charles Onofrio, the great lion of God who went home to heaven four years ago. No one loved Jesus and the Church more than Chuck, and no one was more receptive to and educated about the reforms of Vatican II than this eloquent Catholic lawyer.

But the first time Chuck observed the catechumens preparing for baptism being led from the church after the homily he was outraged. "Well, I'm not standing for this. If they can't stay for Communion then neither can I. I'm a greater sinner than any of them. How dare I stay when they are being asked to leave?"

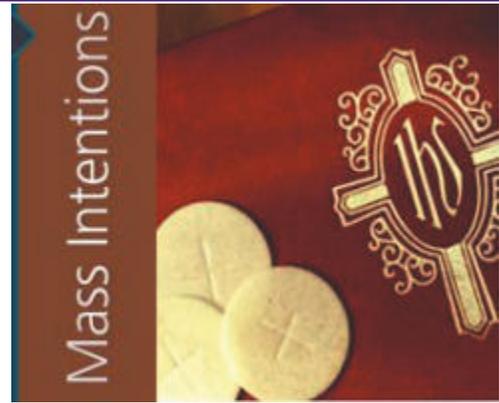

It took a few words of kind explanation from the great Bishop George Evans to help Chuck understand that this was the new rite of initiation for converts to the faith. Their dismissal is not—good heavens! — because they are sinners and we aren't. They are dismissed in front of us so they can go for catechesis together, and so we can pray for them every step of the way.

Chuck became the lead catechist in the parish, and must have prayed hundreds of new Catholics to the baptismal font over the next thirty-five years. But I think he secretly liked the style of that wild, locust-eating Baptist, who dragged his own people—not those converting to Judaism, but lifelong, faithful Jews— out into the desert and got them to admit that THEY were sinners and that THEY needed a baptism of repentance.

Advent is such a quiet, reflective season. Listen carefully. A voice is crying out in the wilderness.

What is the voice of John the Baptist saying to you?
